To the student

Why do we learn grammar?

There is no point in learning grammar for the sake of learning grammar. Grammar is the support system of communication and we learn it to communicate better. Grammar explains the why and how of language. We learn it because we just can't do without it.

Who is this book for and what does it cover?

This book deals entirely with English as a foreign language (EFL). It is for intermediate students who are working with a teacher or working on their own. It covers every important area of the English language. If you look at the Contents pages, you will find sixteen major areas which form the basis of English grammar. This book is based on the Longman English Grammar and the grammatical information in it is all drawn from this work. Longman English Grammar Practice has been designed to stand on its own. Students who require further grammatical information can refer to the Longman English Grammar.

How the material is organized

Longman English Grammar Practice is a practice book. It is intended to support (not replace) the material in language courses and is organized for this purpose:

- The material is laid out on facing pages.
- Each set of facing pages deals with a major point of grammar.
- This major point is divided into small, manageable amounts of information. Clear notes explain the points to be practised, followed by an exercise on just those points.
- The last exercise is in context, usually an entertaining story with a cartoon illustration. It sums up all you have learnt in the exercises you have just done and shows you how the language works. It is a 'reward' for the hard work you have just been doing!

Cross references

If you see e.g. [> 7.3A] in the notes, it means that a similar point is discussed in some other part of the book. Follow up the reference for parallel practice or information if you want to. If you see e.g. [> LEG 4.30] at the top of the notes, it means that the point is dealt with in the Longman English Grammar. Follow up the reference if you want 'the whole story'.

How to work

YOU DON'T HAVE TO WORK THROUGH THIS BOOK FROM START TO FINISH!

It is not arranged in order of increasing difficulty.

Select a chapter or part of a chapter which you want to study. Do this by referring to the Contents pages or the Index. Usually, this will be a topic you have been dealing with in your language course. Then:

- 1 Read the notes carefully (called Study). Notes and exercises are marked like this:
☐ = Elementary ☐☐ = Intermediate (most exercises) ☐☐☐ = Advanced
You will sometimes find that you know some, but not all, of the points in an exercise marked ☐☐.
- 2 Do the exercises (called Write). Always leave the story till last (called Context).
- 3 Check your answers with your teacher.
- 4 If you have made mistakes, study the notes again until you have understood where you went wrong and why.

1 The sentence

1.1 Sentence word order

1.1A The basic word order of an English sentence [> LEG 1.3]

Study:

The meaning of an English sentence depends on the word order.

- 1 We put the subject before the verb and the object after the verb:
The cook | burnt | the dinner.
- 2 Adverbials (How?, Where?, When?) usually come after the verb or after the object:
*He read the note quickly. (How?) I waited at the corner (Where?) till 11.30. (When?)*
- 3 The basic word order of a sentence that is not a question or a command is usually:

subject	verb	object	adverbials
			How? Where? When?
I	bought	a hat	yesterday.
The children	have gone		home.
We	ate	our meal	in silence.
- 4 We also put the time reference at the beginning: Yesterday I bought a hat. [> 7.2A]

Write 1:

- a Rewrite the sentences that don't make sense.
- b Mark all the sentences in the exercise S V O to show Subject, Verb, Object.
- 1 Has set John Bailey a new high-jump record. (S) John Bailey (V) has set (O) a new high-jump record.
- 2 The passport examined the passport officer.
- 3 These biscuits don't like the dogs.
- 4 The shop assistant is wrapping the parcel.
- 5 Have seen the visitors the new buildings.
- 6 My father didn't wash the dishes.
- 7 The pipe is going to fix the plumber.
- 8 Will the goalkeeper catch the ball?
- 9 Has the meal enjoyed the guest?
- 10 Can't play John the game.

Write 2:

- a Arrange these words in the right order. Use a capital letter to begin each sentence.
- b Mark each rewritten sentence S V O M P T to show:
Subject, Verb, Object, Manner (How?), Place (Where?), Time (When?).
- 1 till 11 o'clock this morning | slept | the children (S) The children (V) slept (T) till 11 o'clock this morning.
- 2 the papers | into the bin | he threw
- 3 I don't speak | well | English
- 4 hides | Mrs Jones | her money | under the bed
- 5 carefully | this suitcase | you didn't pack
- 6 on this shelf | I left | this morning | some money
- 7 from the bank | a loan | you'll have to get
- 8 the phone | in the middle of the night | woke me up
- 9 in the park | you shouldn't walk | at night
- 10 your food | you should eat | slow'y
- 11 my term | begins | in October
- 12 your article | I | quickly | last night | in bed | read

1.1B The forms of a sentence [> LEG 1.2]

Study:

- 1 A sentence can take any one of four forms:
 - a statement: The shops close/don't close at 7 tonight.
 - a question: Do the shops close at 7 tonight?
 - a command: Shut the door./Don't shut the door.
 - an exclamation: What a slow train this is!
- 2 When we write a sentence, we must begin with a capital letter and end with a full stop (.), a question mark (?), or an exclamation mark (!).
If there are quotation marks ('...') or ("...") around spoken words in a sentence, we put other punctuation marks 'inside' them:
*'I'm tired,' she said. (Not 'I'm tired', she said.)* [> 15.1A-B]

Write:

- a Arrange these groups of words in the right order. Add (.), (?) or (!).
- b Describe each sentence as a statement, question, command or exclamation: S, Q, C or E.

- 1 the coffee | don't spill Don't spill the coffee. (C)
- 2 today's papers | have you seen ()
- 3 to meet you | how nice ()
- 4 my umbrella | where did you put ()
- 5 arrived | the train | fifteen minutes late ()
- 6 on time | the plane | won't arrive ()
- 7 this electricity bill | I can't pay ()
- 8 for me | please | open the door ()
- 9 the nearest hotel | where's | he asked ()
- 10 the bill | can't pay | I | he cried ()

1.1C Context

- Write: Read this story and arrange the words in each sentence in the right order.
Add capital letters and (,), (.), (!) or (?) in the right places.

A QUIET SORT OF PLACE!

- 1 my car | I parked | in the centre of the village I parked my car in the centre of the village
- 2 near a bus stop | an old man | I saw
- 3 'beautiful village | what a' | I exclaimed
- 4 'live here | how many people'
- 5 'seventeen people | there are' | the old man said
- 6 'here | have you lived | how long'
- 7 'all my life | I have lived here'
- 8 'isn't it | it's a quiet sort of place'
- 9 'here | a quiet life | we live'
- 10 a cinema | we don't have | or a theatre
- 11 our school | five years ago | was closed
- 12 only one shop | we have
- 13 calls | a bus | once a day
- 14 here | in 55 B.C. | came | the Romans
- 15 since then | has happened | nothing'

1.2 The simple sentence: verbs with and without objects

1.2A What is a complete sentence? [> LEG 1.2]

Study:

- 1 When we speak, we often say things like All right! Good! Want any help? These are 'complete units of meaning', but they are not real sentences.
- 2 A simple sentence is a complete unit of meaning which contains a subject and a verb, followed, if necessary, by other words which make up the meaning. So:
Made in Germany is correct English but it is not a sentence because it doesn't have a subject.
My car was made in Germany. is a complete sentence with a subject and verb.
We can't say e.g. Is tired because we need a subject [> 4.1A, 4.3A]: He is tired.
- 3 The subject may be 'hidden': Open the door. really means You open the door. [> 9.10B]

Write: Put a tick (✓) beside real sentences.

- | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1 Made in Germany. ____ | 11 Sit down please. ____ |
| 2 This car was made in Germany. ✓ | 12 You can't park here. ____ |
| 3 To write a letter. ____ | 13 Don't interrupt. ____ |
| 4 Standing in the rain. ____ | 14 I understand. ____ |
| 5 I want to write a letter. ____ | 15 She doesn't like me. ____ |
| 6 Is tall. ____ | 16 Under the water. ____ |
| 7 Do you like? ____ | 17 Ate. ____ |
| 8 The train has arrived. ____ | 18 A bottle of ink. ____ |
| 9 Have finished my work. ____ | 19 He's a doctor. ____ |
| 10 You should listen. ____ | 20 What happened? ____ |

1.2B Verbs with and without objects [> LEG 1.4, 1.9, 1.10, 1.12, App 1]

Study:

- 1 We always have to use an object after some verbs: e.g. beat, contain, enjoy, hit, need. We call these transitive verbs. We have to say:
Arsenal beat Liverpool. But we can't say Arsenal beat.
- 2 Some verbs never take an object: e.g. ache, arrive, come, faint, go, sit down, sleep, snow. We call these intransitive verbs. We have to say:
We arrived at 11. But we can't say We arrived the station at 11.
- 3 Some verbs can be used transitively or intransitively: e.g. begin, drop, hurt, open, ring, win. We can say: Arsenal won the match. (transitive) or Arsenal won. (intransitive)

Write: Put an object (a pronoun or a noun) after these verbs only where possible.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 The box contains pencils | 10 The door opened |
| 2 The train has arrived | 11 This is a game no one can win |
| 3 The phone rang | 12 The concert began at 7.30. |
| 4 Someone is ringing | 13 I began |
| 5 You need | 14 It's snowing |
| 6 We sat down | 15 Quick! She's fainted |
| 7 Don't hit | 16 Did you enjoy ? |
| 8 Did you beat ? | 17 My head aches |
| 9 Who opened ? | 18 My foot hurts |

1.2C Sentences with linking verbs like 'be' and 'seem' [> LEG 1.9, 1.11, 10.23-26]

Study:

- 1 Verbs like be [> 10.1-3] and seem [> 10.4] are 'linking verbs'. They cannot have an object. The word we use after be, etc. tells us something about the subject. In grammar, we call this a complement because it 'completes' the sentence by telling us about the subject. In He is ill. She seems tired. etc. the words ill and tired tell us about he and she.
- 2 A complement may be:
 - an adjective: Frank is clever.
 - a noun: Frank is an architect.
 - an adjective + noun: Frank is a clever architect.
 - a pronoun: This book is mine.
 - an adverb of place or time: The meeting is here. The meeting is at 2.30.
 - a prepositional phrase: Alice is like her father.

Write:

- a Complete these sentences using a different complement for each sentence.
- b Say whether you have used a noun, an adjective, an adjective + noun, etc.

- 1 My neighbour is very tall. (adjective)
- 2 My neighbour is
- 3 This apple tastes
- 4 The children are
- 5 The meeting is
- 6 Whose is this? It's
- 7 John looks
- 8 That music sounds
- 9 Your mother seems
- 10 I want to be when I leave school.

1.2D Context

Write:

Read this story and arrange the words in each sentence in the right order. Add capital letters and (.), (.), (!) or (?) in the right places [> 1.1B].

SO PLEASE DON'T COMPLAIN!

- 1 the local school | attends | my son Tim My son Tim attends the local school.
- 2 to his school | my wife and I went | yesterday
- 3 we | to his teachers | spoke
- 4 Tim's school report | we collected
- 5 very good | wasn't | Tim's report
- 6 in every subject | were | his marks | low
- 7 was waiting anxiously for us | outside | Tim
- 8 'my report | how was' | eagerly | he asked
- 9 'very good | it wasn't' | I said
- 10 'you | harder | must try
- 11 seems | that boy Ogilvy | very clever
- 12 good marks | he got | in all subjects'
- 13 'clever parents | Ogilvy | has' | Tim said

1.3 The simple sentence: direct and indirect objects

1.3A Subject + verb + indirect object + direct object: 'Show me that photo' [> LEG 1.13]

Study:

- 1 We can use two objects after verbs like give and buy.
Instead of: Give the book to me, we can say: Give me the book.
Instead of: Buy the book for me, we can say: Buy me the book.
- 2 Some verbs combine with TO: bring, give, lend, pay, post, sell, send, show, tell, write:
Bring that book to me. → Bring me that book.
- 3 Other verbs combine with FOR: buy, choose, cook, cut, do, fetch, find, get, make, order:
Please order a meal for me. → Please order me a meal.
- 4 We can put it and them after the verb: Give it to me. Buy them for me. Do it for me.
With e.g. give and buy, we can say: Give me it. Buy me them. (But not Do me it)
We say: Give it to John. Buy them for John. (Not Give John it Buy John them)

Write: You want people to do things for you. Write suitable polite requests using it, them or one [> 4.3B].

- 1 Where are my shoes? (find) Please find them for me. / Please find me them.....
- 2 John needs a new coat. (buy) Please
- 3 I can't reach that cup. (pass) Please
- 4 Ann wants to see our flat. (show) Please
- 5 I can't do the shopping. (do) Please
- 6 I'd like a copy of that book. (order) Please

1.3B Verb + object + 'to' + noun or pronoun: 'Explain it to me' [> LEG 1.12.1]

Study:

- 1 There are some verbs like explain which do not behave in exactly the same way as give.
For example, we can say: Give the book to me, or Explain the situation to me.
Give me the book. (but not Explain me the situation*.*)
- 2 We cannot use an indirect object (me) immediately after explain. We can only have:
verb + object + 'to': He explained the situation to me.
He confessed his crime to the court.
- 3 Other verbs like explain and confess are: admit, announce, declare, demonstrate, describe, entrust, introduce, mention, propose, prove, repeat, report, say, suggest.

Write: Complete these sentences giving the right order of the words in brackets.

- 1 You must declare (the Customs/this camera) this camera to the Customs.....
- 2 Aren't you going to introduce (me/your friend)?
- 3 You can say (me/what you like)
- 4 Who suggested (this idea/you)?
- 5 He confessed (his crime/the police)
- 6 I have never admitted (anyone/this)
- 7 Can you describe (me/this man)?
- 8 Please don't mention (this/anyone)
- 9 I'm going to report (this/the headmaster)
- 10 I don't want you to repeat (what I told you/anyone)

1.3C The two meanings of 'for' [> LEG 1.13.3]

Study:

- 1 We can use for after all verbs which have two objects [> 1.3A].
- 2 When we use for after verbs normally followed by to (give, post, read, sell, show, tell, etc.) it can mean 'instead of': I'll post it for you. (= to save you the trouble)
- 3 When we use for after verbs normally followed by for (buy, choose, do, find, keep, order, etc.) the meaning depends on the context. It can mean 'for someone's benefit':
Mother cooked a lovely meal for me. (= for my benefit, for me to enjoy)
 It can mean 'on someone's behalf/instead of':
I'll cook the dinner for you. (on your behalf/instead of you – to save you the trouble)

Write: Tick (✓) to show whether for means 'instead of you/me' or 'for your/my benefit'.

	'instead of'	'for your/my benefit'
1 I've cooked a meal for you and I hope you enjoy it.	—	✓

A CURE FOR HYSTERIA

When I was a girl, my parents sent me to a very strict school. They had to buy an expensive uniform for me ¹ ✓ and pay school fees for me ² _____. Our headmistress, Miss Prim, never smiled. She explained the school rules to us ³ ____ and expected us to obey them. 'I will never say anything to you ⁴ ____ twice,' she used to say. We had to write a letter to our parents ⁵ ____ once a week and show it to Miss Prim ⁶ ____ before we sent it. I can still remember some of the school rules. We were not allowed to lend anything to anyone ⁷ _____. We were not allowed to give each other help ⁸ ____ with homework. We had to report unusual situations to the headmistress ⁹ _____. One morning, during assembly, a girl fainted. The next morning, two more fainted. This continued to happen for several mornings. Mass hysteria had set in! But Miss Prim put an end to it. She announced a new rule to us ¹⁰ ____: 'No girl will faint in College!' And after that, no one did!

No girl will faint in College!

1.4 The compound sentence

1.4A The form of a compound sentence [> LEG 1.17-20]

Study:

- 1 When we join two or more simple sentences [> 1.2A], we make a compound sentence:
Tom phoned. He left a message. → Tom phoned and left a message.
- 2 The name we give to 'joining words' is conjunctions.
These are the conjunctions we use to make compound sentences:
*and, and then, but, for, nor, or, so, yet;
either ... or; neither ... nor ...; not only ... but ... (also/as well/too).*
- 3 We can use conjunctions to show, for example:
 - addition (and): He washed the car and polished it.
 - continuation (and then): He washed the car and then polished it.
 - contrast (but, yet): She sold her house, but/yet (she) can't help regretting it.
 - choice (or): You can park your car on the drive or on the road.
 - result (so): He couldn't find his pen, so he wrote in pencil.
 - reason (for): We rarely stay in hotels, for we can't afford it.
- 4 We do not usually put a comma in front of and, but we often use one in front of other conjunctions: He washed the car and polished it. (no comma before and)
Compare: He washed the car, but didn't polish it. (comma before but)
- 5 We keep to the basic word order in a compound sentence [> 1.1A, 1.2C]:

subject	verb	object	conjunction	subject	verb	complement
Jimmy	fell off	his bike,	but	(he)	was	unhurt.
- 6 When the subject is the same in all parts of the sentence, we do not usually repeat it: same subject: Tom phoned. He left a message. → Tom phoned and (he) left a message.
different subjects: Tom phoned. Frank answered. → Tom phoned and Frank answered.
- 7 We usually repeat the subject after so: He couldn't find his pen, so he wrote in pencil.
- 8 We always have to repeat the subject after for. For is more usual in the written language and we cannot use it to begin a sentence [compare > 1.9A]:
We rarely stay at hotels, for we can't afford it.

Write 1: Compound sentences with the same subject

Join these simple sentences to make compound sentences. Use the words in brackets.

Then he jumped on too (¹²and/but) round they went. They were having the time of their lives, (¹³but/so) suddenly realized there was no one to stop the machine. They weren't rescued till morning (¹⁴and/but) by then they felt very sick indeed!

1.5 The complex sentence: noun clauses

1.5A Introduction to complex sentences [> LEG 1.21]

Study:

- 1 We can join two or more simple sentences to make complex sentences:
The alarm was raised. The fire was discovered.
The alarm was raised as soon as the fire was discovered.
The alarm was raised when the fire was discovered.
The alarm was raised after the fire was discovered.
- 2 We can use many different kinds of 'joining words' (or conjunctions) to make complex sentences: after, as soon as, when, since, that, if, so that, whether, etc. [> 1.5-10]
- 3 In a complex sentence there is one 'main' idea and one or more 'subordinate' ideas. We can take the main idea (or clause) out of the sentence so that it stands on its own:
The alarm was raised is a main clause: it can stand on its own. ... as soon as the fire was discovered cannot stand on its own. It is subordinate to the main clause.

Write: Underline the main clauses in these sentences.

- 1 You can tell me all about the film after I've seen it myself.
- 2 When you've finished cleaning the car, you can help me with the dishes.
- 3 You didn't tell me that you were going to invite so many guests.
- 4 I walk to work every morning so that I can get some exercise.
- 5 Since no one answered my call, I left a message on the answer-phone.

1.5B Noun clauses derived from statements [> LEG 1.22-23, 15.10-16, Apps 45-46]

Study:

- 1 A noun clause does the work of a noun. It answers the questions Who? or What?:
He told me about his success. (told me about what?): his success is a 'noun phrase'.
He told me that he had succeeded. (... what?): that he had succeeded is a noun clause.
- 2 We introduce noun clause statements with that after:
 - some adjectives: It's obvious that he's going to be late.
 - some nouns: It's a pity that he's going to be late.
 - some verbs: I know that he's going to be late.
- 3 We often use noun clauses after 'reporting verbs' like say, tell (me), think, know [> 15.2-3]. We can often omit that.
 Instead of: I know that he's going to be late, we can say: I know he's going to be late.

Write: Complete these sentences with noun clauses.

- 1 He feels angry. It's not surprising (that) he feels angry
- 2 She has resigned from her job. It's a shame
- 3 You don't trust me. It's annoying
- 4 You are feeling better. I'm glad
- 5 She's upset. I'm sorry
- 6 He didn't get the contract. He told me
- 7 It's a fair price. He believes
- 8 You're leaving. He has guessed
- 9 She's been a fool. She agrees

1.5C Noun clauses derived from questions [> LEG 1.24]

Study:

Yes/No questions

- 1 Has he signed the contract? is a direct Yes/No question. [> 13.1]
- 2 We can introduce a Yes/No question as a noun clause after if or whether. We use 'reporting verbs' like ask, tell me, want to know [> 15.4A]:
Tell me if he has signed the contract. (Tell me what?): if he has signed the contract.
Ask him whether he has signed it. (Ask him what?): whether he has signed it.

Question-word questions

- 1 When did you sign the contract? is a question-word question. [> 13.5-8]
- 2 We can introduce this as a noun clause after Tell me, I want to know, etc. The word order changes back to subject + verb and we don't use a question mark [> 15.4B]:
Tell me when you signed the contract. (Not Tell me when did you sign)

Write: Complete these sentences with noun clauses.

- 1 Has he passed his exam? I want to know if/whether he has passed his exam.
- 2 Can you type? You didn't say
- 3 Will he arrive tomorrow? I wonder
- 4 Does he like ice-cream? Ask him
- 5 Was he at home yesterday? I'd like to know
- 6 Should I phone her? I wonder
- 7 Is she ready? Ask her
- 8 When did you meet her? I want to know
- 9 How will you manage? Tell me
- 10 Why has he left? I wonder
- 11 Where do you live? Tell me
- 12 Which one does she want? Ask her
- 13 Who's at the door? I wonder
- 14 What does he want? I'd like to know

1.5D Context

Write: Underline nine noun clauses in this text.

She lifted the car!

YOU DON'T KNOW YOUR OWN STRENGTH!

I suppose you know you can turn into superwoman or superman in an emergency. Mrs Pam Weldon reported that her baby nearly slipped under the wheels of a car. Mrs Weldon weighs only 50 kilos, but she said she lifted the car to save her baby. Dr Murray Watson, a zoologist, wrote that he jumped nearly three metres into the air to grab the lowest branch of a tree when hyenas chased him in Kenya. Perhaps you wonder if you can perform such feats. The chances are that you can. Doctors say that we can find great reserves of strength when we are afraid. It's well-known that adrenalin can turn us into superwomen or supermen!

Introduction to relative clauses

Suppose you want to write a paragraph like this:

The house we moved into is absolutely beautiful. The people who lived here before us took very great care of it. The garden, which is quite small, is lovely. I'm glad we moved. I don't think we'll ever regret the decision we made.

If we want to speak or write like this, we have to master relative clauses. We introduce relative clauses with these relative pronouns: who, who(m), which, that and whose.

'Who', 'which' and 'that' as subjects of a relative clause [> LEG 1.27-31]

- 1 We use who or that to refer to people. We use them in place of noun subjects or pronoun subjects (I, you, he, etc.) and we cannot omit them.

They do not change when they refer to masculine, feminine, singular or plural:

He is the man/She is the woman who/that lives here. (Not He is the man who he ...)

They are the men/the women who/that live here. (Not They are the men who they ...)

- 2 We use which or that (in place of noun subjects and it) to refer to animals and things:

That's the cat which/that lives next door. Those are the cats which/that live next door.

Here's a photo which/that shows my car. Here are some photos which/that show my car.

Write: Join these sentences using who or which. (All of them will also join with that.)

- 1 He's the accountant. He does my accounts. He's the accountant who does my accounts.
- 2 She's the nurse. She looked after me.
- 3 They're the postcards. They arrived yesterday.
- 4 They're the secretaries. They work in our office.
- 5 That's the magazine. It arrived this morning.
- 6 They're the workmen. They repaired our roof.

1.6B 'Who(m)', 'which' and 'that' as objects of a relative clause [> LEG 1.33-34]

Study:

- 1 We use who(m) or that to refer to people. We use them in place of noun objects or object pronouns (me, you, him, etc.). We often say who instead of whom when we speak.

They do not change when they refer to masculine, feminine, singular or plural:

He's the man/She's the woman who(m)/that I met. (Not He's the man that I met him.)

They're the men/women who(m)/that I met. (Not They are the men that I met them.)

However, we usually omit who(m) and that. We say:

He's the man/She's the woman I met. They're the men/They're the women I met.

- 2 We use which or that (in place of noun objects or it) to refer to animals and things:

That's the cat which/that I photographed. Those are the cats which/that I photographed.

That's the photo which/that I took. Those are the photos which/that I took.

However, we usually omit which and that. We say:

That's the cat I photographed. Those are the cats I photographed.

That's the photo I took. Those are the photos I took.

Write: Join these sentences with who(m), which or nothing. (All of them will join with that.)

- 1 He's the accountant. You recommended him to me. He's the accountant you recommended...
- 2 She's the nurse. I saw her at the hospital.
- 3 They're the postcards. I sent them from Spain.
- 4 They're the secretaries. Mr Pym employed them.
- 5 That's the magazine. I got it for you yesterday.
- 6 They're the workmen. I paid them for the job.
- 7 That's the dog! I saw it at the dog show last week.
- 8 They're the birds. I fed them this morning.

1.6C 'Who(m)', 'which' or 'that' as the objects of prepositions [> LEG 1.35-36]

Study:

The position of prepositions in relative clauses is very important. We can say:

- 1 He is the person to whom I wrote. (Never to who) (very formal)
This is the pan in which I boiled the milk. (very formal)
- 2 He is the person who(m) I wrote to. This is the pan which I boiled the milk in.
- 3 However, we usually prefer to omit the relative and say:
He is the person I wrote to. This is the pan I boiled the milk in.

Write: Join each pair of sentences in three different ways.

Cissie, the woman ¹ who works in our office, wanted to phone Mr Robinson, but she dialled the wrong number. The number ² she dialled turned out to be the number of a public call box in the street. A man, ³ was passing at the time, heard the phone ringing and answered it. 'Is that Mr Robinson?' Cissie asked. 'Speaking,' the man answered. It turned out that the man ⁴ she was speaking to was actually called Robinson and had just happened to be passing the call box when she rang!

1.7 The complex sentence: 'whose'; defining/non-defining clauses

1.7A 'Whose' + noun in relative clauses [> LEG 1.32, 1.37]

Study:

- 1 We use whose in place of possessive adjectives (my, your, his, etc.) to refer to people.
Whose does not change when it refers to masculine, feminine, singular or plural:
He's the man/She's the woman whose car was stolen. (Not whose his car was stolen)
They're the people whose cars were stolen. (Not whose their cars were stolen)
- 2 We sometimes use whose in place of its to refer to things and animals:
That's the house whose windows were broken. (= the windows of which)
- 3 We can also use whose with prepositions:
He's the man from whose house the pictures were stolen. (formal)
He's the man whose house the pictures were stolen from.

Write: Join these sentences using whose.

- 1 He is the customer. I lost his address. He's the customer whose address I lost.

- 4 You are the expert. We want your advice.
- 5 I'm the witness. My evidence led to his arrest.
- 6 She's the woman. The film was made in her house.

1.7B Defining and non-defining clauses [> LEG 1.26, 1.29, 1.31-32, 1.34-37]

Study:

- 1 When we write relative clauses with who, which or whose, we have to decide whether to use commas 'round the clauses' or not.
- 2 In sentences like:
I've never met anyone who can type as fast as you can.
The magazine which arrived this morning is five days late.
the relative clauses tell us which person or thing we mean. They give us essential information which we cannot omit. We call them defining clauses because they 'define' the person or thing they refer to. We never use commas in such sentences.
We never use commas with that in relative clauses:
I've just had a phone call from the people (that) we met during our holidays.
The wallet (that) you lost has been found.
- 3 In sentences like:
Our new secretary, who can type faster than anyone I have ever met, has completely reorganized our office.
Time Magazine, which is available in every country in the world, is published every week.
the relative clauses add 'extra information'. If we take them out of the sentences, we won't seriously change the meaning. We call these non-defining clauses (they do not 'define') and we use commas before and after them.
- 4 Sometimes we have to decide when the information is 'essential' or 'extra' and we may or may not use commas. We must decide this for ourselves:
He asked lots of questions(,) which were none of his business(,) and annoyed everybody.

Write: Add commas to the following sentences where necessary.

- 1 My husband, who is on a business trip to Rome all this week, sent me this postcard.
- 2 The person who told you that story didn't know what he was talking about.
- 3 Will the driver whose vehicle has the registration number PXB2140 please move it?
- 4 The author Barbara Branwell whose latest novel has already sold over a million copies will be giving a lecture at the public library tomorrow.
- 5 The person you got that information from is my cousin.
- 6 The play Cowards which opens at the Globe soon had a successful season on Broadway.
- 7 Cowards is the name of the play which ran for over two years.
- 8 The thing that pleases me most is that I'll never have to ask for your help again.
- 9 The manager whom I complained to about the service has refunded part of our bill.
- 10 Sally West whose work for the deaf made her famous has been killed in a car accident.
- 11 We found it impossible to cross the river that had flooded after the storm.
- 12 I have just learned that the engine part which I need is no longer made.

1.7C Sentences with two meanings [> LEG 1.26]

The use or omission of commas round relative clauses can sometimes affect the meaning:
My wife, who is in Paris, will be returning tomorrow. Without commas, this could suggest that I have another wife who is (or other wives who are) somewhere else!

Suppose you want to write a paragraph like this:

When we visited London, we went to the Tower. We saw the spot where so many famous people had lost their heads! We felt as if we had travelled back in time to another world!

- We use apostrophe s ('s) and s apostrophe (s') with people and some living things to show possession: Gus's car, the girls' shoes, a dog's bark [> 2.8].
- When we want to show possession with things, we can use of: the leg of the table.
However, we often prefer to use a compound noun instead of of: the table-leg.

We can say the leg of a table or a table-leg. (Not a table's leg)

2.2C Compound nouns which tell us about materials and substances

[> LEG 2.10.5, 6.13]

Study:

- Names of materials and substances (leather, gold) are like adjectives when we use them to form compound nouns: a watch made of gold → *a gold watch. (Not golden)
These words behave like adjectives in this one way, but they remain nouns because they do not have comparative or superlative forms and we cannot put very in front of them.
We stress both words in spoken English: I can't afford a 'gold 'watch. [> 6.4B-D]
- Two important exceptions are wood and wool, which have adjectival forms:
a table made of wood → a wooden table; a dress made of wool → a woollen dress.
- There are adjectival forms for words like gold: glass/glassy, gold/golden, leather/leathery, silver/silvery, silk/silky/silken, steel/steely, stone/stony.
We use them to mean 'like': a golden sunset (= a sunset like gold).

Write: Make compound nouns or use adjectival forms.

GREEK BIRDMAN

You probably remember the story of Daedalus, who made (wings of feathers) ¹ feather wings for himself and his son, Icarus, to escape Minos, King of Crete. A young Greek, Kanellos Kanellopoulos, recently repeated this journey in (a machine that flies) ² called 'Daedalus'. His (path of flight) ³ was from Crete to Santorini, a distance of 119 kilometres. Kanellos, (a cyclist who is a champion) ⁴, didn't use wax and feathers, but (power from pedals) ⁵ to drive his machine. He was in the (seat of the pilot) ⁶ for 3 hours and 5 minutes. His (machine made of carbon fibre) ⁷ weighed 31 kilos and its wings measured 34 metres. Icarus, in the old story, flew too close to the sun. The wax that held his wings melted, so he crashed into the sea. Kanellos, however, kept 3 to 4 metres above the water and had a good (wind from the south) ⁸ He broke the record for human-powered flight previously set up by Bryan Allen, who 'cycled' 35.8 km across the English Channel.

2.3A Countable and uncountable nouns compared [> LEG 2.14]

Study:

- 1 If a noun is countable:
 - a we can use a/an in front of it: I bought a book. (Not I bought book.)
 - b it has a plural and can be used in questions with How many?: How many books ...?
 - c we can use a number in front of it: one book, two books.
- 2 If a noun is uncountable:
 - a we do not normally use a/an in front of it: I bought some bread. (Not a bread)
 - b it does not normally have a plural and can be used in questions with How much?:
How much bread ...? (Not How many breads?)
 - c we cannot normally use a number in front of it. [compare > 2.3C]
- 3 We need to know whether nouns are countable or uncountable in English to be able to use a/an, some, any, much, many, a few, a little, etc. correctly.
Compare: It was a marvellous experience. (countable = something that happened)
We need someone with experience. (uncountable = skill and knowledge)

Write: Underline the noun in each sentence and write 'C' or 'U' to show whether the noun is countable or uncountable.

2.3B Nouns which can be either countable or uncountable: 'an egg/egg'

[> LEG 2.16.1, 2.16.2]

Study:

- 1 Some nouns are countable when they refer to single items, but they are uncountable when they refer to substances:

countable (a single item)	uncountable (substance/material)
He ate a whole chicken!	Would you like some chicken?
I had a boiled egg for breakfast.	There's egg on your tie.
- 2 Some nouns are uncountable when they refer to a material, but they are countable when they refer to an object made from that material:

countable ('thing')	uncountable ('material')
I broke a glass this morning.	Glass is made from sand and lime.
I picked up a stone.	We used stone to build our walls.

Write: Underline the noun in each sentence and write 'C' or 'U' to show whether the noun is being used as a countable or as an uncountable.

2.3C Normally uncountable nouns used as countables (1): 'a coffee/(some) coffee' [> LEG 2.16.3]

Study:

- Words for drinks like coffee are normally uncountable. This means:
 - we use no article: Coffee is important to the economy of Brazil.
 - or we use some/any: Is there any coffee? I'd like some coffee, please.
- However, when we are ordering coffee, etc., we normally treat it as countable:

I'd like a coffee, please. Two coffees, please. One coffee and a glass of milk, please.

Write: Use I'd like ..., please to ask for drinks in each situation.

- You have come down to breakfast. There is a choice between tea and coffee.
..... I'd like (some) tea, please. I'd like (some) coffee, please.
- You are ordering drinks. You want coffee for yourself. Your two friends want tea.

Oil is produced in the North Sea.
 We often use a/an with nouns like this when we are describing them with an adjective:

Write: Rewrite these sentences using the nouns as countables.

- The North Sea produces oil. (light) The North Sea produces a light oil.

2.4A Singular equivalents of uncountable nouns: 'bread/a loaf' [> LEG 2.16.6]

I'd like some bread, please. → I'd like a loaf (of bread), please.
- 2 Sometimes we have to say exactly what we want. We cannot say a clothing, so we ask for a coat, a shirt, etc. In the same way, we cannot say a luggage, an accommodation. We have to say what we want: e.g. a suitcase, a room.

Write: Put in any suitable word which means 'one item'.

- 1 Are you giving away all this clothing/all these clothes? – No, I'm giving away a coat
- 2 There's a lot of laughter from next door. I just heard a very loud

Other examples: advice, clothing, flu, furniture, hair, homework, housework, jewellery, lightning, luggage, meat, money, news, permission, progress, rubbish, scenery, shopping, soap, spaghetti, thunder, toast, traffic, weather.
- 2 News is plural in form, but takes a singular verb: The news is bad. (Not the news are)
Hair (that grows on the head) is singular: My hair is long. (Not my hairs are)
We use hairs only for individual strands of hair. There are three hairs on my nose.

- The most common partitives are a piece of and (in everyday speech) a bit of.
Can I have a piece of bread/a bit of bread/two pieces of bread, please?
- There are partitives which go with some words but not with others. So we can say a slice of bread, a slice of cake, a slice of meat (but not a slice of soap*).
Partitives can be 'containers' (a tin of soup) or can refer to small amounts (a drop of rain).

People (own) ⁶ more things than they used to, but more police (be) ⁷ employed to fight crime. Mathematics (be) ⁸ a subject which is studied more by boys than by girls, as (be) ⁹ physics. The earnings of working women (be) ¹⁰ getting higher all the time and many women earn more than their husbands. Good manners (be) ¹¹ declining. The public (spend) ¹² more on clothes, and clothes (be) ¹³ becoming more and more expensive. Glasses (be) ¹⁴ worn by more people, but only a minority (favour) ¹⁵ contact lenses. Statistics (make) ¹⁶ us want to grind our teeth and can probably tell us if we have any teeth left to grind!

2.7 Gender

2.7A Male and female word forms: 'waiter/waitress' [> LEG 2.39-40]

Study:

- 1 In many languages, the names of things such as book, chair, radio, table may be grammatically masculine, feminine or neuter. Often gender doesn't relate to sex, so that the word for 'girl' might be neuter and the word for 'chair' might be feminine.
- 2 There is no grammatical gender for nouns in English. Though there can be exceptions [> 4.1C], we use only he and she to refer to people and it to refer to everything else. It is the pronouns, not the nouns, that tell us whether the reference is to male or female:
He* is the person you spoke to. She is the person you spoke to.
- 3 We still have a few male and female word forms (man/woman) and a few -ess endings that refer to females: waiter/waitress, lion/lioness. In the case of people, this -ess ending is becoming rare. In the interests of sexual equality, words like author and manager refer to both sexes, rather than using authoress or manageress for a woman.

Write: Supply the missing words. Refer to this list as little as possible.

2.7B Identifying masculine and feminine through pronouns: 'He/She is a student' [> LEG 2.41]

Study:

- 1 The word forms man and woman tell us that the reference is to male and female [> 2.7A], but with most nouns that refer to people, we don't know whether the reference is to male or female until we hear the pronoun:

My neighbour has just bought a new shed for his garden.

My neighbour is always telling us about her famous son.

- 2 Other typical nouns like this are:

adult, artist, child, cook, cousin, darling, dear, doctor, foreigner, friend, guest, journalist, lawyer, musician, orphan, owner, parent, passenger, person, pupil, relation, relative, scientist, singer, speaker, spouse, stranger, student, teacher, tourist, visitor, writer.

You must be the Ugly Sisters!

2.8 The genitive

2.8A How to show possession with 's, s' and the apostrophe (') on its own

[> LEG 2.42-46]

Study:

- 1 We show possession in English with the genitive form of a noun. This means we normally use 's and s' for people and some living creatures. We put the possessive before the noun it refers to: Frank's car. (Not the car of Frank/the car of Frank's*)
- 2 The simplest rule to remember is: Add 's to any personal noun unless it is in the form of a plural ending in -s, – in which case, just add an apostrophe ('). This means:
 - add 's to singular nouns and names not ending in -s: a boy's tie, Tom's hat.
 - add 's to singular nouns ending in -s: an actress's career, a waitress's job.
 - add 's to irregular plural nouns: children's games, the men's club, sheep's wool.
 - add an apostrophe (') after the -s of regular plurals: the girls' uniforms.
 - add 's to names ending in -s: Charles's address, Doris's party, St James's Park.

Famous names ending in s just add ('): Yeats' poetry. This is pronounced /s/ or /ɪz/.

Write: Rewrite these sentences using 's, s', or just an apostrophe (').

- 1 This bicycle is for a child. This is a child's bicycle.
- 2 This pen belongs to the teacher.
- 3 He described the career of the actress.
- 4 That's a job for a stewardess.
- 5 These toys belong to the children.
- 6 This is a club for women.
- 7 It's a school for girls.
- 8 This is the lounge for residents.
- 9 This umbrella belongs to James.
- 10 That hat belongs to Doris.

2.8B Apostrophe s ('s/s'), compound noun, or 'of'? [> LEG 2.47-48, 2.50]

Study:

- 1 When we want to show possession with things, we can use of: the leg of the table. However, we often prefer to use a compound noun instead of of: the table-leg [> 2.2B].
- 2 We must use of when we can't form a compound noun:
the book of the film (Not the film's book*); the top of the box (Not the box's top*)
 You can only learn these from experience. If you are in doubt, use of.

Write: Only where possible, use an apostrophe to show possession in these sentences.

- 1 That's the voice of a man. That's a man's voice.
- 2 I can't see the bottom of the box.
- 3 That's the decision of the committee.
- 4 It's the fault of no one.
- 5 This is a copy of the poetry of Keats.
- 6 That's the leg of the table.
- 7 Where's the key of the car?
- 8 That's the bell of the village church that you can hear.
- 9 These are the stables of the horses.

2.8C The use of 's and s' with non-living things: 'an hour's journey'

[> LEG 2.49-50]

Study:

We use 's and s' with some non-living things:

- fixed phrases: the earth's surface, journey's end, the ship's company
- time phrases (singular): an hour's journey, a day's work, a month's salary
- time phrases (plural): two hours' journey, two days' work, two months' salary

Write: Use 's or s' only where possible with these.

- | | |
|---|----------------------------------|
| 1 a delay of an hour an hour's delay | 6 the price of success |
| 2 a journey of two days | 7 work of seven years |
| 3 the shade of the tree | 8 the surface of the earth |
| 4 the book of the film | 9 at the door of death |
| 5 the inside of the box | 10 an absence of a year |

2.8D Omission of the noun after 's [> LEG 2.51]

Study:

We generally omit the noun after 's when referring to work-places, shops, and houses:
the doctor's, rather than the doctor's surgery, my mother's rather than my mother's house.

Write: What could we use in place of the words in brackets?

- 1 Your mother has gone to (the shop owned by the hairdresser) the hairdresser's
- 2 I'll meet you at (the shop owned by the chemist)
- 3 I'm going to spend the night at (the house owned by my aunt)
- 4 We were married in (the church dedicated to St Andrew)
- 5 I bought this at (the department store owned by Marks and Spencer)

2.8E Context

Write: Put in compounds and 's and s' constructions in this story.

MIND YOUR SKIN!

We have become very conscious of conservation these days. A lot of people won't buy any goods made from (skins of animals) ¹ animal skins In many parts of the world, it is now unthinkable for a person to dress in (a coat made of the skin of a leopard) ² We realize that (the wildlife of the earth) ³ needs protection. This affects such things as (clothing worn by children) ⁴ and (coats worn by ladies) ⁵ If (a fur coat worn by an actress) ⁶ attracts admiration these days, it is probably created from man-made materials. Of course, we still farm animals for their skins, but the notice I saw in a shop recently must have been (the revenge of the crocodiles) ⁷ It was selling crocodile-skin bags and offering the following service: ('skins of customers') ⁸ made up!

3.1 The indefinite article: 'a/an' (1)

3.1A General statements with 'a/an' and zero (∅) [> LEG 3.7, 3.9.1-2, 3.19.1]

3.1C Describing people and things with 'a/an' + noun: 'He's a doctor'

[> LEG 3.9.3-4, App 49]

We can also use adjective + noun: She's a good girl. (Not She's good girl.*.)
- 3 We can use a/an in front of proper nouns (names spelt with a capital letter) for:
– members of a family: He's a Forsyte. (= a member of the Forsyte family)

[> LEG 3.8, 3.10.2]

Study:

We use a/an to introduce a person or thing for the first time. This shows that the listener or reader doesn't know what we are referring to. After this first reference, we use the.

I watched a car as it came up our road. The car stopped outside our house and a man got out. The man was carrying a case in his hand. With the case in his hand, the man looked like a salesman.

4 Pronouns

4.1 Personal pronouns

4.1A Subject and object pronouns [> LEG 4.1-6]

Study:

- 1 We use pronouns in place of nouns. They may be subject (she) or object (her).
- 2 We call I, you, etc. personal pronouns because they refer to 'grammatical persons':
1st person: I, we 2nd person: you 3rd person: he, she, it, one, they
- 3 In English, we must express the subject of a sentence, so we use a pronoun or a noun:
John (or He) is here. Tim and Pam (or They) have arrived. (Not is here* have arrived* etc.)
- 4 We do not have singular and plural forms of you. We can say You're right to someone we don't know at all or to someone we know very well, to a child or to an adult.
- 5 We use it to say who someone is: Who's that? – It's our new neighbour, Mr Groves.
We use he/she/they to give information about someone:
Who's Mr Groves? – He's our new neighbour.
- 6 We also use it when we don't know the sex of a baby or child: Is it a boy or a girl?

Write: Supply pronouns and underline the words they replace.

- 1 Your parcel has arrived. It was delivered this morning.
- 2 Jane and I have already eaten. had a meal before we left home.

- 3 We use object pronouns after as and than: He's taller than me/as tall as me.
or we use subject + verb: He's taller than I am/as tall as I am. [> 1.10D]

Write: Supply suitable pronouns in the following. Alternatives are possible.

4.1C Gender in relation to animals, things and countries [> LEG 4.8]

Study:

- 1 We use it to refer to animals, as if they were things [> 1.6, 2.7A]. We only use he, she and who when there is a reason for doing so, for example, when we refer to a pet:
Rover's a good dog. He's my best friend. Bessie's a fine cow. She gives a lot of milk.
Or in folk stories: 'It's late,' the hare said as he looked at his watch.
- 2 We use he or she to refer to 'lower animals' when, for example, we regard their activities with interest: Look at that frog! Look at the way he jumps!
- 3 We sometimes refer to ships, cars, motorbikes and other machines as she, when the reference is 'affectionate': My old car's not fast, but she does 50 miles to the gallon.
- 4 Some writers refer to a country as she when they're thinking of it 'as a person':
In 1941, America assumed her role as a world power.

Write: Supply suitable pronouns in the following. Alternatives are possible.

4.2A 'One' and 'you' [> LEG 4.9]

Study:

We use one, as a pronoun meaning 'everyone/anyone', to refer to 'people in general' only when we want to be formal. In everyday speech, we use you in an informal way to mean 'everyone/anyone'. Compare:

A: Is it easy to go camping in this country?

B: Yes, but one isn't allowed to camp where one likes. One can only use camp-sites.

or: Yes, but you aren't allowed to camp where you like. You can only use camp-sites.

Write: Rewrite this paragraph so that it sounds 'informal'. Use you.

4.2B 'One' and 'ones' in place of countable nouns: 'Use this clean one'

[> LEG 4.10]

Study:

1 We can't use an adjective on its own in place of a singular countable noun. We must use a noun after an adjective or we must use one to avoid repeating the noun [> 6.3A]:

Don't use that cloth. Use this clean one. (Not Use this clean.)

2 We use ones to avoid repeating a plural countable noun:

I don't want to wear my old shoes. I want to wear my new ones. (Not wear my new)

3 We can use one and ones for people as well as things:

Do you know John Smith/Jane Smith? – Is he/she the one who phoned last night?

Do you know the Smiths? – Are they the ones who used to live in this house?

4 We do not use one in place of an uncountable noun. We repeat the noun or use no noun at all:

Don't use that milk. Use this fresh milk. Or: Use this fresh. (Not this fresh one)

- 1 We use one/ones to refer to people and things after Which?, this/that and adjectives:
Which one would you like? This one or that one? – I'd like the large one/the red one.
We can also say Which would you like? This or that?
- 2 We sometimes omit one and ones after superlatives and in short answers:
Which one/ones would you like? – I'd like the best (one/ones).
Which one/ones would you like? – The large/the red.
- 3 We usually avoid ones after these/those: I want these. I want those. (Not these ones*)
- 4 We normally use one/ones after this/that/these/those + adjective:
I want this/that white one. I want these/those white ones.
- 5 We cannot omit one/ones in structures like: Which woman? – The one in the green dress.

HELP!

1 ~~You~~ can always tell the people who know all about cars. They're the 2 who can recognize all the latest models and who bore 3 silly with useless information. The 4 who don't know about cars are a bit like my friend, Robin. Robin is 5 of those people who believes that all car engines are in the front of a vehicle. He recently hired a car without even realizing that it was 6 of those with its engine at the back. Last week he was driving along a country road when he heard a strange noise coming from the car and he stopped to have a look. He raised the bonnet to examine his engine and you can imagine his surprise when he saw that he didn't have 7! He waved to a passing car and a young man stopped. Robin explained that he had lost his engine. 'I don't suppose 8 can help me,' he said. 'Of course I can help 9,' the young man said. 'I've got a spare 10 in the back of my car. You can use that 11 '

A spare engine in the back.

4.3 'It' and 'one/some/any/none'

4.3A 'It' as in 'It's hot' and 'It's nice to see you' [> LEG 4.12-13]

Study:

1 'empty subject': 'It's hot' [> 1.2A, 4.1A]

It carries no information in sentences like It's hot, It's 8 o'clock, etc. so we call it an 'empty subject'. We use it because a sentence must have a subject. (Not Is hot*)

2 'preparatory subject': 'It's nice to see you' [> 1.5B, 16.4A, 16.7A]

We sometimes begin a sentence with it and continue with to-, -ing or that.

The true subject is to-, -ing, or that, but we generally prefer to begin with it.

To lie in the sun/Lying in the sun is pleasant. → It's pleasant to lie/lying in the sun.

That he's arriving today is certain. → It's certain (that) he's arriving today.

Write: Here are some notes. Write them as sentences beginning with It.

- 1 Monday, 13th June today. It's Monday, 13th June, today.
- 2 Snowing now. Snows a lot here.
- 3 22° Celsius in London yesterday.
- 4 100 kilometres from here to Paris.
- 5 Important to get to the meeting.
- 6 Difficult making such decisions.
- 7 A pleasure to welcome you all here.
- 8 A pity that they couldn't come.

4.3B 'It' and 'one' as subjects and objects: 'I like it' [> LEG 4.16]

Study:

1 We use it and they if we are referring to 'something particular':

Has the letter arrived this morning? - Yes, it has just arrived.

Have the letters arrived this morning? - Yes, they have just arrived.

2 We use one, some and none when we mean 'in general':

Has a letter arrived? - Yes, one has just arrived.

Have any letters arrived? - Yes, some have arrived. No, none have/has arrived. [> 5.7C]

3 We must use an object after verbs like enjoy and like [> 1.2B]:

particular: Do you like this cake? - Yes, I like it. (Not I like/I don't like*) general: Would you like some cake? - Yes, I'd like some./No, I don't want any.

(Not I'd like/I wouldn't like*)

Write: Supply it, them, one, some, any or none in the following.

- 1 Were any cars parked outside our house today? - Yes, one was parked there all morning.
- 2 Was that car parked outside our house today? - Yes, was parked there all morning.
- 3 Did any letters come for me this morning? - No, came for you.
- 4 Have the spare parts arrived yet? - Yes, of them have just arrived.

- 8 Would you like any cherries? - Yes, I'd like, please.
- 9 Have you got the maps with you? - No, I haven't got
- 10 Have you got a spare light bulb? - No, I haven't got

4.3C 'I hope/believe/expect so' [> LEG 4.17]

Study:

- 1 We use so (not it) after these verbs when we are responding in the affirmative: believe, expect, fear, guess, hope, imagine, say, suppose, tell someone and think:
Is what you told me true? – I believe so. (Not I believe* *I believe it)
- 2 We use so in the affirmative after I'm afraid and It seems:
The weather changing for the worse. – I'm afraid so. It seems so.
- 3 We can make a negative in two ways after these verbs: believe, expect, imagine, suppose, think and It seems:
Is that true? – I don't think so. Or: I think not.

Write: Write questions or statements followed by responses using believe, etc.

- 1 Someone asks you if the next train goes to London. You believe it does.
Does the next train go to London? – I believe so.
- 2 Someone says the weather is going to improve. You hope it will.

4.4 Possessive adjectives and possessive pronouns ('my/mine')

4.4A Basic differences between 'my' and 'mine', etc. [> LEG 4.19-21]

Study:

- 1 My, your, his, her, its, one's, our, your and their are possessive adjectives. This means they must go in front of nouns: He's my son. It's your house. etc.

4.4B The double genitive: 'He is a friend of mine' [> LEG 2.52]

Study:

- 1 We can say: He is your friend.
 or: He is a friend of yours. (No apostrophe: not He is a friend of your's.)
 And note: He is a friend of mine. (Not He is a friend of me.)

4.4C 'My own' and 'of my own' [> LEG 4.22]

I have my own room. Or: I have a room of my own. (Not mine own room/of mine own)

Write:

Complete these sentences in two ways.

- 1 I'd love to have a room. my own room / a room of my own. 3 The children have rooms.

4.4D 'The' in place of 'my', etc.: 'a pain in the neck' [> LEG 4.23]

Study:

We sometimes use the where we might expect my, your, etc., e.g. with parts of the body or with clothing after prepositions: He hit me in the face. She pulled me by the sleeve.

We use the to refer informally to members of the family: How are the children?

But avoid expressions like 'Meet the wife'.

Write: Supply my or the.

- 1 He hit me in the eye. 6 collar is too tight. I can't bear it.
2 Something has got into eye. 7 hair is getting too long. I must get it cut.
3 You don't have to pull me by collar. 8 She looked me in face and said, 'No'.

REAL PERSONAL SERVICE

On ¹ last visit to London my wife and I stayed at the Magna Hotel. The Magna used to be a favourite hotel of ², but we hadn't stayed there for over sixteen years. The hotel is famous for ³ service and we weren't disappointed. 'The porter will show you to ⁴ room,' the Receptionist said with a smile and we were shown to a room on the first floor. 'This is ⁵ favourite room,' I exclaimed. 'I know sir,' the porter said. '⁶ is the room with a view, isn't it?' 'That's right,' I said. 'You like milk in ⁷ tea in the morning and madam prefers lemon in ⁸ 'That's right,' my wife said. She pulled me by ⁹ sleeve with pleasure when the porter had gone. 'Aren't they amazing! They remember ¹⁰ preferences after all these years. This is real personal service!' The next morning at breakfast, we were given raspberry jam with ¹¹ toast instead of orange marmalade. 'Isn't there any marmalade?' I asked the waiter. 'We never eat raspberry jam in the morning.' 'Sorry sir,' the waiter said. 'You ordered some for breakfast on ¹² last visit and it's been in the computer memory ever since!'

4.5 Reflexive pronouns ('myself')

4.5A Verbs commonly followed by reflexive pronouns: 'I enjoyed myself'

[> LEG 4.25]

Study:

- 1 Myself, yourself, himself, herself, itself, oneself, ourselves, yourselves and themselves are reflexive pronouns. There aren't many verbs in English which we must always use with reflexive pronouns: absent oneself, avail oneself (of) and pride oneself (on):
Monica absented herself from work. Jim prides himself on his cooking.
- 2 We often use reflexive pronouns with these verbs: amuse, blame, cut, dry, enjoy, hurt, and introduce: I've cut myself with the bread knife.
We can use these verbs without reflexive pronouns if we want to: I've cut my thumb.
We can use object pronouns (me, him, her, etc.) after these verbs only when we refer to someone else: He amused me (but not I amused me/I cut me, etc.)

Write: Supply the correct reflexive pronouns in the following.

- 1 I enjoyed myself very much at the party.
- 2 I see you've cut again. Won't you ever learn how to shave?
- 3 How did Tom dry? – He used your towel!
- 4 She has no reason to blame for what has happened.
- 5 I think that poor dog has hurt
- 6 'One prides on one's patience,' the boss said, in his usual pompous manner.
- 7 We amused playing football on the beach.
- 8 Our new neighbours knocked at our door and introduced
- 9 Sheila prides on her ability to judge people's characters.
- 10 Bill had to absent from work when his baby was born.

4.5B Verb + reflexive, or not?: 'I've dressed (myself)' [> LEG 4.26-27]

Study:

- 1 We sometimes add reflexive pronouns after verbs like dress, hide, shave and wash for emphasis or to show that something has been done with an effort. For example, if we are referring to a child, we might say: *Polly's now learnt how to dress herself, but we could also say: *Polly has now learnt how to dress. (without herself). The choice is ours.
- 2 Verbs such as get up, sit down, stand up, wake up and get wet, get tired, get dressed, get married [> 10.4C] are not normally reflexive in English: I sat down with difficulty.
We might use a reflexive only for emphasis:
I sat myself down with difficulty. Old Bill has got himself married at last!

Write: Write these sentences again using reflexive pronouns with the verbs.

- 1 We didn't know where to hide. We didn't know where to hide ourselves.
- 2 That kitten now washes every day.
- 3 She's just learning how to dress.
- 4 We sat down and waited.
- 5 I got wet watering the garden.
- 6 I woke up with a start.
- 7 Barry has just got engaged.
- 8 Get ready quickly!

4.5C Reflexive pronouns used after prepositions and for emphasis

[> LEG 4.29-30]

Study:

- 1 We can use reflexive pronouns:
 - after a preposition: Look after yourself! Take care of yourself!
 - in fixed expressions: strictly between ourselves, just among ourselves, in itself.
- 2 We use object pronouns when we refer to:
 - place: Have you got any money on you? (Not Have you got any money on yourself?*)
 - after with (= accompanied by): I brought the children with me. (Not with myself*)
- 3 We use by + reflexive to mean 'without help' or 'alone':
She made the dress by herself. (= without help) She lives by herself. (= alone)
- 4 We sometimes use reflexive pronouns after nouns and pronouns for emphasis to mean 'that person/thing and only that person/thing':
The film itself is very good. You yourself saw it.
 The reflexive pronoun can also go at the end of a sentence or clause:
You saw what happened yourself. Or: You yourself saw what happened.

Write 1: Use reflexive pronouns or object pronouns in the following.

- 1 Hargreaves knows how to take care of himself.
- 2 Have you got any money on?
- 3 Come and sit beside
- 4 Strictly between, she's wrong.
- 5 She's very certain of
- 6 There's a big truck in front of
- 7 Granddad doesn't like living by
- 8 Jimmy tied his shoelaces all by

Write 2: Rewrite these sentences using reflexive pronouns for emphasis.

- 1 I didn't know about it till yesterday. I didn't know about it myself till yesterday.
- 2 The building is all right, I think.
- 3 You can't do that!
- 4 I can't fetch it – you fetch it.
- 5 Don't expect me to do it. Do it!

Write: Put in reflexive pronouns (ourselves, etc.) or object pronouns (us, etc.).

Yet if we want to be happy and healthy, we need people around ¹⁰..... who keep telling ¹¹..... how marvellous we are. Then we ¹²..... will believe that we are marvellous, too!

You're marvellous!

4.6 Demonstrative adjectives/pronouns ('this', etc.) 'Some/any/no' compounds ('someone', etc.)

4.6A Different uses of 'this' and 'that' [> LEG 4.32-36, App 7]

Study:

- The basic uses of this, these and that, those are:
 - this and these may refer to something that is close to you: this one here.
 - that and those may refer to something that is not close to you: that one there.
- You can use this and that in many different contexts and situations. For example:
 - when you are showing someone round the house: This is my room.
 - when you recognize someone you are looking for: There he is – that's him!

Write: Say when you would use these sentences.

- This* is Mr Cooke. – How do you do. Introducing someone
- Hullo. Is that George? This is Tom here.
- We lost the match and that set us back.
- I was robbed. – When did this happen?
- You can't be too careful these days.

- £50? It costs more than that!
- There was this missionary.
- I don't mean that Mrs Smith.
- The fish I caught was that big.

4.6B Uses of 'some/any/no' compounds [> LEG 4.37-39]

Study:

- We use some compounds in [compare > 5.3B-C, 13.2A]:
 - the affirmative: I met someone you know last night.
 - questions expecting 'yes': Was there something you wanted?
 - offers and requests: Would you like something to drink?
- We use any compounds in:
 - negative statements: There isn't anyone here who can help you.
 - questions when we're doubtful about the answer: Is there anyone here who's a doctor?
- We use no compounds when the verb is affirmative: There's no one here. (= not anyone)

Write: Supply anybody/anyone, nothing, anything, nobody/no one, somebody/someone or something in these sentences.

- There's nothing in the clothes basket. It's empty.
- Is there in the clothes basket? – No, it's empty.
- I've tried phoning, but every time I phone there's in.
- I've prepared for dinner which you'll like very much.
- I've never met who is as obstinate as you are.
- Would you like to start with before you order the main course?
- I know who can help you.
- He sat at the table, but he didn't have to eat.
- Is there here who can speak Japanese?
- Does want a second helping?

4.6C 'Everyone', 'anyone', etc. with singular or plural pronouns [> LEG 4.40]

Study:

- 1 We often use anyone to mean 'it doesn't matter who', especially after if.

The traditional rule is to use masculine pronouns with anyone, everyone, no one, etc., unless the context is definitely female (e.g. a girls' school).

According to this rule, you would address an audience of both sexes like this:

If anyone wants to leave early, he can ask for permission.

But you would address an audience of females like this:

'If anyone wants to leave early,' the headmistress said, 'she can ask for permission.'

- 2 In practice, we use they, them, etc. without a plural meaning to refer to both sexes, though some native speakers think this is wrong:

Instead of: Everyone knows what he has to do, doesn't he?

We say: Everyone knows what they have to do, don't they?

Write: Change the words in italics into plural references.

- 1 Anyone planning to travel abroad should take his driving licence with him. their them
- 2 I suppose everyone believes he could be Prime Minister.
- 3 We knew that no one had done his homework.
- 4 If anybody wants to know the answer, he can ask me.
- 5 Everybody knows what the answer is, doesn't he?
- 6 If anyone wants help in an emergency, he can dial 999.
- 7 Everyone wants to have his cake and eat it.
- 8 Nobody wants to be told that he is going to be sacked.
- 9 Ask anyone you know what he thinks of war and he'll say it's evil.
- 10 Everyone gets what he deserves, even if he doesn't like what he gets.

4.6D Context

Write: Put in they, this, that, nothing, something, anyone or no one.

I've never met ⁴..... who's ⁵..... clever. My weakest subject at school was certainly chemistry. I learnt formulas and experiments by heart, but there was ⁶..... I could do to improve my performance. 'Is ⁷..... the best you can do?' my chemistry teacher would say after every test he set us. 'It's time you did ⁸..... about ⁹..... subject!' 'I really do try, sir,' I would answer. Before my last chemistry exam, I made a big effort. 'I can't do better than ¹⁰.....' I said to my teacher as I handed in my paper. 'It was my best performance.' Two weeks later I got my report and eagerly looked up my chemistry marks. I had got 8%! I couldn't believe it! 'Is ¹¹..... all I got, sir?' I asked. 'I'm afraid so,' my teacher said. 'Of course, 4% was for neatness!'

- 2 If we say I bought some magazines to read on the train, we aren't saying how many.
- 3 If we say I bought a few magazines to read on the train, we are giving 'a rough idea'.
Some quantity words like a few, a little give us 'a rough idea'. If we arrange these on a scale, too much and too many are at the top of the scale and no is at the bottom.

Write: Arrange the quantifiers to show most at the top and least at the bottom. More than one answer is possible.

There are

Now write sentences of your own using any six of the above quantifiers.

- 1 There are plenty of apples in the bowl.

5.2 General and specific references to quantity

5.2A 'Of' after quantifiers ('a lot of', 'some of', etc.) [> LEG 5.5]

Study:

- 1 We always use of with these quantifiers when we put them in front of a noun or pronoun, and the reference is general:
a bit of, a couple of, a lot of, lots of, the majority of, a number of, plenty of.
A lot of people* don't eat meat. (= a lot of people in general)
- 2 If we use words like the or my after of, the reference is specific:
A lot of the people I know* don't eat meat. (= the ones I know)
- 3 We use quantifiers like some, any, much and many without of in general references:
Some people* don't eat meat. (= some people in general)
- 4 If we use of + the, my etc., after some etc., the reference is specific [compare > 5.7C]:
Some of the people I know* don't eat meat. (= the ones I know)
Note that None of is always specific: None of my friends* is here. I want none of it.

Write:

- a Supply of where necessary.

5.2B When to use quantifiers without 'of': 'I've got a lot' [> LEG 5.5]

Study:

If we use a quantifier on its own (not in front of a noun or pronoun) we do not use of.
Did you buy any fruit? – Yes, I bought a lot/lots/plenty. (Not a lot of etc.)

Write:

Use a couple, a bit, a lot, lots and plenty in short answers to these questions.

- 1 Are there any eggs in the fridge? – Yes, there are a couple
- 2 Did you buy any cheese at the supermarket? – Yes,
- 3 Have we got enough potatoes for the weekend? – Yes,
- 4 Is there any milk in that jug? – Yes,
- 5 Were there many people at the meeting? – Yes,
- 6 Is there any ironing to be done? – Yes,

5.2C 'More' and 'less' after quantifiers: 'some more', 'a little less' [> LEG 5.6]

Study:

We can emphasize quantity with more and less after quantifiers:

- 1 We can use more + plural nouns after:
some/any, a couple, hundreds, a few, hardly any, a lot, lots, many, no, plenty, several:
There are a lot more students studying English this year.
- 2 We can use more + uncountable nouns after:
some/any, a bit, a good deal, hardly any, a little, a lot, lots, much, no, plenty:
There's a little more soup if you'd like it.
- 3 We can use less + uncountable nouns after:
any, a bit, a good deal, a little, a lot, lots, much:
I'd like a little less soup, please.

Write: Choose any more, any less, etc. in the following sentences.

- 1 How much did we make yesterday? £200? – No, much less than that. (much less/a few less)
- 2 You've had enough food already and you can't have (any more/some more)
- 3 There are people giving up smoking these days. (much more/many more)
- 4 Newspapers have freedom than you think. (many less/much less)
- 5 young people are passing their driving test first time. (lots more/much more)
- 6 I'll help myself to of these vegetables. (some more/any more)
- 7 Have what you like. There are where these came from. (plenty more/much more)

- 11 Do you want any more? – Yes,, please. (hardly any more/a lot more)
- 12 I've got experience in business than you think. (much more/many more)

5.2D Context

Write: Put a circle round the correct words in brackets.

SPARE THAT TREE!

How ⁽¹many/much) lists is your name on? There must be ⁽²plenty/plenty of) lists of names in every part of the world and they must be used to send information to ⁽³millions/millions of) people. The ⁽⁴number/amount) of letters ordinary people receive these days has greatly increased. ⁽⁵A lot/A lot of) the people I know object to receiving unwanted letters. ⁽⁶Much/Many) of the mail we receive goes straight into the waste-paper basket. That's why ⁽⁷most/the most) people refer to it as 'junk mail'. It would be better for all of us if we received ⁽⁸much/many) less junk mail and, as a result, saved ⁽⁹many/much) more trees from destruction. ⁽¹⁰A lot/A lot of) trees must be wasted each year to produce mountains of junk mail. Recently, I received a very welcome ⁽¹¹bit/bit of) junk mail. It was a leaflet urging me not to waste paper and to return junk mail to the sender. 'If we all do this,' the leaflet said, 'we will reduce the ⁽¹²number/number of) trees being destroyed.' I agreed with every word they said, but why did they have to send me four copies of the leaflet?

5.3 Uses of 'some', 'any', 'no' and 'none'

5.3A 'Some/any' or zero in relation to quantity [> LEG 3.6, 3.28.8, 5.3, 5.10]

Study:

countable nouns

The plural of a/an is normally any or some when we are referring to quantity [> 3.1B]:

Is there a present for the children? → Are there any presents for the children?

Sometimes we don't use any and some, even if we are referring to quantity.

The meaning is exactly the same, though we generally prefer to use any and some:

Are there any presents for the children? → Are there presents for the children?

uncountable nouns

In the same way, we sometimes don't use any and some when referring to quantity:

Is there any milk in the fridge? is the same as Is there milk in the fridge?

There's some milk in the fridge. is the same as There's milk in the fridge.

general statements

We always use zero in general statements [> 3.1A-B, 3.5A]:

Beans are good for you. Oil is produced in Alaska. Life is short.*

Write: We can use zero in all these sentences. Put in some or any only where possible.

5.3C 'Not ...any', 'no' and 'none' [> LEG 5.11]

Study:

- 1 We can use no instead of not any. We use an affirmative verb with no [> 13.2A]:
There aren't any buses after midnight. → There are no buses after midnight.
There isn't any milk. → There's no milk.
- 2 We can also use no in place of not a/an: I'm not an expert. → I'm no expert.
- 3 None stands on its own as a pronoun: We have no bananas. We have none.

Write: Rewrite these sentences with any, no and none.

- 1 There are no buses after 12.30. There aren't any buses after 12.30.

5.4D 'Fewer' and 'less' [> LEG 5.16]

Study:

- 1 Fewer is the comparative of few (few, fewer, the fewest).
Less is the comparative of little (little, less, the least [> 6.5C]).
- 2 Fewer goes with plural countables: Fewer videos have been imported this year than last.
- 3 Less goes with uncountables: Less oil has been produced this year than last.
- 4 Informally, we often use less with uncountables. Some native speakers think it's wrong:
Less people are travelling abroad this year.
People are buying less newspapers than they used to.

Write: Supply fewer or less in these sentences.

Two years ago I moved to a new neighbourhood. There seem to be very ¹ few people in this area who are without telephones, so I expected to get a new phone quickly. I applied for one as soon as I moved into my new house. 'We aren't supplying ² new phones in your area,' an engineer told me. '³ people want new phones at the moment and the company is employing ⁴ engineers than last year so as to save money. A new phone won't cost you ⁵ money, but it will take ⁶ time. December came and went, but there was no sign of a phone. I went to the company's local office to protest. 'They told me I'd have a phone by December,' I protested. 'Which year?' the assistant asked.

Which year?

- 1 We use the whole and a whole with singular countable nouns:
He ate the whole loaf. He swallowed a whole banana. The whole film was boring.
We do not use the whole with plurals or uncountables. (Not the whole books/bread)

Some nouns combine only with whole:
You must tell me the whole truth. I'd like to know the whole history of the world.

6.5 The comparison of adjectives

6.5A Common comparative and superlative forms: 'cold – colder – coldest'

[> LEG 6.5, 6.22-29]

Study:

- 1 We add -er and -est to form the comparative and superlative of most one-syllable adjectives: clean – cleaner – the cleanest, cold – colder – the coldest.
- 2 Adjectives like hot (big, fat, sad, wet) double the consonant: hot – hotter – the hottest.
- 3 Adjectives like nice (fine, large, late, safe) add -r, -st: nice – nicer – the nicest.
- 4 With adjectives like busy we use -i in place of -y: busy – busier – the busiest.
- 5 We use the comparative when comparing one person or thing with another.
- 6 We use the superlative when comparing one person or thing with more than one other.

Write:

- 1 My room's big. (in the house)
..... My room's bigger than yours. It's the biggest in the house.
- 2 My room's cold. (in the house)
.....
- 3 My garden's nice. (in the street)
.....
- 4 My desk is tidy. (in the office)
.....

6.5B Adjectives with two or more syllables: 'clever', 'expensive' [> LEG 6.22-29]

Study:

- 1 Some two-syllable adjectives like happy (clever, common, narrow, pleasant, quiet, simple, stupid) have two comparative or superlative forms:
– either with -er/-est: She's cleverer than you. She's the cleverest person I know.
– or with more/the most: She's more clever than you. She's the most clever person I know.
- 2 We use only more/the most with most two-syllable adjectives: careless, correct, famous.
- 3 We use more/the most with three-syllable adjectives: more beautiful, the most beautiful.

Write: Give both forms where possible.

- 1 She's happy.
than I am She's happier / more happy than I am.
person I have ever met She's the happiest / most happy person I have ever met.
- 2 His work was careless.

6.5C Comparative and superlative forms often confused: 'older/elder'

[> LEG 6.24-26, 7.4-5, App 12]

Study:

- 1 Further and farther refer to distance: London is five miles further/farther.
Further (Not farther) can mean 'in addition': There's no further information.
- 2 We use elder/eldest before a noun only with reference to people in a family:
*my elder brother/son, the eldest child, he's the eldest (but not He is elder than me.)
We use older/oldest for people and things: He is older than I am. This book is older.*
- 3 Irregular comparisons: good/well, better, the best; bad, worse, the worst; much/many, more, the most; little, less, the least.
Good is an adjective; well is adjective or adverb [> 6.4A].
- 4 Lesser is formed from less but is not a true comparative. We cannot use than after it.
Lesser means 'not so great' and we use it in fixed phrases like the lesser of two evils.
- 5 Latest/last: *I bought the latest (i.e. most recent) edition of today's paper.
*I bought the last (i.e. final) edition of today's paper.
- 6 The comparative and superlative of little is smaller/smallest: a small/little boy, a smaller/the smallest boy. Very young children often use littler and littlest.

Write: Circle the right forms in these sentences. In some cases both forms are right.

7 Adverbs

7.1 Adverbs of manner

7.1A Adverbs with and without '-ly': 'carefully', 'fast' [> LEG 7.7, 7.13, Apps 14, 15.1]

Study:

- 1 An adverb adds to the meaning of a verb. Adverbs of manner tells us how something happens:
How did John behave? – (He behaved) badly.
- 2 We form adverbs of manner by adding -ly to an adjective: slow/slowly.
After a consonant, -y changes to -i: heavy/heavily.
It was a slow train./The train went slowly. It was heavy rain./It rained heavily.
- 3 We can use some words as adjectives or adverbs without adding -ly or -ily.
It was a fast train. → The train went fast.
Other examples are: better, best, early, hard, high, last, late, monthly, near, wide, worse.

Write: Supply the right adverb. Some adverbs end in -ly and some do not.

Some adverbs have two forms, one without -ly and one with -ly.
These forms have different meanings and uses: e.g. hard/hardly, last/lastly, late/lately.

Study:

Some adjectives end in -ly: cowardly, friendly, lively, lovely, motherly, sickly, silly.
 Meg's a friendly girl. John gave me a friendly handshake.
 If we want to use these words as adverbs we say in a friendly way/manner/fashion:
 Meg always greets me in a friendly way. (Not greets me friendly/friendlily)

7.2 Adverbs of time

7.2A Points of time: 'Monday', 'this morning' [> LEG 7.21-22, App 48]

Study:

- 1 Adverbs of time tell us when something happens. 'Points of time' tell us 'exactly when': e.g. today, yesterday, this/next/last week, on Monday, at 5 o'clock.
- 2 We can refer to days of the week without this, last, next or on:
I'm seeing him Monday. (= this/next/on Monday). (Not I'm seeing him the Monday.*)
I saw him Monday. (= last/on Monday). (Not I saw him the Monday.*)
- 3 This morning, etc. (Not today morning* *today afternoon etc.) can refer to:
 - now: I feel terrible this morning.
 - earlier: I spoke to him this morning.
 - later on today: I'll speak to him this morning.
- 4 Note: tonight, tomorrow night and last night (Not yesterday night).
- 5 Note: the day before yesterday, the day after tomorrow (in the evening), etc.
- 6 We do not use the in phrases like next Monday, last Monday: I'll see him next Monday.
- 7 We normally put time references at the end of a sentence or clause, but we can also put them at the beginning: (This morning) I went to the dentist (this morning). [> 1.1A]

Write 1: Fill in the missing points of time.

1	yesterday	today	tomorrow

7.2B 'Still' and 'yet' [> LEG 7.25, 7.27]

Study:

- 1 Still and yet mean 'until now' and we often use them with the present perfect [> 9.5A].
- 2 We use still to emphasize continuity, mainly in affirmatives and sometimes in questions:
I'm still waiting for my new passport. Is Martha still in hospital?
We can also use still in the negative for special emphasis: John still hasn't written to me.
Still has the same position in a sentence as adverbs of frequency [> 7.4B].
- 3 We use yet mainly in questions and negatives and often put it at the end of a sentence:
Has your new passport arrived yet? – No, not yet. It hasn't arrived yet.

Write: Rewrite these sentences supplying still or yet. Sometimes both are possible.

- 1 The children are at the cinema. The children are still at the cinema.
- 2 I haven't met your brother.
- 3 Jim works for the same company.
- 4 Has she phoned you? – No, not
- 5 The new law hasn't come into force.

7.2C 'Already' and other adverbs of time [> LEG 7.23-24, 7.26, 7.28-29]

Study:

- 1 Already means 'before now' or 'so soon'. We use it in questions and affirmatives, but not in negatives. We can put it in the middle [> 7.4B] of a sentence or at the end:
Have you already finished lunch? Have you finished lunch already?
This machine is already out of date. It's out of date already.
- 2 Other common adverbs of time are: afterwards, at last, just, lately, now, once, recently, soon, suddenly, then, these days. We often use these adverbs in story-telling.

Write: Rewrite these sentences using yet or already. Sometimes both are possible.

- 1 Have you had breakfast? – I've had it, thanks. I've already had it, thanks.
- 2 I haven't received an invitation to the party.
- 3 I have received an invitation to the party.
- 4 Have you finished eating?
- 5 Haven't you finished eating?

7.2D Context

Write: Put in already, immediately, this week, still, then, yesterday, yet. Use each word once only.

FIT FOR HUMANS, BUT NOT FOR PIGS!

1 This week there's going to be a festival of British Food and Farming in Hyde Park in London. The festival hasn't begun 2 and farmers are 3 bringing their animals. But a pig farmer has 4 run into a serious problem. 5 he arrived with his pigs from the Welsh Hills – hundreds of miles away. The pigs were very thirsty when they arrived in Hyde Park and the farmer 6 gave them some London water. 7 he got a big surprise because the pigs refused to drink the water. London water is fit for humans but not for pigs!

Not fit for pigs!

7.3 Adverbial phrases of duration

7.3A 'Since', 'for' and 'ago' [> LEG 7.31, 7.32, 9.18]

Study:

- 1 'Since' + a point of time [> 7.2A] answers Since when? We use since with the present perfect to mark a period lasting till now: I haven't seen him since January. [> 9.5A, 10.2D]
- 2 'For' + period of time answers How long? We use for to refer to periods of time:
 - in the past: My wife and I worked in America for five months.
 - in the future: John will be staying in New York for two weeks.
 - in the present perfect: I've known Susan for five years. [> 9.5A, 10.2D]
- 3 Period of time + 'ago' answers How long ago? and marks the start of a period going back from now. We use ago with the simple past [> 9.3C]: I arrived here two months ago.

Write 1: Show where since or ago will fit into these sentences.

Since when have ...

| 1 When have you been interested in jazz? | 4 I saw her last week and haven't seen her. |

7.3B 'Till' (or 'until') and 'by' [> LEG 7.34]

Study:

- 1 Some verbs naturally refer to 'periods of time' or 'continuity' [> 9.5B]:
e.g. learn, lie, live, rain, sit, sleep, stand, stay, wait and work.
- 2 Till (or until) and by mean 'any time before and not later than'.
We cannot use by at all with these 'continuity' verbs. (Not I'll wait here by 5 o'clock.)
We can only use till (or until) with these verbs:
I'll wait here till (or until) 5 o'clock. I won't wait here till (or until) 5 o'clock.
- 3 We use by with verbs which do not refer to periods of time.
We can think of these as 'point of time verbs': e.g. arrive, come, finish, go, leave:
She will arrive by 5. (= any time before and not later than 5.)
She won't arrive by 5. She'll arrive at 6.
- 4 We use till or until with 'point of time verbs' only in the negative.
She won't arrive till (or until) 5. (But not She will arrive till 5.)

Write: Supply by or till.

- 1 I'll wait till Monday before answering his letter.
- 2 I intend to stay in bed 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.
- 3 Your suit will be ready Friday.
- 4 Your suit won't be ready Friday. You can collect it then.
- 5 Your suit won't be ready Friday. You can collect it next Monday.
- 6 I'm sure I will have left Monday.
- 7 Your aunt says she won't leave Monday. Monday's the day she's going to leave.

7.3C 'During', 'in' and 'for' [> LEG 7.35]

Study:

1 During means:

- either: 'from the beginning to the end': We had a lot of fun during the holidays.
- or: 'at some point during a period of time': I'll mend the gate during the weekend.

2 We use in like during to refer to time:

We had a lot of fun in the holidays. (Or: ... during the holidays)

But we cannot use in to refer to an activity or event:

We watched a film during the flight. (Not in the flight)

3 For tells us 'how long' [> 7.3A]:

We stayed in Recife for a week/for three weeks. (Not during three weeks)

Write: Supply in, during and for. Show which sentences take both in and during.

You won't have noisy neighbours!

7.4 Adverbs of frequency

7.4A Position of adverbs of frequency ('often') in affirmatives and questions

[> LEG 7.37-40]

Study:

- 1 Adverbs of frequency generally answer the question How often?. The most common are: always, almost always, generally, usually, normally, frequently, often, sometimes, hardly ever, seldom, ever, not ... ever, never.
- 2 Adverbs of frequency have three basic positions in affirmative sentences:
 - after be when it is the only verb in a sentence: I am always late.
 - after the first auxiliary when there is more than one: I would always have been late.
 - before the main verb when there is only one verb: You never tried hard enough.
- 3 In questions, the adverb of frequency comes after the subject: Are you always late?

Write: Rewrite these sentences using any suitable adverb of frequency in each one.

- 1 I am late. I am generally late.
- 2 I was late for work.
- 3 I can tell the difference between the two.
- 4 I would have been able to find a job like yours.
- 5 You tried hard enough.
- 6 You got good marks at school.
- 7 Are you late?
- 8 Have you lived in this town?
- 9 Did you get good marks at school?

7.4B The position of adverbs of frequency in negative statements [> LEG 7.40.2]

Study:

- 1 These usually come after not: always, generally, normally, often, regularly, usually:
Public transport isn't always (etc.) very reliable.
- 2 Generally, normally, often and usually can come after the subject for special emphasis:
We normally don't worry if the children are late.*
- 3 We use sometimes and frequently before not or before isn't, doesn't, don't, didn't, etc.:
Debbie is sometimes not responsible for what she does. He is frequently not at home.
She sometimes isn't reliable. He frequently doesn't get home till 10.
- 4 We can't use not to form negatives with hardly ever, etc. [> 13.2A]: He hardly ever writes.
(Not He almost always doesn't write. or He doesn't hardly ever write.)

Write: Write these sentences again using the adverbs in brackets. Make changes where necessary.

- 1 Public transport isn't reliable. (always) Public transport isn't always reliable.
- 2 He wasn't late when he worked here. (often)
- 3 She doesn't arrive on time. (usually)
- 4 She doesn't arrive on time. (sometimes)
- 5 We don't worry if the children are late. (normally)
- 6 You don't phone. (hardly ever)
- 7 We don't complain. (generally)
- 8 You're not at home when I phone. (sometimes)

7.4C Adverbs of frequency at the beginning of a sentence [> LEG 7.40.4]

Study:

For special emphasis, we can begin a sentence with frequently, generally, normally, (very) often, sometimes and usually.

We can say: We normally don't worry if the children are late home from school.

Or: Normally, we don't worry if the children are late home from school.*

Write: Answer each question in full putting the adverb a) in the middle and b) at the beginning.

7.4D Context

Write: Show where the adverbs in brackets can go in the sentences that follow them.

WHERE DID I PUT MY TEETH?

(¹*ever*) Have you forgotten something on a train or bus? ever forgotten

(²*never*) Don't say you have!

(³*always*) (⁴*occasionally*) We can't be careful with our things and most of us must have left something behind when getting off a bus or train.

(⁵*never*) There can't be anyone who forgets anything.

(⁶*regularly*) Over 150,000 items a year are dealt with by London Transport's Lost Property Office.

(⁸*most often*) The things people lose are umbrellas and keys.

(⁹*sometimes*) But there are items that are not very common.

(¹⁰*ever*) Can you imagine losing a bed and not claiming it?

(¹¹*often*) Prams and pushchairs are lost.

(¹²*frequently*) But it is unbelievable that people forget false teeth and even glass eyes when they get off a train!

(¹³*often*) Yet they do!

People don't carry stuffed gorillas!

7.5 Adverbs of degree

7.5A The two meanings of 'quite' [> LEG 6.5, 7.41-42]

Study:

- 1 Quite, fairly and rather are common adverbs of degree. They can make the word they modify weaker or stronger and their effect depends on stress and intonation. If we say:

The film is quite good! and our voice 'goes up', this means 'I enjoyed it on the whole'.

The film is quite good. and our voice 'goes down', this means 'I didn't really enjoy it'.

We can put quite in front of ordinary adjectives (quite good), adverbs (quite slowly), and a few verbs (I quite enjoy). Regardless of stress, the meaning is 'less than'.

- 2 We can also use quite with 'absolute' adjectives (dead, empty and full), and with 'strong' adjectives like amazing and wonderful. Then it means 'completely'. The voice 'goes up'.

The man was quite dead! The bucket is quite full! The film was quite wonderful!

Write: Answer these questions in full with quite, and say whether quite means 'less than' or 'completely'.

- 1 What was the film like? (good) The film was quite good. ('less than')
- 2 How was the exhibition? (amazing)
- 3 What's Pam like? (wonderful)
- 4 How was the play? (awful)
- 5 How was your holiday? (quite enjoy)
- 6 Do you eat snails? (quite like)

7.5B 'Fairly' [> LEG 7.43]

Study:

Fairly often goes with 'good' adjectives and adverbs (good, nice, well, etc.). It is generally 'less complimentary' than quite. We do not use 'enough' [> 16.4B] to mean quite or fairly.

What's Yoko's English like? – It's quite good. ('complimentary') Not enough good

What's Yoko's English like? – It's fairly good. ('less complimentary') Not enough good

We can't use fairly with some 'absolute' adjectives: Not fairly dead/fairly wonderful

Write: Add quite and fairly. Mark as 'complimentary', 'less complimentary' or 'completely'.

- 1 She sings quite/fairly well. ('complimentary'/'less complimentary')
- 2 The dinner is spoilt.
- 3 I feel sick.
- 4 She's clever.
- 5 I think he's mad.
- 6 You're incredible!

7.5C 'Rather' [> LEG 7.44]

Study:

Rather is stronger than quite and fairly and suggests 'inclined to be'.

It often goes with 'bad' adjectives (bad, poor, awful, unpleasant, etc.).

When it goes with 'good' adjectives (good, nice, tasty, etc.) it often means 'surprisingly':

This ice-cream is rather good. (perhaps I didn't expect it to be)

Write: Add quite and rather to each sentence, where possible. Say if they mean 'inclined to (be)', 'less than' or 'completely'.

- 1 I'm afraid Jane's health is quite/rather poor. ('completely'/'inclined to be')
- 2 Don't worry! Your son is all right!
- 3 Your work has been unsatisfactory.
- 4 I'm afraid an appointment tomorrow is impossible.
- 5 Last night's documentary was interesting.

7.5D 'Much', 'any', 'far' and 'a lot' as adverbs of degree [> LEG 5.12.3, 7.45]

Study:

- 1 We can use much and far with comparatives and superlatives to say 'to what degree':
Jane is much better today. London is far bigger than Edinburgh.
This Indian cookery book is by far the best. London is much the biggest city in Britain.
- 2 We can use a lot and any with comparatives: It's a lot bigger. Is it any better?
- 3 Not much and not any go with a few adjectives: This battery isn't much good/any good.
- 4 We can use not much and (not) a lot with verbs such as like and enjoy.
I don't much like fish. I don't like fish (very) much. I (don't) like fish a lot.
- 5 We often use much and far with prefer and would rather [> 16.8B, 11.8]:
I much prefer tea to coffee. I'd far rather have tea than coffee.

Write: Add much, any, far or a lot and give alternatives where possible.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 I'm not much/any good at maths. | 6 Those two recordings aren't different. |
| 2 You're quicker than me. | 7 I don't like people who show off. |
| 3 This is more expensive. | 8 I prefer swimming to cycling. |
| 4 This is the best way to enjoy yourself. | 9 This machine isn't use. |
| 5 I can't go faster. | 10 You're thinner than when I last saw you. |

7.5E Context

Write: Put in any suitable adverbs of degree (any, many, much, rather, fairly, quite, etc.).

CAN WE GO HOME PLEASE?

It was ¹..... quite late. The restaurant clock showed 1.30 a.m. The waiters were feeling ²..... tired and were beginning to yawn. There was one ³..... middle-aged couple left. They had clearly had ⁴..... a good meal. Now they were looking at each other across the table and were ⁵..... unaware of the world around them. The waiters wanted to go home. One of them asked the couple if they wanted ⁶..... more to eat or drink. He didn't get an answer. It clearly wasn't ⁷..... use asking questions! One of the waiters had ⁸..... a good idea. He began stacking chairs upside-down onto the tables. The others joined in. Another waiter turned off the lights. In the end, the restaurant was ⁹..... dim. The chairs were stacked on the tables round the couple who just sat and sat and sat!

The couple sat and sat and sat!

7.6 Intensifiers

7.6A 'Very', 'too' and 'very much' [> LEG 6.8.2, 6.9, 6.28.2, 7.45, 7.48, 7.50-51]

Study:

- 1 Intensifiers are words like very and too which strengthen adjectives and adverbs.
- 2 We use very to strengthen:
 - the positive form of adjectives (not comparative/superlative): Martha has been very ill.
 - adjective + noun: John is a very nice man.
 - adverbs: The wheels of bureaucracy turn very slowly.
 - many past participle adjectival forms: I'm very interested. You're very mistaken.

The very goes with best/worst: It's the very best/the very worst meal I've ever had.
and some nouns (beginning/end): I waited till the very end of the film.
- 3 Too goes before adjectives and adverbs and means 'more than is desirable' [> 7.7B, 16.4B]:
Compare: It's very hot, but I can drink it. It's too hot and I can't drink it.
It's often more polite to say not very good or not too good rather than 'bad':
His work's not very good/not too good. (There is no difference in meaning here.)
- 4 Very much goes with:
 - comparatives: She is very much better.
 - verbs: I like your painting very much. This idea has very much interested me.
 - adjectives like afraid, awake, alive and alone: Old Mrs Page is very much alone.

Write 1: Supply very, too, or very much in these sentences. Two answers may be possible.

- | | |
|---|---|
| 1 I hear Jack has been very ill. | 11 She's intelligent to believe that! |
| 2 I can't go faster than I'm going. | 12 The Antarctic would be cold for me. |
| 3 Go slower. You're driving fast for me. | 13 I like your idea. |
| 4 She didn't think my work was good. | 14 The new XJ6 is faster than the old one. |
| 5 I can't afford that. It's expensive. | 15 We were late, but we just got the train. |
| 6 If you think that, you are mistaken. | 16 We were late, so we missed our train. |
| 7 This project has interested our firm. | 17 We have missed you. |
| 8 I didn't enjoy the meal | 18 Your children get much pocket money. |
| 9 Susan's paintings have been admired. | 19 He hasn't got much money. |
| 10 I always try and buy the best. | 20 I've been alone lately. |

Write 2: Complete these responses using very, too, very much and too much.

- 1 How did you enjoy last night's film? – I enjoyed it very much

- 9 Why aren't you buying those shoes? – They're large for me.
- 10 Those shoes are very large! – Yes, but not large!
- 11 Are the children still awake? – Yes, they're awake!

7.6B Adverbs in place of 'very': 'extremely happy', 'fast asleep'

[> LEG 7.52-53, 6.8.2, App 16]

Study:

- 1 We often use extremely and really for special emphasis instead of very:
I'm very sleepy. → I'm extremely sleepy. (more emphatic)
- 2 In everyday speech we often use terribly and awfully in place of very:
That hi fi is very expensive. → It's awfully/terribly expensive.
- 3 Note that we say fast asleep and wide awake (Not very asleep/very awake*):
Don't disturb the children – they're fast asleep.
- 4 We use some -ly adverbs in fixed phrases: deeply hurt, painfully embarrassed, highly respected, richly deserved, I greatly appreciate, badly needed, bitterly cold:
Mr Wilson is highly respected in our community.
A new playground for our children is badly needed.

Write: Use suitable adverbs in place of very.

Write: Use suitable words to complete this story. Don't use the same word more than twice.

JUSTLY PUNISHED

There were ¹.....too..... many people on the bus for comfort and passengers were standing in the aisle. A young woman carrying a baby was ²..... grateful when an old man offered her his seat. The baby was ³..... asleep and she could now rest him on her lap. She thanked the old man ⁴..... and was just going to sit down when a rude young man sat in the empty seat. Everyone was ⁵..... embarrassed, and the young mother was ⁶..... surprised to say anything. All the passengers ⁷..... disapproved of the man's action. A rude man sat in the empty seat

7.7 Focus adverbs

7.7A 'Even', 'only', 'just' and 'simply' for 'focusing' [> LEG 7.54-55]

Study:

- 1 We can change the position in a sentence of adverbs like even, only, just and simply depending on where we want to 'focus our attention'. Compare:
Even I understood Professor Boffin's lecture. (i.e. even though I'm stupid)
I even understood Professor Boffin's lecture. (i.e. out of various things I understood)
- 2 In everyday speech, we often put these adverbs before the verb and other people can understand what we mean from stress and intonation: I only asked a question means 'that's all I did' rather than 'I was the only person who asked a question'.

Write: Write sentences to show how you interpret these statements.

- 1 Only I understood his lecture. I understood his lecture, but no one else did.
- 2 I only listened to his lecture.
- 3 I understood his lecture only.
- 4 Set the table simply.
- 5 I just understood his lecture.
- 6 I understood just his lecture.
- 7 I understood his lecture – just!

7.7B Two meanings of 'too' [> LEG 7.48, 7.56]

Study:

Too changes its meaning according to position:
This coffee is too hot to drink at the moment. (= more than is desirable [> 7.6A, 16.4B])
The croissant is freshly-made and the coffee is hot, too. (= also)

Write:

- 1 I can't drink the coffee. (hot) It's too hot.
- 2 The coffee is freshly-made and it is also hot. and it's hot, too.
- 3 I went to the bank and I also went to the supermarket.
- 4 I didn't walk to the supermarket. (far)
- 5 I didn't buy that jacket. (expensive)
- 6 I didn't buy that jacket. It was badly-made and also expensive.

7.7C 'Too' and 'not either' [> LEG 7.56]

Study:

We use too at the end of an affirmative sentence to mean also:
Billy can already read and he can write, too.
 In the negative, we must use either in place of too:
Billy can't write yet and he can't read, either. (Not He can't read, too.* * [> 13.4])

Write: Add too or either.

- 1 I like walking and I like cycling, too.
- 2 I met John and I met his wife,
- 3 I don't swim and I don't run,
- 4 He runs a restaurant and a hotel,
- 5 I can't knit and I can't sew,
- 6 Don't drink tea and don't drink coffee,
- 7 I don't know and I don't care,
- 8 I know John well and I like him,

7.7D 'Also' and 'as well' [> LEG 7.56]

Study:

- 1 We use also and as well like too, that is in affirmative sentences. We replace them by either in negative sentences. We use as well only at the end of a clause or sentence:
I bought this handbag and I bought these shoes to go with it, as well.
- 2 Also is more common in writing than in speech. It normally comes:
 - after be, have, can, etc.: Susan is an engineer. She is also a mother.
 - after the first auxiliary verb when there is one or more than one:
I should have collected the letters from your office and I should also have posted them.
 - before the main verb: I play volley-ball and I also play tennis. [compare > 7.4A]

Write: Show where also goes in these sentences.

- 1 She can act and she can sing. She can act and she can also sing.
- 2 I have had a rest and I have had a shower.
- 3 He writes novels and he writes TV scripts.
- 4 He has been arrested and he will be tried.
- 5 You should have phoned and you should have written.
- 6 I have to write a report and I have to file some letters.
- 7 I'd like a cup of coffee and I'd like some sandwiches, please.
- 8 Mr Mason owns the corner shop and he owns the flat over it.
- 9 We sell our products in the home market but we export a lot.
- 10 I'm not going to buy it because it's not what I want and it's too expensive.

7.7E Context

Write: Show where the adverbs in brackets will go in the sentences that follow them.

A SAFE PLACE

(¹*either*) My aunt, Millie, always said she had some jewels which she would leave to me, but when she died she didn't leave any money and she didn't leave any jewels: either.

(²*even*) My mother was surprised.

(³*too*) 'I know she had some rings and some lovely necklaces.

(⁴*only*) I saw them once, but perhaps she sold them.'

(⁵*as well*) My mother and I looked everywhere: we looked in the bedrooms, in the bathroom, and in the attic, but we found nothing.

(⁶*also*) 'Millie was very careful and was afraid of burglars,' mother said, 'but I don't think she hid her jewels anywhere.

(⁷*too*) Let's go home, and we'd better take all the food in the deep freeze.'

On Sunday, mother said to me, 'I'm going to cook this lovely goose which was in your aunt Millie's deep freeze. I'll prepare some stuffing and you can stuff the goose.'

(⁸*too*) Five minutes later I screamed with surprise: the goose was full of jewels and there were some gold coins!

I screamed with surprise!

7.8 Viewpoint adverbs, connecting adverbs and inversion

7.8A Viewpoint adverbs [> LEG 7.57, App 17]

Study:

We may express our 'viewpoint' in speech or in writing using adverbs like these:

- (= I'm sure): clearly, definitely, honestly, naturally, obviously, really, strictly speaking.
- (= I'm going to be brief): anyhow, briefly, in brief, in effect, in a few words, in short.
- (= I'm expressing my opinion): as far as I'm concerned, frankly, in my opinion, I think.

Write: Mark the 'viewpoints' (a-i) that are expressed in this text.

I was agreeably (¹..ä..) surprised to learn that I had passed my history exam. Between ourselves, (².....) I was expecting to fail. After all, (³.....) I hadn't done any work and, naturally, (⁴.....) I didn't think I deserved to pass. So when the results came, I was expecting the worst. As a general rule, (⁵.....) you get what you deserve and this is certainly (⁶.....) true of exams. Frankly, (⁷.....) I deserved to fail, but, I not only passed, I even got very good marks. This only shows that luck can help; at any rate, (⁸.....) it helped in my case. In my view, (⁹.....) it just shows that passing exams is not always a matter of hard work.

- a I am making a generalization
- b the reason for this was
- c I don't want you to repeat this
- d I was pleased
- e as was to be expected
- f I am sure
- g the important thing is this
- h I'm being honest
- i I'm expressing my opinion

7.8B Connecting adverbs [> LEG 7.58, App 18]

Study:

We can connect ideas in speech or writing using adverbs like these:

- (= I'm adding something): in addition, again, apart from this, besides, moreover.
- (= I'm comparing/contrasting): as compared to, equally, however, in reality.
- (= I'm summarizing): all in all, and so on, essentially, in brief, in conclusion, in effect.

Write: Mark the 'connecting ideas' (a-h) that are expressed in this text.

According to (¹..h..) a lot of people I know, there are few things more terrifying than having to speak in public. The only way to succeed is to follow strict rules. First of all, (².....) you should be well-prepared. Second, (³.....) you should have a few jokes ready. As well as that, (⁴.....) you should have rehearsed your speech, preferably in front of a mirror. In comparison with (⁵.....) being hit by a bus, public speaking isn't too bad, but it's bad enough. However, (⁶.....) you can make things easier for yourself by being ready. Alternatively, (⁷.....) you can do nothing and make a fool of yourself. To sum up, (⁸.....) success depends entirely on you.

- a I am introducing a list
- b I am making an addition
- c I am pointing to a contrast
- d I am stating an alternative
- e I am summarizing
- f I am making a second point
- g I am making a comparison
- h As stated by

7.8C Inversion after 'negative adverbs', etc. [> LEG 7.59, App 19]

Study:

- 1 Some adverbs like never and little have a 'negative effect' and we sometimes refer to them as 'negative adverbs'. We can use them in the ordinary way [> 7.4]:
I have never seen so much protest against a government.
Michael little realizes how important this meeting is.
- 2 If we begin a sentence with a 'negative adverb' we must follow with the word order we use in a Yes/No question [> 13.1]. Beginning with a negative is very formal:
Never have I seen so much protest against a government.*
Little does Michael realize how important this meeting is.*
- 3 We use this kind of inversion, in formal style, after:
 - 'negative adverbs': e.g. hardly, hardly ever, never, rarely, seldom.
 - phrases with only: e.g. only after, only then, only when (Only then did I learn ...*).
 - so + adjective: So difficult was this problem, Einstein couldn't solve it.*

Write: Rewrite these sentences so that they begin with the words in italics.

- 1 There has never been such a display of strength by the workers.
Never has there been such a display of strength by the workers.
- 2 I realized what had happened only later.

- 3 You shouldn't sign the document on any account.
On no account
- 4 You shouldn't answer the door when I'm out in any circumstances.
In no circumstances
- 5 The papyrus was so old, we didn't dare to touch it.

7.8D Context

Write: Put in the right verb form and these adverbs: according to, agreeably, however, in brief, moreover or ultimately.

Don't ask for a room with a view!

DON'T ASK FOR A ROOM WITH A VIEW!

But don't ask for a room with a view!

8 Prepositions, adverb particles and phrasal verbs

8.1 Prepositions, adverb particles and conjunctions

8.1A Words we can use either as prepositions or as adverbs [> LEG 8.4, 7.3.4]

Study:

- 1 There are many 'small words' in English such as up, down, and by which we call prepositions. In fact, we use these as prepositions or adverb particles. Understanding the difference between the two will help us to understand 'phrasal verbs' [> 8.6-8].
- 2 A preposition must have an object (a noun or a pronoun), so it is always related to a noun:
across the road, over the wall, up the hill, down the mountain.
- 3 An adverb particle does not need an object, so it is more closely related to a verb:
walk across, drive over, come up, climb down.
- 4 We can use the following words either as prepositions or adverb particles:
about, above, across, after, along, before, behind, below, beneath, between, beyond, by, down, in, inside, near, off, on, opposite, outside, over, past, round, through, under, underneath, up, without. This means we can say:
We drove round the city. (round has a noun object, so it's a preposition)
We drove round. (round has no object, so it's an adverb particle).

Write: You are giving instructions to a young child. Give each instruction twice.

- 1 (run across the road) Run across the road. Run across now.
- 2 (climb over the wall)
- 3 (come inside the house)
- 4 (go down the hill)
- 5 (go up the ladder)
- 6 (run past the window)

8.1B Words we can use only as prepositions or only as adverbs [> LEG 8.4.2-3]

Study:

- 1 We use some 'small words' only as prepositions, so they always have a noun or pronoun object: against, among, at, beside, during, except, for, from, into, of, onto, on top of, out of, since, till/until, to, toward(s), upon, with. This means we have to say: e.g.
*Sit beside me. We can't say *Sit beside.
- 2 We use other 'small words' only as adverb particles, so they do not have an object: away, back, backward(s), downward(s), forward(s), on top, out, upward(s). This means we have to say: e.g. *Don't go near the fire. Stay away! (Not Stay away the fire!)*

Write: You are answering the question What did you do? Supply suitable noun objects where possible.

- 1 We waited at the station
- 2 We went to
- 3 We jumped back
- 4 We climbed out
- 5 We drove away
- 6 We ran into
- 7 We ran out of
- 8 We went upwards

8.1C Words we can use either as prepositions or conjunctions

- 1 There are a few words we can use either as prepositions or conjunctions:
after, as, before, since and till/until [> 1.8, 1.9, 7.3A-B].
- 2 When we use them as prepositions, we have a noun or pronoun object after them:
Let's have our meeting after lunch.
- 3 When we use them as conjunctions, we have a clause [> 1.5] after them:
Let's have our meeting after we have had lunch.

Write: Complete these sentences with a) a noun object b) a clause.

- 1 I can't work before breakfast / before I have had breakfast
- 2 I'll meet you after
- 3 I'll wait here till
- 4 I've been staying at this hotel since

8.1D Object pronouns after prepositions: 'between you and me' [> LEG 8.3]

Study:

TWO LEGS IN ONE BOOT preposition

It was late in the afternoon. Inspector Mayhew had an hour to go before he finished work for the day. He sat in his police car watching the traffic go by. Suddenly, he sat up! A woman in a blue car drove slowly past and the inspector clearly saw a pair of man's legs sticking out of the boot! Inspector Mayhew immediately gave chase. The woman drove round the town. The blue lamp on top of the police car was flashing, but the woman paid no attention to it. The inspector finally got in front of her and made her stop. 'What's the matter?' the woman asked. 'You've got a body in the boot!' the inspector said. There was a loud laugh from the boot. 'But I'm alive,' the voice said. 'I'm a car mechanic and I'm trying to find the cause of a strange noise in the back of this car.'

... legs sticking out of the boot!

'THE PROPHECY'

People who live ¹..... ~~in~~..... California have every reason to be afraid of earthquakes. No one has ever forgotten the great quake that destroyed San Francisco ²..... 1906. ³..... May, 1988, the people of Los Angeles panicked. According to a prophecy made ⁴..... the 16th century by a prophet called Nostradamus, the city would be destroyed early ⁵..... 1988. During the panic, parents didn't send their children ⁶..... school and people didn't go ⁷..... work. No one stayed ⁸..... home, either. The airlines did great business carrying people who fled ⁹..... their 'doomed city'. Which is more puzzling: how Nostradamus knew that a city which didn't even exist ¹⁰..... his time would be destroyed ¹¹..... the 20th century, or the behaviour of the people who believed 'the prophecy'?

The people of Los Angeles panicked

8.3 Particular prepositions, particles: contrasts (1)

8.3A Prepositions, particles, etc. often confused and misused [> LEG App 25.1-11]

Study:

1 about and on

We can use about and on to mean 'concerning'. We use on in a formal way, e.g. to describe a textbook: a textbook on physics; about is informal: a book about animals.

2 according to and by

We use according to to refer to information coming from other people or sources: according to him, according to this guide book. When we refer to ourselves, we say in my opinion (Not according to me*). We can use by or according to when we refer to a clock or a timetable: By or According to my watch, it's 3.15.

3 across and over

We can use both these prepositions to mean 'from one side to the other': My house is across/over the road/the river. We cannot use over for large areas: They're laying a pipeline across Siberia. (Not over*) We use over after verbs like wander to mean 'here and there'. We use across to describe movement through water: She swam across the Channel. (Not over the Channel*) But we say over a wall/a fence. (Not across*)

4 across and through

Through, meaning 'from one side to the other', refers to something like a tunnel (through a pipe) or something dense (through the forest); across refers to a large area (across the desert). With some nouns, like park, we can use either across or through.

5 after and afterwards

We generally use a noun or pronoun with after: after lunch [> 8.1A]. We use afterwards on its own: We had a swim in the sea. Afterwards we lay on the beach. (Not After*)

6 around and about

We use both words to refer to 'lack of purpose': We didn't have anything to do, so we started fooling around/about. But we say He lives (a)round here. (= near) (Not about*)

7 at, to and against

We use at after adjectives like good, clever. After verbs like throw, at often means 'taking aim'. Compare: throw at (to hit) and throw to (for someone to catch). When there is no idea of 'taking aim', we use against: throw the ball against the wall. And note: fight against. We use at for speed or price: at 100 miles an hour, at $2 each.

8 away

Away [> 8.1B] combines with far (far away) and from (away from) and with verbs which give the idea of 'distance': e.g. live, work: I live 5 miles away. (Not I live 5 miles far away*)

9 because and because of

We use because to give a reason: We left the party because it was noisy. [> 1.9] We use a noun or pronoun after because of: We left the party because of the noise.

10 before or in front of

We often use before to refer to time (before 7); in front of (and its opposite, behind) refers to position. We can use either before or in front of after the verbs come and go.

11 behind, at the back (of) and back

We can put a noun or pronoun after behind (behind this house) or we can use it on its own (there's a garden behind). Or we can say: at the back of this house, it's at the back. Do not confuse back with again: invite them back means 'return their hospitality'. Don't use back after return: We returned early. (Not returned back*) Note 3 years back (= ago).

8.4A Prepositions, particles, etc. often confused and misused

[> LEG App 25.12-19, 25.25]

1 beside and besides

Beside + noun/pronoun means 'next to': Sit beside me. Besides with or without an object means 'in addition to' or 'as well as': There were many people there besides (us).

2 between and among

We commonly use between to show a division between two people, things, or times: Divide this between you both. We use among + plural noun to refer to a mass of people, etc.: Were you among the people present? We sometimes use between to refer to more than two, if these can be viewed separately: Don't smoke between courses.

3 but (for) and except (for)

But (for)/except (for) mean 'with the exception of': Everyone has helped but (for)/except (for) you. We can use except and but without for, but not to begin a sentence:

Except for/But for you, everyone has helped.* (Not Except you/But you everyone ...*.)

Except for/but for can mean 'if not': We'd've been on time except for/but for the snow.

4 by, near and on

By can mean 'right next to': Sit by me. We often use the words right or close in front of by: The hotel is right by/close by the station. Near (or not far from) usually suggests 'a short way from': We live near/not far from London. On means 'right next to' or 'beside' when we refer to 'a line': *Our house is right on the road. I can't see what is on my left.

5 by and past

We use either word after verbs of motion (go, run, walk, etc.) to mean 'beyond in space or time': He went right by/past me without speaking. *A few days went by/past.

6 by, with and without [compare > 8.5An.7]

We often use by in fixed phrases: by bus, by car, by post. We also use it to refer to 'method': You can open it by moving the catch. By can refer to time and rate: *I'm paid by the hour. With/without refer to things (especially tools or instruments) which we need to use: *You can't open it with/without a bottle-opener.

7 down, up, under and over

Down is the opposite of up and shows direction towards a lower level, especially with 'movement verbs': *Let's climb up/down. We can also use up and down to show position: *He lives up/down the street. Under suggests 'being covered': Let's sit under a tree. Over can have the meaning 'covering': *Keep this blanket over you.

8 due to and owing to

We often use either one or the other. However, due to is related to a noun + be: *Our delay (noun) was (+ be) due to/caused by the heavy traffic.* Owing to (= because of) is related to the verb: The broadcast was cancelled (verb) owing to/because of the strike.

9 like and as

Like (= to compare with) is followed by a noun or pronoun: There's no one like John/you. We can also use it to mean 'such as': Invite people like the Frys. Like can also mean 'similar to/in the same way as': It was like a dream. He acts like a king.

We use as (Not like) + object to mean 'in the capacity of': I work as a receptionist.

We also use as to give a reason [> 1.9]: As the last bus had left, we walked home.*

We use like informally to introduce a clause, especially in American English: Like I told you, it's an offer I can't refuse.* A lot of native speakers of English think this is wrong.

8.5A Prepositions, particles, etc. often confused and misused

1 of, out of, from and with after made

We use made of and made out of when we can actually recognize the material(s): made of wood, iron, etc. We use made from when the ingredients are not immediately obvious: a cake made from eggs, milk and flour. We use made with (= contains) to identify one or more of the ingredients: These chocolates are made with fresh cream.

2 of and off

We never use of and off in place of each other. We always use a noun or pronoun object after of: north of the river, a woman of 50. We can use an object after off, or we can use it on its own to suggest separation: just off the motorway, take the top off.

3 on and in

We often use both of these to refer to the body. On refers to surface: on your nose. In suggests 'deep': a speck in my eye, or refers to pain: a pain in my stomach.

4 out of and outside

Out of is the opposite of into when we are describing movement: We ran out of the building. In this sense, we can't replace out of by outside. Compare uses without movement: He is out of his office. (= not here) He is outside the office. (= waiting)

5 over, above and on top of

Over (= covering, sometimes touching): Keep the blankets over you. Above (= at a higher level and not touching): a light above my head. On top of (= touching): on top of the TV. We can use over and above in place of each other to mean 'vertically at a higher level': a helicopter over/above a lifeboat. We cannot use over and above in place of each other when all we are concerned with is 'a higher level' (not vertical). If, for example, we were referring to two cats on a tree we would say that A was above B, not over it. We also use both words to refer to rank, etc.: over/above the rank of colonel.

6 under, underneath and below

Under (= covered by, sometimes touching); underneath (= completely covered by): a mat under/underneath a hot dish. Below is the opposite of above and we can use it in place of under/underneath. Below (Not under*) refers to position (below the knee).

7 with and without

We use with and without to mean 'accompanied by' or 'not accompanied by': with/without my sister. With can suggest 'having': with your hands in your pockets, and 'taking into consideration': with the high cost of living. With follows common adjectives (e.g. angry) and we use it in expressions like blue with cold. Without + -ing can suggest 'and not do something': Go into the room without waking the children.

8 with, without, in and of

We can use with and without to mean 'carrying'/'not carrying': with a handbag, without any money. We can also refer to physical characteristics: with a big nose; and such things as hairstyles and make-up: with pink lipstick. We can use in to mean 'wearing': the man in the blue suit. We can also refer to voice quality: in a loud voice. Of can describe personal qualities: a man of courage; age: a man of 65; or wealth: a woman of substance.

8.6 Phrasal verbs: Type 1, verb + preposition (transitive)

8.6A Introduction to phrasal verbs [> LEG 8.23-26]

Study:

We often combine verbs with prepositions and adverb particles [> 8.1A-B] to form phrasal verbs. These verbs can have non-idiomatic or idiomatic meanings and we use them a lot. So, for example, if someone knocks at the door, we would probably say 'Come in!' rather than 'Enter'. We would say 'take off' your jacket, rather than 'remove' it, and so on. We can define four types of phrasal verbs according to form. As you learn new verbs, get used to recognizing them as one of these four types so that you learn how to use them.

Note the terms: transitive (= followed by a noun or pronoun object) [> 1.2B] intransitive (= not followed by a noun or pronoun object) [> 1.2B]

Type 1: verb + preposition (transitive): e.g. Listen to this record. Listen to it. Listen!

Type 2: verb + particle (transitive): e.g. Take off your hat. Take your hat off. Take it off.

Type 3: verb + particle (intransitive): e.g. Hurry up! Sit down!

Type 4: verb + particle + preposition (transitive): e.g. We've run out of matches.

8.6B Type 1: Verb + preposition + object, non-idiomatic: 'look at the camera'

Study: These verbs are used in their normal sense. [> LEG 8.27.2, App 28]

Write: Supply the missing prepositions.

8.6E Context

Write: Put in at, for, from, in, of, on, out of or to. Use each word at least once.

IS THERE ANYBODY THERE?

A dentist in Bavaria has been haunted by a voice which swears 1.....at..... him all the time. The voice comes 2..... light sockets, washbasins and the telephone. It is a sharp, deep voice which laughs 3..... the dentist and mocks him. The poor dentist is suffering 4..... a bad case of nerves. Recently, the voice was recorded and broadcast, so now everyone in Bavaria is looking 5..... the ghost, but so far no one has succeeded 6..... finding it. People who don't believe 7..... ghosts think it is just a practical joke. The voice always shouts 8..... the dentist, but speaks sweetly 9..... his 17-year-old assistant, Claudia. But no one can blame Claudia 10..... the behaviour of the ghost or accuse her 11..... playing tricks 12..... her poor boss. Engineers don't know what to make 13..... it. 'He's a technical genius,' one of them said. The ghost has responded 14..... all this activity by saying, in a thick Bavarian accent, 'You'll never get hold 15..... me!'

You'll never get hold of me!

8.7 Phrasal verbs: Type 2, verb + particle (transitive)

8.7A Type 1 and Type 2 phrasal verbs compared [> LEG 8.28, Apps 32, 33]

Study:

- 1 We use prepositions after Type 1 verbs. We cannot separate the preposition from the verb: I'm looking at the camera. (Not I'm looking the camera at.*)
- 2 We can separate the adverb particle from a Type 2 verb and put it immediately after the noun object: She gave away her books. She gave her books away.
- 3 If the object is a pronoun, we cannot put the particle in front of it: Give it away. (Not Give away it.*) Give them away. (Not Give away them.*)
- 4 Special note: In She gave away her books, away is an adverb particle [> 8.1B], not a preposition, even if it has an object after it. Unlike a preposition, a particle is 'mobile' and can be used before or after a noun object. [> LEG 8.28.2]

Write: Use arrows to show which adverb particles you can move in these sentences.

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---|
| 1 I'm looking for my glasses. | 6 Yes, I've given them out. |
| 2 I read about it in the papers. | 7 Write the information down here please. |
| 3 Did you turn the gas off? | 8 A crowd emerged from the cinema. |
| 4 Yes, I've just turned it off. | 9 Don't associate with him. |
| 5 Have you given the papers out? | 10 We've dealt with the problem. |

8.7B Type 2: Particles that extend the verb: 'write down' [> LEG 8.28.3-4, App 32]

Study:

- A single particle can strengthen or extend the meaning of a verb:
- The scarecrow frightened the birds away.* (away refers to 'distance')
 - I was holding my hat and the wind snatched it away.* (away refers to 'detachment')
 - I got a cloth and wiped away the coffee I had spilled.* (away refers to 'disappearance')
 - Please put these dishes away.* (away refers to 'tidying')
- The verb often has its non-idiomatic meaning, but the particle 'extends' this meaning: e.g. pull out, push away, wash away, move back, burn down, bring in, cut off.

Write: Match these meanings to the adverb particles in the sentences below.

- | | | | |

9.1C Stative and dynamic verbs [> LEG 9.3, App 38]

Study:

- 1 We call a few verbs like love stative because they refer to 'states'. A state has no beginning and no end. We don't 'control' it, so we don't normally use stative verbs in progressive tenses: She loves her baby more than anything. (Not is loving*)
- 2 Most verbs in English are dynamic. We can use them in two ways:
 - in the simple present tense to describe habits, etc. [> 9.1B]: I often make cakes.
 - in the present progressive to describe deliberate actions in progress [> 9.2B]: I'm making a cake.
- 3 We can describe three classes of verbs:
 - a Dynamic verbs which have simple or progressive forms (most verbs in English):
I often listen to records. (simple present tense)
I'm listening to a record. (present progressive tense)
 - b Verbs which are always stative:
This coat belongs to you. (simple present tense) (Not is belonging*)
 - c Verbs that have stative or dynamic uses:
I'm weighing myself. (a deliberate action: present progressive tense)
I weigh 65 kilos. (a state) (Not I'm weighing 65 kilos.)
- 4 There are five groups of stative verbs referring to: a feelings (like, love, etc.); b thinking/believing (think, understand, etc.) c wants (want, prefer, etc.) d perception (hear, see, etc. [> 11.2B]) e being/having/owning (appear, seem, belong, etc. [> 10.4])

9.2 The simple present and present progressive tenses (2)

9.2A Spelling: how to add '-ing' to a verb: 'wait/waiting' [> LEG 9.10]

Study:

- 1 We add -ing to most verbs, without changing the base form: wait/waiting:
Wait for me. → I am waiting for you.
- 2 If a verb ends in -e, omit the -e and add -ing: use/using:
Use a broom. → I am using a broom.
- 3 A single vowel followed by a single consonant doubles the final consonant: sit/sitting:
Sit down. → I am sitting down. [> compare 6.5A]
- 4 We double the last consonant of two-syllable verbs when the second syllable is stressed:
begin/beginning. Compare the unstressed final syllable: 'differ/'differing:
Begin work. → I am beginning work.

9.2B Uses of the present progressive tense: 'I am working/he is working'

[> LEG 9.11]

Study:

- There are four basic uses of the present progressive tense. We use it for:

My daughter is studying English at Durham University.
 - 3 Planned actions (+ future adverbial reference): We're spending next winter in Australia. [> 9.9A]
 - 4 Repeated actions with adverbs like always, forever: She's always helping people.

Write:

- a Use the present progressive in the sentences below.

A HOLIDAY JOB WITH A DIFFERENCE!

I (study)¹ am studying English at Exeter University. I'm on holiday at the moment and I (work)² in a public library. I'm lucky to have this job. I (not have to)³ get up early. The library (open)⁴ at 10 and (close)⁵ at 7. It's interesting work because people (always come in)⁶ and (ask)⁷ me to help them, so I (learn)⁸ a lot about different subjects. 9.3 The simple past tense

9.3A The past form and pronunciation of regular verbs [> LEG 9.14, App 39]

Study:

- 1 Regular verbs always end with a -d in the simple past, but we do not always pronounce the -d ending in the same way. We usually add -ed to the base form of the verb:
I play – I played, I open – I opened. We do not pronounce -ed as an extra syllable. We pronounce it as /d/: I played /pleɪd/ Not * /pleɪ-ɪd/ *; I opened /əʊpənd/ Not * /əʊpəniɪd/ *;
I arrived /əraɪvd/ Not * /əraɪviɪd/ *; I married /mæriɪd/ Not * /mæri-ɪd/ * [compare > 2.5A].
- 2 Verbs which end in the following sounds are pronounced /t/ in the past: /k/ packed; /s/ passed; /tʃ/ watched; /ʃ/ washed; /f/ laughed; /p/ tipped.
- 3 A few verbs are pronounced and spelt /d/ or /t/: burned/burnt, dreamed/dreamt.
- 4 Verbs ending in the sounds /t/ or /d/ have their past ending pronounced /ɪd/:
added, decided, counted, excited, needed, posted, shouted, started, tasted, wanted.

Write:

- a Give the past forms of these regular verbs.
- b Show whether you would pronounce these past forms as /d/, /t/ or /ɪd/.

9.3C Uses of the simple past tense: 'I worked/he worked' [> LEG 9.17-18]

Study:

We use the simple past to talk about events, actions or situations which happened in the past and are now finished. We always have to say (or imply) when the action happened, so we often use time references like yesterday, ago, last summer [> 7.2A].

We use the past:

– to describe actions which happened in the recent or distant past:

Sam phoned a moment ago. (Not Sam has phoned) [> 9.5A]

The Goths invaded Rome in A.D. 410. (Not The Goths had invaded) [> 9.6]

– to describe past habit: I smoked forty cigarettes a day till I gave up. [compare > 11.11]

If we do not use time references (a moment ago, when I was young, etc.) we imply them:

I saw Fred in town. (i.e. when I was there this morning)

I never met my grandfather. (i.e. perhaps he died before I was born)

Write: Give complete answers to these questions using the time references in brackets.

1 How long ago did you work as a civil servant? (five years ago)

I worked as a civil servant five years ago.

2 When did you last play football? (when I was 14)

3 When did the Carters leave for their summer holiday? (last night)

4 What time did John arrive? (at 4)

5 When did you last see 'Gone with the Wind'? (recently)

6 How long did you wait at the airport? (till they arrived)

7 When did Sally tell you about her engagement? (when she was here)

9.4 The simple past and past progressive tenses

9.4A Irregular verbs with the same form in the present as in the past: 'put/put' [> LEG 9.16]

Study:

A small number of irregular verbs have the same form in the present as in the past: e.g. burst/burst, cost/cost, cut/cut, hit/hit, put/put. We have to remember, especially with such verbs, that the third person singular does not change in the past:

He put on a clean shirt yesterday. (past) He puts on a clean shirt every day. (present)

After I, you, we, and they, the context or the adverbial tells us the tense:

I put on a clean shirt yesterday. (past) I put on a clean shirt every day. (present)

Write: Do these sentences refer to the present or the past? Write 'present' or 'past'.
In a few cases both references are possible.

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 That shirt cost me £7.00. past | 8 She often hit him. |
| 2 He often cuts himself. | 9 He shut the door with a bang. |

| 4 He let me drive his car. | 11 I often let him drive my car. |
| 5 She reads a lot. | 12 She always beat him at tennis. |
| 6 I set the table every morning. | 13 The BBC broadcasts every day. |
| 7 I set the table an hour ago. | 14 The BBC broadcast the talk yesterday. |

9.4B Uses of the past progressive tense: 'I was working' [> LEG 9.20]

Study:

There are five basic uses of the past progressive tense. We use it for:

- Temporary actions in progress in the past: I was living abroad in 1987.
We often use all to emphasize continuity (all day, all summer): It was raining all night.
- Actions which were in progress when something else happened:
Just as/When I was leaving, the phone rang.
These are often introduced by conjunctions like when, as, just as and while, but the shorter action can be introduced by when: We were having supper when the phone rang.
- Actions in progress at the same time: While I was reading, Joan was playing the piano.
- Repeated actions with e.g. always: When I worked here, I was always making mistakes.
- Polite inquiries: I was wondering if you could give me a lift.

Write: Use the past progressive in the sentences below.

- | | |
|--|--|
| 1 I ... was not listening ..., so I missed what he said. (not listen) | 8 when I left? (you still work) |
| 2 We stayed because we ourselves. (enjoy) | 9 I lived in France at the time you in Spain. (live) |
| 3 tennis yesterday? (they play) | 10 When she was younger, she things for other people. (always do) |
| 4 He all weekend. (garden) | 11 Bill and Sue their house, before they moved. (constantly improve) |
| 5 television all evening? (you watch) | 12 when I rang you? (you read) |
| 6 It hard all day. (rain) | 13 Just as I to an interesting part of the story, the doorbell rang. (get) |
| 7 I whether you could lend me some money. (wonder) | |

9.4C The simple past and the past progressive in story-telling [> LEG 9.21]

b Number the past progressive verbs 1, 2, 3 to show their uses [> 9.4B].

THE SECRET AGENT

It was just before the Second World War. Tom was only 20 at the time and was living with his mother. He was working in a bank and travelling to London every day. One morning, he received a mysterious letter. It was addressed to 'Mr Thomas Parker'. The letter, which was signed, 'A Friend', asked Tom to go to The Crown Inn during his lunch hour. All morning, as he was dealing with customers, Tom was wondering whether he should do this. At lunch time he decided to go to the inn. It was full of people and Tom couldn't recognize anyone. He was just wondering if he should leave, when a stranger introduced himself and said he had known Tom's father, who had died when Tom was a baby. The stranger explained that Tom's father, Bill, was a secret agent in the First World War. Through this meeting, Tom was recruited to be a secret agent, too, and was already working in France when the war began.

The creature (seize) ¹⁹ it, (put) ²⁰ it on its head again, and triumphantly (continue) ²¹ its journey across the road.

9.5 The simple present perfect and present perfect progressive

9.5A Uses of the simple present perfect tense: 'I have eaten/he has eaten'

[> LEG 9.22-27]

Study:

There are two basic uses of the simple present perfect tense. We use it to describe:

- 1 Actions beginning in the past and continuing up to the present moment:
 - with time references like before (now), ever, never ... before, up till now, so far.
I have received 20 cards so far. I have never tasted papaya (before).
 - with since/for. I've lived here since 1980. I've lived here for 20 years. [> 7.3A]
- 2 Actions which happened at an unspecified time in the past:
 - with no time reference at all: Have you passed your driving test?*
 (Depending on context, this could mean 'very recently' or 'at any time up to now'.)
 - with references to recent time, like just, recently, already, still, yet. I've just eaten.
 - repeated/habitual actions: I've watched him on TV several times. I've often met her.

Write: Supply the simple present perfect tense of the verbs in brackets.

9.5B The present perfect progressive tense: 'I have been eating' [> LEG 9.32-34]

Study:

- 1 We use the present perfect progressive in place of the simple present perfect when we want to emphasize that something has been in progress throughout a period:
 Instead of saying: I've typed all day, we can say, for emphasis, I've been typing all day.
 Depending on context, this may mean I'm still typing or I've just recently stopped.
- 2 Some verbs like learn, lie, live, rain, sit, sleep, stand, study, wait, work, naturally suggest continuity [> 7.3B] and we often use them with since and for [> 7.3A].
 We can use them in the simple present perfect tense:
I've waited here for two hours. I've worked here since 1987.
 But we most often use them in the progressive:
I've been waiting here for two hours. I've been working here since 1987.

Write: Supply the present perfect progressive tense of the verbs in brackets.

9.6 The simple past perfect and past perfect progressive tenses

9.6A Uses of the simple past perfect tense: 'I had worked' [> LEG 9.29-30]

Study:

1 When we have two past references, we are not obliged to use the simple past perfect:
After I finished work, I went home. (simple past + simple past)

2 But we often need the past perfect for the event that happened first to avoid ambiguity:
When I arrived, Ann left. (i.e. at that moment)
When I arrived, Ann had left. (i.e. before I got there)

We use the past perfect to refer to 'an earlier past', that is to describe the first of two or more actions: First the patient died. Then the doctor arrived.*

The patient had died when the doctor arrived.

We often introduce the past perfect with conjunctions like when, after, as soon as, by the time that. We use adverbs like already, ever, never ... before.

Write: Supply the simple past or the simple past perfect. Show when both are possible.

Study:

The past perfect progressive is the 'past' form of the present perfect progressive. [> 9.5B]
The progressive forms have the effect of emphasizing continuity.

1 We use them to describe actions in progress throughout a period:

present perfect progressive: She is very tired. She has been typing all day.

past perfect progressive: She was very tired. She had been typing all day.
Depending on context, she was still typing, or had recently stopped. (then, not now)

2 Some verbs like learn, lie, live, wait, work, naturally suggest 'continuity' [> 7.3B, 9.5B]:

We say: I've waited for two hours.* (simple present perfect)

Or: I've been waiting for two hours.* (present perfect progressive)

We say: I'd waited for two hours before he arrived.* (simple past perfect)

Or: I'd been waiting for two hours before he arrived.* (past perfect progressive)

3 Repeated actions:

present perfect progressive: He's been phoning every night for a month.*

past perfect progressive: He'd been phoning every night for a month.*

4 Drawing conclusions:

present perfect progressive: Her eyes are red. It's clear she's been crying.

He (look) ² everywhere, but he (not be able) ³ to find them. Meanwhile, his wife (be) ⁴ busy. She (cook) ⁵ all morning. She (prepare) ⁶ a delicious meal. She (make) ⁷ soup, followed by a lovely pie, which she (bake) ⁸ in the oven. Mr Williams (always enjoy) ⁹ his food, but he clearly wasn't enjoying his lunch. 'What's the matter, Tom?' his wife asked. Mr Williams (have to) ¹⁰ confess that he (lost) ¹¹ their pension books. 'I know,' Mrs Williams (say) ¹² with a twinkle in her eye. 'I've got them.' 'You've got them?' 'Yes – and guess where I (find) ¹³ them!' Mr Williams suddenly remembered. 'In the oven! I (put) ¹⁴ them there for safe-keeping.' He (smile) ¹⁵ with relief as she (fish) ¹⁶ them out of her apron pocket!

He wasn't enjoying his lunch

9.7B 'Will' and 'shall' to refer to the future [> LEG 9.35-37]

Study:

Forms of 'will' and 'shall'

- 1 When we are referring to the future, we use will with all persons (I, you, he, she, etc.), but in British English, we often use shall with I/we. (Not he/she/it/you/they shall*):
I/We will (I'll/We'll) see you tomorrow. Or: I shall/We shall see you tomorrow.*
- 2 In speech, we weaken shall to /ʃəl/. We often use 'll in place of will in speech and sometimes in writing, especially after vowels: I'll/He'll see you tomorrow.*
We also use 'll after consonants: Tom'll be here soon. When'll I see you?*
- 3 Negative short forms are: 'll not, won't (= will not) or shan't (= shall not):
I'll not be there/I won't be there/I shan't be there tomorrow.*
In American English shall and shan't with a future reference are rare.

Uses of the 'will/shall' future

- 1 Prediction: We invite prediction or we say what we think will happen:
Who will win on Saturday? Tottenham will win on Saturday.*
- 2 In formal style we say what will happen for events that have been arranged:
The wedding will take place at St Andrew's on June 27th.*
- 3 We use shall and will to express hopes and expectations:
I hope she'll get the job she's applied for. She'll get a surprise. – I expect she will.

Write: Supply suitable forms of will and shall. Give alternatives where possible.

Situation: Jim is asking his friend Don for advice about a job interview.

JIM: What sorts of questions do you think they ¹.....will..... ask?

DON: The same as they asked me. They ²..... ask you why you want to work for them.

9.8 The simple future, the future progressive, the future perfect

9.8A Simple future 'I will work' and progressive 'I will be working' compared [> LEG 9.40-41]

Study:

There are three basic uses of the future progressive:

- 1 We use it to emphasize actions that will be in progress in the near or distant future, especially when we imagine ourselves doing something:
By this time tomorrow, I'll be lying on the beach. (Not I will lie)
- 2 The progressive 'softens' the effect of will + verb and sounds more polite:
When will you finish these letters? (e.g. boss to assistant)
When will you be seeing Mr White? (e.g. assistant to boss)
If we say I'll work on this tomorrow we may be stating an intention.
If we say I'll be working on this tomorrow, we are simply referring to future time.
- 3 We use the future progressive like the present progressive for planned actions [> 9.2B]:
We'll be spending the winter in Australia is the same as:
We're spending the winter in Australia.

Write 1: Supply will + verb or will be + -ing. Where both are possible, see if you can 'feel' the different effect of the simple future compared with the progressive.

- 1 Sit down and fasten your seat belt. We will take off in a few minutes. (take off)
- 2 When to the bank to draw some money? (you go)
- 3 Do you think you here in five years' time? (still work)
- 4 They from Dover, not Folkestone. (sail)
- 5 The President the Prime Minister before flying back home. (meet)
- 6 So you're stopping off in Dubai on your way to Beijing. How long there? (you stay)
- 7 We to London next Monday morning. (drive)
- 8 By this time next year, I my memoirs. (write)
- 9 In five years' time a permanent space station the moon. (circle)
- 10 I don't think I him tonight. (see)

Write 2: Supply will + verb or will be + -ing – whichever 'feels' appropriate in this dialogue.
Situation: Susan and her family will be setting out on holiday tomorrow morning.

- MEG: So you're off on holiday tomorrow. How exciting! What time (you leave) ¹ will you be leaving.....?
- SUE: We (leave) ²..... the house at about 6 a.m.
- MEG: 6 a.m.! Why so early? You don't have to check in till 9.45. You (arrive) ³..... at the airport terribly early!
- SUE: I know, but the airport is very busy at this time of the year and we want to avoid the rush. We (check in) ⁴..... as quickly as we can, then we (have) ⁵..... breakfast at the cafeteria.
- MEG: I'm sure that's wise of you. Imagine! By this time tomorrow evening you (lie) ⁶..... on the beach and I (do) ⁷..... the ironing or something!
- SUE: I hope you're right! I hope we (not sit around) ⁸..... at the airport. You never know these days!

9.8B The future perfect simple and the future perfect progressive tenses

[> LEG 9.43-44]

Study:

1 We often use the future perfect simple with by and not ...till/until [> 7.3B] to show that an action will already be completed by a certain time in the future.

We use it with verbs which point to completion, like complete, finish and retire:

I will have retired by the year 2020. I won't have retired till the year 2020.

2 We often use the future perfect progressive with verbs like learn, lie, live, rain, sit, wait and work which naturally suggest continuity [> 7.3B, 9.5B, 9.6B] to say that what is in progress now will be in progress in the future:

By this time next week, I will have been working on this book for a year.

Write: Supply the future perfect simple or progressive. Note where both are possible.

- 1 They will have completed the new bridge by the end of the year. (complete)
- 2 By the end of this week, I seventeen weeks for my phone to be repaired. (wait)
- 3 Do you realize that on August 15, we in this house for fifty years? (live)
- 4 I hope I this report by the end of the day. (finish)
- 5 She for work before the children get home from school. (leave)
- 6 We non-stop for fourteen hours before we get to Calcutta. (fly)
- 7 They work on the great dam by the end of this decade. (complete)
- 8 Radio waves from earth for light years before anyone picks them up. (travel)

Write: Put in the simple future, the future progressive or the future perfect simple.

FLYING JUNK

By the middle of the 21st century we (build) ¹ will have built space stations which (circle) ² the earth and (probably circle) ³ the moon, too. We (establish) ⁴ bases on planets like Mars. At present, we use radar to 'watch' nearly 8,000 objects in space. In addition, there are at least 30,000 bits of rubbish from the size of marbles to the size of basket balls flying round the earth. These (increase) ⁵ in number by the year 2050 and (orbit) ⁶ the earth. All these bits and pieces are watched by NORAD (North American Radar Defence Command). NORAD (have) ⁷ more and more rubbish to watch as the years go by. Some bits fall back to earth, like the Russian satellite C954, which crashed in the Northern Territories of Canada in 1978. Crashing junk could give us a bad headache. Most of the stuff (stay) ⁸ up there (we hope)! The sad fact is that we who are alive today (not clear up) ⁹ our own junk tomorrow. Perhaps we (just watch) ¹⁰ from some other (safe) place as it goes round and round the earth!

Perhaps we'll be watching ...

9.9 'Going to' and other ways of expressing the future

9.9A Uses of the 'going to'-future compared with 'will' [> LEG 9.44-46]

Study:

There are three basic uses of the 'going to'-future:

- 1 Predictions: We often use going to to predict the future, especially when we can see something that is about to happen: Look out! She's going to faint. (Not will*!)
Or we can describe something which we know will take place in the future:
Angus and Margaret are going to be married in May.
- 2 Intentions: We often use going to rather than will in informal style:
I'm going to practice the piano for two hours this evening.
I'm going to be successful one day.
- 3 Planned actions: We use going to like the present progressive or future progressive:
We're going to spend the winter in Australia.
Or: We're spending the winter in Australia. [> 9.2B]
Or: We'll be spending the winter in Australia. [> 9.8A]
- 4 We use will when we decide to do something at the moment of speaking:
We're lost. I'll stop and ask the way. (= I've just decided to do this.)

Write:

Supply be going to or 'll in this dialogue.

Situation: Mr Sims is driving. His wife is sitting beside him.

- HE: Where (we spend) ¹ are we going to spend the night?
SHE: Cardiff. I've booked us in at the Angel Hotel. Why do you ask?

before we get there. I (stop) ³ at the next filling-station.
Half an hour later.
SHE: This road goes on forever.
HE: We (get) ⁴ stuck. The car's stopping. We (have to)

SHE: Come on then. Perhaps someone (give) ⁶ us a lift.
HE: Not a filling-station in sight and look at those black clouds. It

SHE: Look! A car's coming. I (wave) ⁸ to the driver.
HE: Oh good!. He's slowing down. He (stop) ⁹

9.9B 'am/is/are to', 'be about to', 'be due to' [> LEG 9.47-48]

9.9C The future-in-the-past [> LEG 9.49-50]

Study:

Sometimes we want to refer to events which were 'destined' or planned to take place in the past ('the future-in-the-past'). We use was going to, was about to, was to and was due to. We use these forms for:

- events we couldn't foresee: They didn't know they were to be reunited ten years later.
- events which were interrupted: We were just going to leave, when Jean had an accident.

We also use would for 'destiny' in story-telling:

They had already reached 9,000 feet. Soon they would reach the top.

Write: Supply suitable 'future-in-the-past' forms.

- 1 I was to meet them at the station at 4, but I was held up in the traffic.
- 2 She phone later, but she must have completely forgotten.
- 3 She was still young. She didn't realize she be world famous before she was 20.

THE ADVENTURES OF ORLIK

The plane had been privately hired to transport Orlik the bull from one part of the country to the other. 'What (do) are we to do with him, sir?' the co-pilot asked. 'We (deliver)² him to a farm in Wales,' the captain said. 'I (just check)³ the wooden crate,' the co-pilot said. A few minutes later, he reported that it looked safe. 'I've just heard from Ground Control,' the pilot said. 'Our flight (be)⁴ due in ten minutes. We (take off)⁵ from Runway Number 7.' Little did both men know how dramatic their flight (be)⁶ They couldn't have imagined that when they were in the air, Orlik the bull (break)⁷ loose from his crate and smash his way into the flight cabin! 'I (take over)⁸ , sir!' the co-pilot cried as the captain grabbed Orlik's nose-ring and pulled him away. The co-pilot made an emergency landing in a field. Both men jumped to safety, while Orlik crashed about inside the tiny plane, smashing everything to pieces!

9.10 The imperative

9.10A Some uses of the imperative to express different functions [> LEG 9.51-2]

Study:

- 1 We don't use the imperative just for 'giving orders'. We can use it e.g. for:
 - offering: Have another sandwich.
 - prohibiting: Do not walk on the grass.
 - directing: Take the next turning left.
 - warning: Look out! A bus is coming!
- 2 We can make an imperative more polite or more urgent with Do. Compare:
 - ordinary imperative: Help yourself!
 - polite imperative: Do help yourself!
 - negative imperative: Don't help yourself!

Write: Make these imperatives more polite or more urgent.

- 1 Have a cup of coffee. Do have a cup of coffee.
- 2 Make yourself at home.
- 3 Stop talking!
- 4 Hurry!
- 5 Try and ring us.
- 6 Help me with this letter.

9.10B The imperative to address particular people [> LEG 9.54]

Study:

- 1 When we say e.g. Wait here! we might be addressing one person or several. We are really saying 'You (singular or plural) wait here!'
- 2 If we want to speak to someone in particular, we can:
 - add you (unstressed) for an instruction: You wait here for a moment. (= I want you to)
 - add you (stressed) to express annoyance: You keep quiet!
 - use you with (or without) a name: You wait here, Henry. Or: Henry, you wait here.
 - add yourself/yourself to verbs like help, enjoy, behave: Help yourself!
- 3 If we are talking to groups of people, we can use the imperative with:
 - everybody: Everybody keep quiet. Keep quiet, everybody.
 - somebody/nobody: Somebody answer the phone! Nobody say a word!
 - Don't .. anybody: Don't say a word, anybody! Don't anybody say a word!

- 8 Have a short break!
- 9 Don't move!
- 10 (John) Post these letters!
- 11 Don't listen to her!
- 12 Enjoy (children)!

9.10C The imperative with question tags [> LEG 9.55]

Study:

We can make a request [> 11.6D] by adding a 'tag' like will you? to an imperative:

- 1 We add will you?/won't you?/can't you? to express annoyance: Stop shouting, will you?
 - 2 We add would you?/could/can you? for neutral requests: Post this for me, would you?
 - 3 We add will you?/won't you? for friendly offers: Take a seat, will you?
- We show our feelings not just by adding a tag, but through stress and intonation.

Write: Rewrite each request as an imperative + tag.

- 1 Will you stop whistling? Stop whistling, will you?
- 2 Can't you do something useful?
- 3 Won't you stop asking questions?
- 4 Could you post this letter?
- 5 Would you hold this bag?
- 6 Can you get me some stamps?
- 7 Won't you come in?
- 8 Will you take a seat?

9.10D Double imperatives joined by 'and' [> LEG 9.56]

Study:

When we have two imperatives together, we join them with and (Not to*):

Go and buy yourself a new pair of shoes. (Not Go to buy*)

The only exception is try. We can say: Try and help or Try to help.

Write: Write double imperatives joined by and with the following.

- 1 Come/see Come and see us soon.
- 2 Try/lift it
- 3 Sit here/wait
- 4 Wait/see

The walls are covered with advice. IF IN DOUBT ⁴..... ME! ⁵..... MAKING MISTAKES! ⁶..... ME FIRST! ⁷..... TIME! We have learnt to ignore this advice, but lately notices have begun to appear in every part of the building. We have a small kitchen at the back where we make coffee. Yesterday there was a new notice over the kitchen sink. It said: ⁸..... I was pleased to see it wasn't long before someone added another notice under it which said THOAP!

10 Be, Have, Do

10.1 'Be' as a full verb (1)

10.1A Some uses of the imperative of 'be': 'Be careful!' [> LEG 10.1, 10.5, App 41]

Study:

- 1 Be is a 'helping' (or auxiliary) verb when it 'helps' other verbs, for example to form the present or past progressive [> 9.2B, 9.4B]: He is reading. He was sleeping.
- 2 Be is a full verb when we use it with nouns (She's a teacher) or adjectives (She's tall).
- 3 Be + noun or adjective in the imperative has limited uses.
We use be with nouns to mean 'act like': Be a dear and answer the phone!
or to mean 'become': Be a better cook! or 'pretend to be': Be a monster, granddad!
Don't be is more common: Don't be silly! Don't be a fool!
- 4 We use be only with adjectives that describe 'passing behaviour':
Be + careful, patient, quiet, etc. Don't be + careless, impatient, silly, etc.
But not with adjectives which describe 'states', like hungry, thirsty, pretty.

Write 1: Rephrase the words in italics using be.

- 1 Act like an angel and fetch my newspaper, please. Be an angel!
- 2 Don't act like a silly idiot!
- 3 The advertisement said: 'Become the proud owner of a new sports car!'
- 4 Don't become a writer. You'll regret it.
- 5 You play the part of Batman and I'll pretend to be Robin.

Write 2: Using (Do) be ... or Don't be ..., what would you say to these people? Write two sentences for each, choosing from: afraid, brave, careful, careless, critical, friendly, generous, mean, noisy, quiet.

- 1 Some children who are making a lot of noise. (Do) be quiet!
- 2 Someone who has just broken a cup.
- 3 A friend who refuses to give any money to charity.
- 4 A friend who is always criticizing other people.
- 5 Someone who is afraid of going to the dentist.

10.1B The use of 'aren't' [> LEG 10.7n.3]

Study:

The full form Am I not is rare. We use Aren't I ... ? (Not Amn't I*!) in:

- negative questions: Am I not late? → Aren't I late?
- negative Wh-questions: Why am I not invited? → Why aren't I invited?
- negative question tag: I'm late, am I not? → I'm late, aren't I? [> 13.3]

We use aren't I only in negative questions and negative question tags, never in negative statements: I am not late. → I'm not late. (Not I aren't late)

Write: Supply negative forms of be.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1 You aren't cold, are you? | 5 We're late again, we? |
| 2 I'm right, I? | 6 They're French, they? |
| 3 You're American, you? | 7 He angry, was he? |
| 4 She's here already, she? | 8 You were early, you? |

10.1C 'Be' in the simple present and simple past [> LEG 10.6-9]

Study:

In the simple present and simple past we use be as a full verb with nouns and adjectives. Be careful of instances when English makes use of be where other languages sometimes don't. For example: I am hungry (Not I have hunger), It's cold (Not It makes cold)

Write: Supply am, is, are, was, were or weren't.

We use the progressive forms (he is being/he was being) with adjectives that describe 'passing behaviour' like naughty and silly [> 10.1A], not states, like hungry and thirsty. We often imply that this behaviour is deliberate: He is being naughty. We can use the progressive of be with a few nouns as well: He's being a (silly) fool.

Write: Tick the temporary behaviour in these sentences.

The rules for the present and past perfect apply to have been and had been [> 9.5-6]. The actions or states begin in the past and continue into the present (have been) or they refer to an earlier past (had been). We use was/were when we have a time reference:

- behaviour/states/moods: She's been very quiet. I said she had been very quiet.
- the weather: It's been very cold lately. I said it had been very cold lately.
- professions, behaviour: Have you ever been a teacher? She has been a real angel.

Compare: The baby was very quiet while you were out. (the past + exact time reference)

Write: Supply has, have or had.

NOT A MAN OF STRAW!

Our neighbour, Mr French, ¹ has (got) ... a very large farm and he ² trouble with birds all his life. Birds eat his vegetable crops and cost him a lot of money, so Mr French has just bought a computerized scarecrow called Worzel. Worzel is more than two metres tall and ³ four legs. He ⁴ a round head and arms that swing from right to left. ⁵ Worzel any success?' I asked Mr French recently as I watched him ⁶ a walk in a vegetable field. 'He ⁷ a tremendous effect on birds,' Mr French said. 'Come and ⁸ a look at him. An ordinary scarecrow ⁹ a head full of straw, but Worzel ¹⁰ a brain!' Just then I heard a loud moan and saw a blinding flash. 'You ¹¹ (not) a dream,' Mr French said. 'He does this to frighten the birds!' Of course, there wasn't a bird in sight! 'I must leave now, Mr French,' I said as I saw Worzel coming towards me. 'I ¹² an appointment.' 'He's harmless,' Mr French said, but I wasn't going to wait to find out!

I saw Worzel coming towards me!

10.7 'Do' as a full verb

10.7A Forms and uses of 'do' as an auxiliary and as a full verb [> LEG 10.40-44]

11 Modal auxiliaries and related verbs

11.1 The two uses of modal verbs

11.1A The first use of modal verbs (1) [> LEG 11.1-2]

Study:

1 Verbs like can and may are modal auxiliaries. We often refer to them as modal verbs or just modals. We use them with other verbs [> 16.1A], for example, to ask for permission:

Can I use your phone, please? May I borrow your car, please?

There are ten modals: can, could, may, might, will, would, shall, should, must, ought to and three 'semi-modals': need, dare and used to.

2 In their first use, modal verbs have basic meanings which are given in dictionaries:

- | | |
|--|---|
| – can/could (= ability): | I can lift 25 kg./I can type. |
| – may/might (= permission): | You may leave early. |
| – will/would (= prediction): | It will rain soon. [> 9.7] |
| – shall after I/We (= prediction): | Will we find our way? – I'm sure we shall. |
| – should/ought to (= duty): | You should do as you're told. |
| – must (= total obligation): | You must be quiet. |
| – needn't (= no obligation): | You needn't wait. |

Write: What do these sentences express? Match A and B.

A

- 1 I can type twenty-five words a minute. c
- 2 You should do as you're told. ____
- 3 You needn't wait. ____
- 4 It will rain soon. ____
- 5 You may leave now if you want to. ____
- 6 You must be quiet. ____

B

- a) prediction
- b) permission
- c) ability
- d) no obligation
- e) total obligation
- f) duty

11.1B The first use of modal verbs (2) [> LEG 11.4, 11.6.1]

Study:

1 Modal verbs are not 'complete verbs'. For example, we use verbs like must and can to refer only to the present or the future:

I must go to the bank now. I must go to the bank tomorrow.

This means we have to make up the 'missing parts' of must with have to.

So if we want to express the past of must, we say: I had to go to the bank yesterday.

In the same way, we use be able to to make up the 'missing parts' of can [> 11.2A,C].

2 Other important points about modal verbs:

We can't use them as to-infinitives: I want to be able to type very fast. (Not to can*)

We do not use the to-infinitive after modals: You must/mustn't phone. (Not to phone*) [> 16.1A]

There's no -(e)s in the 3rd person singular: The boss can see you now. (No -s on can)

Write: Use suitable forms of have to only when it is impossible to use must.

- 1 You take a taxi if you intend to catch the next train.
- 2 Since the new boss took over, we*have had to*.... change our working methods.
- 3 We talk about this again tomorrow.

- 4 If you bring up a large family, you wouldn't have had so much money to spend.
- 5 I was late for work this morning because I go to the bank first.
- 6 I (not) speak French since I was at school.
- 7 I hate wait for people who don't know how to keep appointments. [> 16.8B]
- 8 He get up early tomorrow morning if he wants to see the sunrise.

11.1C The second use of modal verbs [> LEG 11.3-4, 11.8]

Study:

- 1 The second way we use modals is to express degrees of certainty or uncertainty. We use nine of the modals for this purpose (not shall), but we don't use them in a fixed order. We express the greatest uncertainty with might, the greatest certainty with must/can't.
He might be right. He might know the answer. (very uncertain)
He could be right. He would know the answer. (fairly certain)
He must be right. He must know the answer. (almost certain)
He can't be right. He can't know the answer. (almost certain)

We use be or an ordinary verb, not a modal, for 'absolute certainty' [> 10.4A, 11.4A]:
You are right. You know the answer. (certain)

- 2 In their second use, modals have only two forms:
 – present form: He must be right. He must know the answer. (now)
 – perfect or past form: He must have been right. He must have known the answer. (then)

Write: Put 'certain', 'almost certain', 'fairly certain' or 'very uncertain' beside these sentences.

- 1 The phone's ringing. It's Roland. certain
- 2 The phone's ringing. It might be Roland.
- 3 A car is parking outside our house. That will be the Kennedys.
- 4 A car is parking outside our house. That must be the Kennedys.
- 5 From your description, the person you met would have been my cousin, Jeff.
- 6 From your description, the person you met can't have been my cousin Jeff.
- 7 If I have understood you correctly, Jeff should be my second cousin.
- 8 Are you saying it mightn't be possible for me to get a visa to visit the USA?
- 9 If he spent five years in America, he must speak English, I suppose.

11.1D Context

Write: Put in am, can, can't, couldn't, have had to, haven't been able to, may, must, must be or must have.

Remember me?

REMEMBER ME?

There was a knock at the door. I opened it and saw a stranger. 'Hullo, Fred,' he cried. '1... May/Can I come in?' 'How do you know my name?' I asked. 'We met ten years ago on a ferry-boat and you gave me your card.' 'You 2..... mistaken,' I said. 'No, I 3..... not,' the stranger said. He produced my card: Fred Ames. I 4..... given it to him ten years ago, but I 5..... remember it! 'I 6..... remember you,' I said. 'We exchanged cards years ago,' the stranger said. 'You said, "You 7..... come and stay with us for as long as you like any time you're in England." I'm sorry I 8..... wait so many years before coming to visit you. I've been so busy, I 9....., but here I am at last! Better late than never! I've just arrived on the ferry. My wife and children are in the car and we wonder if we 10..... stay with you for a month.'

11.2 Uses of modals (etc.) to express ability and inability

11.2A Expressing present and past ability: 'can' and 'be able to' [> LEG 11.10-12]

Study:

- 1 We can use can (or sometimes am/is/are able to) to describe natural or learned ability:
I can (I am able to) run 1500 metres in 5 minutes. (natural ability)
I can't (I am not able to/I am unable to) drive. (learned ability)
- 2 We can use could, couldn't or was/were (not) able to to describe 'general ability in the past':
I could (I was able to) run very fast when I was a boy. (i.e. general ability)
- 3 We use was/were able to or managed to (Not could*) to describe the successful completion of a specific action:
We were able to (we managed to) get tickets for the match yesterday. (Not could*)
- 4 However, we can use couldn't to describe a specific action not successfully completed:
We couldn't get tickets for the match yesterday. Or:
We weren't able to/didn't manage to get tickets for the match yesterday.

Write: Supply can, can't, could, couldn't, was/were able to, managed to. Alternatives are possible.

11.2B 'Can/could' with verbs of perception: 'I can see' [> LEG 9.3, 11.13, App 38.4]

Study:

- 1 Verbs of perception are verbs like see, hear, smell, etc. [> 9.1C]
- 2 When we are describing something that is happening now, we do not use the progressive with these verbs: I see a bird in that tree. (Not I'm seeing*)
- 3 We often use can + verb in place of the simple present with verbs of perception:
I can see a bird in that tree. (= I see) Can you see it? (= Do you see)
 We often use could + verb in place of the simple past with verbs of perception:
I looked up, but couldn't see anything. (= didn't see)

Write: Rewrite these sentences using can, can't, could or couldn't.

- 1 Do you see that man over there? Can you see that man over there?

- 6 I didn't understand what he said.

11.2C Ability in tenses other than the present and the past [> LEG 11.16]

Study:

11.3 Uses of modals (etc.) to express permission and prohibition

11.3A Asking for permission with 'can', 'could', 'may' and 'might' [> LEG 11.20-22]

Study:

We use can, could, may and might to ask for permission, depending on the situation.

- 1 Can is the commonest and most informal: Can I borrow your umbrella (please)?
- 2 Could is more polite than can: Could I borrow your umbrella (please)?
- 3 May is more 'respectful' than can and could: May I borrow your umbrella (please)?
- 4 Might is the most polite but the least common: Might I borrow your umbrella (please)?
- 5 We can add possibly and use expressions like Do you think and I wonder if to make requests even more polite:
Can/Could/May/Might I possibly borrow your umbrella?
Do you think I could/Do you think I might (possibly) borrow your umbrella?
I wonder if I could/I wonder if I might (possibly) borrow your umbrella?

Write: Make suitable requests for permission in these situations.

- 2 An 'uncertain' question may produce a 'certain' answer:
Can he still be working? – Yes, he is.
- 3 We use be and have been to answer questions with be:
Is he ill? – He may be. Was he ill? – He may have been. (Not he may)

OLDER AND WISER?

We make decisions all the time, but we ¹.....can..... never be certain whether we are right or wrong. The work you choose to do ²..... be suitable for you or it ³..... not. The person you marry ⁴..... be a perfect match or ⁵..... be the worst possible choice. Suppose you have saved money for the future. You ⁶..... invest it wisely so that it grows in value or you ⁷..... lose the lot in a foolish moment. You think you have a healthy diet, but the food you eat ⁸..... actually be very bad for you and ⁹..... be the cause of terrible illness. Perhaps you travel a lot by plane. All the flights you make are routine, but one of them ¹⁰..... be your last. Decisions! Decisions! But we don't learn from experience. Experience is the quality that allows us to go on making the same mistakes with more confidence!

Decisions! Decisions!

Most parents (their children not decide) ¹ would rather their children didn't decide to join the acting profession because it is so hard to earn a living. They (their children choose) ² secure, well-paid jobs. But if you ask actors themselves, they always tell you there is nothing they (do) ³ An actor is a person who (be) ⁴ a different man or woman. An actor (talk, walk, and behave) ⁵ like someone else. That's what acting is about. Many actors (be called) ⁶ something other than their real names. The great American comic actor Claude William Dukenfield (be called) ⁷ W.C. Fields, which was the name he adopted when he became an actor. Fields was eccentric and (live) ⁸ in a world in which there were no dogs or children. He used to wear a funny top hat and carry a walking-stick. He loved to pretend to be other people in real life as well. He opened bank accounts all over America using comic names. He died in 1946 and the epitaph he wrote for his tombstone clearly expressed a healthy preference for life: 'On the whole, I (be) ⁹ in Philadelphia!'

You should see a doctor. You ought to vote in the next election.
(= That's my advice, but ignore it if you want to.)

11.11 Modals to express habit: 'used to', 'will' and 'would'

11.11A The form of 'used to' [> LEG 11.59]

Study:

- 1 Used to is a simple past form only. If you want to say 'I am in the habit of', you must use the simple present [> 9.1B]: I get up early every day. (Not I use to get up early)
- 2 We often use do and did + use (Not used) to form questions and negatives:
Did you use to smoke? I didn't use to smoke. (Not Did you used to? *I didn't used to?)
We also use never to form the negative: I never used to smoke. (Used not to is rare.)
- 3 Note the use of did: He used to live in Manchester, didn't he? (rather than usedn't he?)
Did you use to live here? – Yes, I did./No, I didn't. He used to live here and so did I.

Write: Supply the missing forms in the following.

- 1 She used to be a singer, didn't she?

- 8 You (not/used to) eat so much.

11.11B Uses of 'used to' [> LEG 11.60-62]

Study:

- 1 We use the simple past or used to to refer to past habit.
We need a time reference with the simple past [> 9.3C], but not with used to:
I collected stamps when I was a child. I used to collect stamps (when I was a child).
(Not I was collecting stamps when I was a child [> 9.4B])
- 2 We use used to to make a contrast between past and present with expressions like:
but now ..., but not any more, but not any longer:
I used to eat a large breakfast, but I don't any longer.
- 3 Used to can also refer to past states:
She used to be very punctual (but she isn't any more).

Write: Fill in the blanks with forms of used to or the past progressive (e.g. was living).

- 1 We used to go for long walks in the country when my father was alive. (go)

11.11C 'Would' in place of 'used to' and in place of the simple past [> LEG 11.61]

Study:

When we are 'remembering the past', we sometimes use would in place of used to.

First we set the scene with used to, then we continue with would:

When I was a boy we always spent/used to spend our holidays on a farm. We would get up at 5 and we'd help milk the cows. Then we'd return to the kitchen for breakfast.

Write:

Underline instances where we could use would in place of the simple past or used to.

From the time he was very young, Gerald used to spend all his spare time collecting birds, animals and insects of all kinds. Every morning he used to get up early and go first to the beach. There he caught small crabs and sometimes small fishes, which he put into a large jar and took home with him. On the way, he always used to go to an ruined fisherman's cottage where he was often lucky enough to find some unusual insect that he had never seen before.

11.11D 'Will/would' to describe 'usual behaviour' [> LEG 11.63-64]

Study:

We sometimes use will in place of the simple present [> 9.1B] and would in place of the simple past [> 9.3C] to refer to a person's 'usual behaviour':

In fine weather he will often sit in the sun for hours. (= he often sits)

As he grew old, he would often talk about his war experiences. (= he often talked)

11.12 'Need' and 'dare' as modals and as full verbs

11.12A 'Need' as a modal and as a full verb [> LEG 11.49]

Study:

- 1 We use need as a modal (without to after it) mainly in the negative to mean 'it isn't necessary' [> 11.10B-C]: I needn't go to the meeting today. I needn't have gone to the meeting yesterday.
- 2 In the affirmative, we use need as a modal:
 - in questions: Need you go so soon? Need you have told him the truth?
 - with 'negative adverbs' (e.g. hardly): I need hardly tell you how important this is.
- 3 Otherwise, we generally use the full verb need to (used like any regular verb):
I need to/I don't need to/I needed to/I didn't need to go to the dentist this morning.

Write: Replace the phrases in italics with modal need or the full verb need to.

11.12B The form of 'dare' as a modal and as a full verb [> LEG 11.65-66]

- 1 We use dare as a modal (that is, without to after it) mainly in the negative to express lack of courage: I daren't tell him the truth. I daren't ask for more money.
- 2 In the affirmative, we use dare as a modal:
 - in questions: Dare you do it?
 - with 'negative adverbs' (e.g. hardly): I hardly dare tell him what happened.

- 9 They offered me something strange to eat which I refuse.

11.12C Uses of 'dare' [> LEG 11.67-69]

Study:

We use dare in four ways to express:

- 1 courage: Very few climbers have dared (to) attempt Mount Everest without oxygen.
Dare (to) is in the affirmative here, and this use is relatively rare.
- 2 lack of courage: I don't dare (to) tell the children that our holiday has been cancelled.
This use of dare (to), in the negative, is the most common.
- 3 challenge: I dare you to jump off that wall. (Not I dare you jump)
We use dare only as a full verb with to for challenging. We use it in the affirmative and negative like any other verb. 'Challenging' is common in the language of children.
- 4 outrage: How dare you read my private diary! (Not How dare you to read)
We use dare only as a modal without to when expressing outrage.

Write: What do the sentences below express? Choose a, b, c, or d:

UNWELCOME FRESH AIR!

It was a routine flight from Hilo on Hawaii to Kahului 110 miles away. Suddenly, there was a tremendous noise and the top of the plane was torn away! Ninety-four passengers (not move) ¹ dared not move, wondering what would happen next. They (not worry) ² because Robert Schornsteimer, the pilot, was firmly in control. For 25 minutes they hardly (breathe) ³, though there was plenty of unwelcome fresh air! 'I (not open) ⁴ my mouth,' one of the passengers said later. 'I hardly (tell) ⁵ you how terrified I was.' The passengers embraced the pilot who had brought the plane down safely. 'I've heard of a plane flying off a roof,' joked one of them later, 'but never of a roof flying off a plane!'

Plenty of unwelcome fresh air!

11.13A 'Would' and 'wouldn't' in place of the simple present tense or 'will' future [> LEG 11.74.2]

We often use would and wouldn't in place of the simple present (and sometimes in place of will/won't) when we want to sound less definite, or when we want to be very polite:

That seems to be a good idea. → That would seem to be a good idea.

11.13B 'That ... should' after verbs like 'suggest' [> LEG 11.75, App 45.3]

- with the simple present: I suggest that he applies/he doesn't apply for the job.
- with the 'subjunctive': I suggest that he apply/not apply for the job.

Note on the 'subjunctive': In the 'subjunctive', the base form of the verb (be, go, run, etc.) remains the same in all persons. The present form is rare in British English:

I suggest you go/he go/they go (etc.) go to the meeting tomorrow.

The subjunctive form were is used in all persons in the past [> 11.7B, 14.2B].

Write: a Supply suitable verb forms in these sentences.

12.2 Uses of the passive

12.2A Uses of the passive [> LEG 12.1, 12.4.1-3]

Study:

- 1 The passive is not just a different form of the active. It has its own uses and is very common in English. It would be hard to think of the active forms of sentences like:
Rome wasn't built in a day. The origin of the universe will never be explained.
- 2 We use the passive mainly in three ways:
 - when we don't want to take responsibility for something:
The matter will be dealt with soon. (We don't know or want to say who'll deal with it.)
 - when we want to focus on a happening, not who or what did it:
Our roof was damaged in last night's storm. (We're concerned about the roof.)
 - when we want to avoid 'vague subjects' like one, someone, they, etc.:
The form has to be signed. (Not Someone/One has to sign the form.*)
English spoken. (Not One speaks English) Shoes repaired. (Not One repairs shoes)

Write:

Supply suitable active and passive forms in these sentences using the verbs in brackets. Some variations in tenses may be possible.

- 1 It isn't clear how far the ozone layer (damage) has been damaged by aerosol sprays. It may be possible to tell whether the hole over the Antarctic (widen) has widened after the area (investigate) has been investigated by high-flying planes.
- 2 These days, even the most remote places on earth (visit) by tourists. Package tours (can/arrange) for almost anywhere, from the Himalayas to the Amazonian jungle.
- 3 Notices such as (English/Speak) and (Shoes/Repair) are common. Sometimes they (translate) into different languages for the benefit of tourists.
- 4 We (constantly remind) of the way the world (become) smaller when events taking place in different parts of the globe (flash) on our television screens.
- 5 If you (involve) in a car accident and someone (hurt), you (have to) report the matter to the police. If only the vehicles (damage), drivers should exchange names and addresses.

12.2B The use of 'by' + agent (= 'doer') after a passive [> LEG 12.5]

Study:

- 1 We use by only when we need to say who or what is responsible for an event:
The window was broken last night. (We don't know or want to say who or what did it.)
The window was broken by a slate that fell off the roof. (We wish to give information.)
- 2 We often use by + agent with the passive of verbs like build, compose, damage, design, destroy, discover, invent, make and write to identify who or what is/was responsible:
Who designed St Paul's? – It was designed by Christopher Wren.

Write:

Supply passive forms with by + agent where necessary.

- 1 When Jasper Morgan died his collection of pictures (sell) was sold to raise enough money to pay his taxes. Tremendous interest in the sale (show/the general public) was shown by the general public
- 2 The music that (compose/Beethoven) towards the end of his life is very different from his early music. The music (write) in extremely difficult conditions.
- 3 Many beautiful old buildings in cities (replace/modern ones) If this replacement (not control), it isn't very long before a city loses its character.

12.2C The passive with verbs of 'saying' and 'believing': 'It is said (that) ...'

[> LEG 12.8]

Study:

We need to be sure of our facts when we say: e.g. He was a spy in World War II.

If we are not sure of our facts, we can express caution by saying:

It is said (that) he was a spy in World War II./He was said to be a spy in World War II.

We can express caution in three ways, with:

- 1 It (+ passive + that-clause) with e.g. agree, believe, consider, decide, hope, know, say.
It is said (that) there is plenty of oil off our own coast.
- 2 There (+ passive + to be) with e.g. allege, believe, fear, know, report, say, suppose, think.
There is said to be plenty of oil off our own coast.
- 3 Subject (not it) (+ passive + to-infinitive) with e.g. allege, believe, consider, know, say.
Jane is said to know all there is to know about chimpanzees.

Write: Begin these sentences with It, There or a name/a noun + passive construction.

- 1 It is expected that prices will rise again this month. (expect)
- 2 that all the passengers had died in the crash. (fear)
- 3 to be an expert in financial matters. (suppose)
- 4 to have committed the crime. (think)
- 5 that the sea level is rising. (think)
- 6 to be a lot of coal in the Antarctic. (think)
- 7 to be honest and reliable. (consider)
- 8 to be thousands of people waiting to renew their passports. (say)
- 9 that thousands of new jobs will be created in the computer industry. (say)
- 10 to be a fall in house prices, but I haven't noticed it. (suppose)

12.2D Context

Write: Use the correct tenses and passive forms of the verbs in brackets.

FISHY TALES

Mermaids (see) ¹~~have been seen~~ by sailors for centuries. The basis of all mermaid myths (suppose) ² to be a creature called a Manatee: a kind of walrus! Mermaids used (to show) ³ in funfairs until recently. It all began in 1817 when a 'mermaid' (buy) ⁴ for $6,000 by a sailor in the South Pacific. She (eventually sell) ⁵ to the great circus-owner Barnum. She (exhibit) ⁶ in 1842 as 'The Feejee Mermaid'. It (say) ⁷ that she earned Barnum $1,000 a week! The thousands who saw this mermaid (must/disappoint) ⁸ She (cleverly make) ⁹ by a Japanese fisherman. A monkey's head (delicately sew) ¹⁰ to the tail of a large salmon. The job (so skilfully do) ¹¹ that the join between the fish and the monkey was invisible. Real imagination (must/require) ¹² to see this revolting creature as a beautiful mermaid combing her golden hair!

A beautiful mermaid?

12.3 Form and use of the causative

12.3A Form of the causative: 'have something done' [> LEG 12.10-11]

Study:

- Note the difference between these two sentences:
I had built a house. (past perfect tense = 'I did it myself' [> 9.6A])
I had a house built. (the causative = 'I arranged for it to be done' [> 12.3B])
- We form: the causative with have + noun or pronoun object + past participle.
 We use the causative in different tenses and with modals:
*I am having a house built. I had a house built. I have had a house built.
 I will have a house built. I must have a house built. I can't have a house built. etc.*

Write: Complete these sentences with the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

- They've just had their living room decorated (decorate)
- Your car engine sounds dreadful. You ought to have it (look at)
- Have you had your eyes recently? (test)
- He's going to have his hair at the weekend. (cut)
- Can I have this letter , please? (photocopy)
- This letter is so important, I'm going to have it by a lawyer. (write)

12.3B The causative compared with the active and passive [> LEG 12.12]

Study:

- We use the active to describe jobs we do ourselves or when we know who's doing a job:
I'm servicing the car. Jack is servicing the car.
- We use the passive to say that a job is being done for us, but we don't know or don't want to say who is doing it:
The car is being serviced. (We're focusing on the car [> 12.2A])
- We use the causative to stress the fact that we are 'causing' someone to do a job for us:
I'm having the car serviced. I have had my car serviced. I'm going to have my hair cut.
 Not I'm going to cut my hair which means 'I'm going to cut it myself'. [compare > 16.2B]
 We often use the causative with verbs that have to do with services: e.g. build, clean, decorate, develop (a film), mend, photocopy, press, print, repair, service.

Write 1: Supply the correct forms of the verbs in brackets.

- What are you doing? – I 'm cleaning the car. (clean)
- Where's your car? – It at the moment. I'll collect it in an hour. (clean)
- I never find time to clean the car myself, so I (clean)
- Did you decorate the room yourselves? – No, we (decorate)
- We can't use the living room. It at the moment. (decorate)
- You They look quite worn. (must/repair your shoes)
- My shoes It was an expensive job! (just repair)

- Who the children's clothes, in this house? – Who do you think? I do! (mend)
- What's happened to my report? – It at the moment. (photocopy)

Write 2: Today is Wednesday. Look at the notes Maria wrote yesterday and early today. Then write:
a what she had done yesterday; b what she is having done today;
c what she is going to have done tomorrow.

Tuesday best skirt cleaned
 two trees planted car serviced

Wednesday (today) eyes tested
 a film developed some furniture delivered

Thursday
 a tooth extracted
 two teeth filled hair done

- 1a She had her best skirt cleaned yesterday.
 b She's having her eyes tested today.
 c She's going to have a tooth extracted tomorrow.
 2a
 c 3a
 c

12.3C 'Get' in the causative: 'get something done' [> LEG 12.11, 12.13]

Study:

We sometimes use get in place of have in the causative to say something is urgent:
Have that car repaired! (causative) Get that car repaired! (more urgent causative)

Write: Use get in place of have in these sentences.

- 1 I must have I must get this report photocopied and sent off straightaway.
 2 They're finally having their central heating repaired.
 3 We'll be having the job done by a local builder.
 4 Why don't you have that suit cleaned? It's filthy!
 5 Have your hair cut!

12.3D Context

Write: Put in causative forms for the verbs in brackets.

CONSTANT MAINTENANCE!

The more you own, the more there is to go wrong. You invest in a new hi-fi system and in no time you have to (it repair) ¹ get it repaired. You (a new washing machine install) ² and you have to buy expensive insurance to maintain it. You buy a car and need to (it service) ³ regularly. You buy a camera and then spend a fortune (films develop and print) ⁴ It's not only things that need constant attention. How often we have to (our eyes test) ⁵, (our teeth fill) ⁶ and (our chests X-ray) ⁷! But I had to smile last time I went to (my hair cut) ⁸ A bold notice in the window announced: 'All our customers promptly executed!' You certainly wouldn't need to (any jobs do) ⁹ after that!

... customers promptly executed!

13 Questions, answers, negatives

13.1 Yes/No questions, negative statements, Yes/No answers

13.1A Yes/No questions (expecting 'Yes' or 'No' in the answer) [> LEG 13.1-3]

Study:

- 1 We make Yes/No questions from statements. In the case of be, have (auxiliary) and modal verbs like can and must [> 11.1A] we do this by inversion, that is by putting be, have or can, etc. in front of the subject: He is leaving. → Is he leaving?
She can drive a bus. → Can she drive a bus?
- 2 With all other verbs, we form Yes/No questions with Do and Does in the simple present and Did in the simple past. The form of the verb is always the bare infinitive:
We turn left here. → Do we turn left here?
He works well. → Does he work well?
They arrived late. → Did they arrive late?

Write: You want to know if ... What do you say?

- | | |
|----------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 you're late. Am I late? | 9 she should be here. |
| 2 this is the London train. | 10 she could ask a question. |
| 3 your photos are ready. | 11 it will be fine tomorrow. |
| 4 John is working in the garden. | 12 my friend will be staying. |
| 5 the children are studying. | 13 they would like an invitation. |
| 6 Jane gives piano lessons. | 14 they often argue like that. |
| 7 Tony was enjoying himself. | 15 I run a mile every morning. |
| 8 they live in the south. | 16 Sheila went to the lecture. |

13.1B Negative statements [> LEG 13.2, 13.4]

Study:

- 1 When a sentence contains be, have, or a modal like can, we form the negative by putting not after the auxiliary: He is leaving. → He is not (He isn't or He's not) leaving.
He can leave. → He cannot (can't) leave.
- 2 With all other verbs we use do not (don't) and does not (doesn't) after the subject in the simple present and did not (didn't) after the subject in the past. The verb is always a bare infinitive:
We turn left here. → We do not (don't) turn left here.
He works well. → He does not (doesn't) work well.
They arrived late. → They did not (didn't) arrive late.

Write: Say 'no', disagree or contradict with full negative statements.

- | | |
|--|-------------------------------------|
| 1 Are you ready? No, I'm not ready. | 9 He can speak Russian. |
| 2 She's right. | 10 He'll be leaving soon. |
| 3 They're late. | 11 It would be a very good idea. |
| 4 You're being silly. | 12 It looks like rain. |
| 5 He's working in London. | 13 They always win. |
| 6 They're playing tennis. | 14 They missed the last lesson. |
| 7 I'm going to fail. | 15 She's always been good at sport. |
| 8 She was waiting for you. | 16 You've met her. |

13.1C Yes/No short answers [> LEG 13.5-7]

Study:

- When answering with Yes or No, we usually repeat the first word in the question:
Was James late? – Yes, he was./No, he wasn't.
Can he play chess? – Yes, he can./No, he can't.
 Note: Are you ...? – Yes, I am./No, I'm not. Were you ...? – Yes, I was./No, I wasn't.
 where we repeat the verb, but in a different form.
- We do not usually answer a Yes/No question in full:
Did James go out last night? – Yes, he did./No, he didn't.
 rather than 'Yes, he went out last night.' 'No, he didn't go out last night.'
 We do not usually answer a Yes/No question with just Yes or No:
Do you like dancing? – Yes, I do./No, I don't. Not Yes./No. which can sound rude.
- We can put a lot of expression into short answers and use them to give information, agree, disagree, confirm, etc. e.g.
Did you lock the back door? – Yes, I did./No, I didn't. It's hot. – Yes, it is./No, it isn't.

Write: Answer these questions with either Yes or No.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Are you ready? Yes, I am | 10 Should I go with them? |
| 2 Is she still at college? | 11 Will you be at the meeting? |
| 3 Are they on their way here? | 12 Would you do that if you were me? |
| 4 Are you still learning French? | 13 Does she still write to you? |
| 5 Is Carla applying for that job? | 14 Do you like curry? |
| 6 Are we staying at the same hotel? | 15 Did he tell you about the party? |
| 7 Are you going to help me? | 16 Has he finished yet? |
| 8 Was she joking? | 17 Have you ever eaten swordfish? |
| 9 Were they living there then? | 18 Has she been working here long? |

13.1D Context

Write: Put in suitable Yes/No questions, negatives or short answers.

GUESS WHAT!

Before setting out on holiday, the Weeks family sat in their car and went through their usual quiz.

MR WEEKS: (we/turn off) ¹ Did we turn off/Have we turned off the electricity?

MRS WEEKS: (Yes) ² I turned it off myself.

MR WEEKS: (all the taps off) ³?

JIMMY: (Yes) ⁴ I checked every one of them, dad.

SALLY: You (not remember) ⁵ my teddy-bear!

MRS WEEKS: (Yes) ⁶ darling. I packed him in your case.

MR WEEKS: (there any windows open) ⁷?

JIMMY: (No) ⁸ I shut them all, dad.

MRS WEEKS: (the front and back doors/lock) ⁹ ?

MR WEEKS: (Yes) ¹⁰ I've just locked them.

After they had been on the road for an hour, Mr Weeks suddenly turned pale and said, 'Guess what! I (not/got) ¹¹ my house keys. They're still in the back door!'

They're still in the back door!

13.2 Alternative negative forms and negative questions

13.2A Negative statements with 'negative adverbs': 'never', etc. [> LEG 13.8-10]

Study:

1 We can make negative or near-negative statements with adverbs like never, hardly, hardly ever, seldom and rarely [compare > 7.4A-B, 7.8C]. Never is more emphatic than not.

Compare: I don't drink coffee. (negative) with: I never drink coffee. (emphatic negative)

2 We can't use a negative adverb with a negative verb to make a 'double negative':

I can hardly recognize him. (Not I can't hardly recognize him.*)

Nobody phoned. (Not Nobody didn't phone.*)

This is especially true for no, any and their compounds [> 4.6B]:

I've got no time. → I haven't got any time.

I've seen no one/nobody. → I haven't seen anyone/anybody.

I've bought none of them. → I haven't bought any of them.

I've done nothing today. → I haven't done anything today.

I've been nowhere today. → I haven't been anywhere today.

Write: Make negative or near-negative statements using the adverbs in brackets.

- 1 I don't go to the cinema. (never) I never go to the cinema.
- 2 She doesn't watch TV. (hardly ever)
- 3 I can't get him on the phone. (seldom)
- 4 They didn't greet me. (barely)
- 5 We don't go out. (scarcely ever)
- 6 We can't wait till tomorrow. (hardly)
- 7 We don't see our neighbours. (rarely)
- 8 It's not worth the trouble. (scarcely)
- 9 I haven't bought any eggs. (no)
- 10 I didn't speak to anyone. (no one)
- 11 I don't want any of them. (none)
- 12 She didn't say anything. (nothing)
- 13 We didn't go anywhere. (nowhere)
- 14 Please don't tell anybody. (nobody)
- 15 She doesn't understand English. (hardly)

13.2B Cancelling what has just been said: 'No, not Wednesday' [> LEG 13.12]

Study:

We can cancel what we have just said with not.

See you Wednesday – no, not Wednesday, Thursday. (Not No Wednesday*)

Write: Cancel the following by referring to the words in italics.

- 1 Ask Diana. (No, not Diana, Josephine.)
- 2 I'll see you at 5.
- 3 The plane leaves from London.
- 4 The film you want to see is on today.
- 5 I'd like a cup of coffee.
- 6 Please pass me the salt.

13.2C Negative questions: 'Can't you ...?' [> LEG 13.14-16]

Study:

- 1 In negative questions, the word order of the full form is different from the short form:

full form: Did he not explain the situation to you?

short form: Didn't he explain the situation to you?

We normally use the short form in conversation and the full form only for emphasis.

- 2 Depending on the stress and intonation we use, we can:

– express disbelief, surprise: Can't you really ride a bicycle?

– invite the answer 'Yes!': Don't you remember our holiday in Spain?

– persuade: Won't you please help me?

– express annoyance: Can't you ever shut the door behind you?

– make exclamations: Isn't it hot in here!

Write: Rewrite these negative questions using short forms.

- 1 Am I not too early? [> 10.1B] Aren't I too early?
- 2 Is she not very well?
- 3 Are those answers not wrong?
- 4 Is he not waiting for you?
- 5 Are they not living in Canada?
- 6 Was she not a famous actress?
- 7 Were you not at my old school?
- 8 Are you not going to be there?
- 9 Can you not walk faster?
- 10 Could you not do this for me?
- 11 Do you not like fish?
- 12 Does she not go to church?
- 13 Did he not enjoy the film?
- 14 Have you not finished yet?
- 15 Has he not gone yet?
- 16 Have I not been invited?
- 17 Should you not let him know?
- 18 Am I not invited?

13.2D Context

Write: Put in anything, anywhere, everyone, hardly ever, no, no one, nothing.

NOT YET!

A Yeti is supposed to be a strange creature that lives in the Himalayas. Nearly ¹ everyone has heard of Yetis, but ² has actually seen one. Recently, a party of climbers went up Mount Jaonli looking for Yetis. Unlike more famous mountains, Jaonli has ³ been climbed. The party saw ⁴ Yetis ⁵ There was a moment's excitement one night when a climber heard a strange, two-note sound. He rushed out of his tent and asked his Tibetan guide, Chewang Thundup, if he had heard ⁶ 'No, I heard ⁷ ,' the guide replied. 'But I just heard a strange sound,' the climber said. 'That was no Yeti,' Chewang laughed. 'It was me, blowing my nose!'

... a strange two-note sound

13.3 Tag questions and echo tags

13.3A Tag questions 1: 'It is ..., isn't it?'/ 'It isn't ..., is it?' [> LEG 13.17-19, 13.22.1-2]

Study:

- 1 A tag question is a short question (e.g. have you?/haven't you?) that follows a statement. We form tag questions with auxiliaries (be, have, can, may, etc.) and do, does, did.
- 2 They are affirmative – negative: John was annoyed, wasn't he? You like fish, don't you? or negative – affirmative: John wasn't annoyed, was he? You don't like fish, do you?
- 3 Many languages have a phrase which means 'Isn't that so?' In English, we use tags to say this, but we also use expressions like don't you think?, right? etc.
- 4 If our voice goes up on the tag, we are asking a real question which needs an answer:
You left the gas on, didn't you? – Yes, I did./No, I didn't.
You didn't leave the gas on, did you? – Yes, I did./No, I didn't.
- 5 If our voice goes down on the tag, we want the listener to agree with us and we don't usually expect an answer: You locked the door, didn't you? (= I assume you did.)
You didn't lock the door, did you? (= I assume you didn't.)

Write: You want the listener to agree with you. Do the exercise orally, then in writing.

13.3B Tag questions 2: 'You painted it yourself, did you?' [> LEG 13.20-21, 13.22.3]

Study:

Tag questions can also be affirmative – affirmative.

If our voice goes up on the tag, we mean 'Tell me more', etc.:

She's getting married, is she?* (= I'd like to know more about it.)

If our voice goes down on the tag, we express negative feelings like disappointment, disapproval or suspicion. We don't usually expect an answer:

I'll get my money back, will I? (= I don't believe it.)

Write: Say the sentences under A aloud and match them with a statement under B.

A

- 1 You painted it yourself, did you? e
- 2 You couldn't give me a hand, could you? __
- 3 Someone broke that vase, did they? __
- 4 You'll give me a call, will you? __
- 5 So they're selling their house, are they? __
- 6 You didn't leave the garage open, did you? __
- 7 He says he's innocent, does he? __

B

- a) I don't believe it.
- b) Tell me more.
- c) I hope you can.
- d) I hope you didn't.
- e) I'm impressed.
- f) I hope you will.
- g) I'm sorry to hear that.

13.3C Echo tags: 'Is he?'/ 'He is?' [> LEG 13.24-26]

Study:

- 1 An echo tag is a response, in tag form, to an affirmative or negative statement.

affirmative

He's resigning.

- Is he? He is?
- He is, isn't he?
- He is, is he?

negative

He isn't resigning.

- Isn't he? He isn't?
- He isn't, is he?

- 2 If our voice goes up on the echo, we want more information:

I've just won £500! – Have/you?/You have?/You haven't, have/you? (= Tell me more!)

- 3 If our voice goes down on the echo, we confirm what we know or have guessed:

I'm afraid he's made a bad mistake. – He has, hasn't he? (= I confirm what you say.)

or we express anger, surprise, disbelief, etc.:

I've got the sack! – You haven't!/You haven't, have you?/You have, have you?

Write:

Supply different echo tags in response to these statements.

Say the echo tags aloud with different intonation and describe what they express.

YOU COULD HAVE KNOCKED ME DOWN WITH A FEATHER!

I asked for my favourite perfume at the perfume counter of a large department store. 'We don't have that, ¹ do we?' the snooty assistant asked her colleague, as if I had just tried to buy a bag of onions. I was about to leave the counter when I saw a girl of about twelve slip away from her mother, seize a huge bottle of perfume from the counter and put it into her carrier bag. I gasped! 'Excuse me,' I said. 'Your daughter has just stolen a large bottle of perfume!' The mother looked at me in amazement. 'She ²?' 'That's right,' I said. She turned to her daughter. 'You didn't steal that big bottle that was on display, ³?' The girl nodded. 'You did, ⁴?' 'Yes, mum,' the girl confessed. 'I've told you hundreds of times, ⁵ that the big one on display is a dummy.' She angrily took the bottle from her daughter and put it back on display. 'You should always take one of the boxed ones at the back, ⁶? You do understand that, ⁷?' She helped herself to a boxed one and both she and her daughter disappeared into the crowd quick as a flash.

You could have knocked me down!

'2.....,' my wife said. The waiter took our order. 'My wife would like some soup and 3.....,' I said. When the waiter brought the soup, I noticed a monkey sitting on a chair beside me. Suddenly, the monkey's tail was in my soup! 'Waiter! Waiter!' I cried. 'There's a monkey's tail in my soup!' '4.....!' the waiter exclaimed. 'I can't remove it,' I said. '5.....,' the waiter said. 'This monkey belongs to the restaurant pianist and he won't let anyone touch it.' I spoke to the pianist. 'Do you know there's a monkey's tail in my soup?' I asked. WHO DID WHAT AND WHEN?

What we believe depends on our view of the world. For example, if we ask, '1.....When..... was America discovered?', most of us would think of Christopher Columbus in 1492. But Chinese children learn that Hui Shen, a Buddhist monk, got to America 1000 years earlier than Columbus. 2..... was printing invented by and 3..... year was it invented? You immediately think of Gutenberg in 1436, but Chinese children learn that it was invented by Bi Shen in 1041. 4..... invention is spaghetti? It's the invention of the Italians, you will say. Wrong again. The Chinese had it before them. 5..... and 6..... was the compass invented? Answer: in China in 200 B.C. 7..... was silk-making invented? Not in Persia, as you might think, but in China. 8..... was the first country to put a man into space and 9..... was he? The Soviet Union, you will say and the man's name was Yuri Gagarin. But according to the Chinese, Wan Hu made an attempt long before Yuri. 10....., do you think? – In A.D. 1500! He sat in a chair attached to 47 rockets, holding a giant kite which would help him return to earth. He never came back!

'It's a little gold mine!'

RENT-A-SPACE

My son, Len, is only twelve, but I think he's going to be an advertising tycoon. He had an accident during a football match last week and since then his leg has been in plaster. Len has been going round our local shops selling advertising space on his leg. ('What/charge?') ¹ What do you charge? I asked him. 'It depends,' he answered. ('How much space/want?') ² ('How long/want it (for)?') ³ ('Want/box') ⁴ or just a few lines? ('Want') ⁵ "prime position", or not? His plastered leg was covered with ads, so he was obviously doing well. ('How much/make') ⁶ so far?' I asked. 'I'm not saying,' he said. ('How/your leg') ⁷ coming on, anyway? 'Fine, thanks,' he answered. ('Why/you ask?') ⁸ 'I hope you're getting better and we can have that plaster off,' I remarked. 'I don't want it off too soon,' he grinned. 'It's a little gold mine!'

13.8 Subject-questions: 'Who?', 'What?', 'Which?', 'Whose?'

13.8A Subject or object? [> LEG 13.41-43]

Study:

- 1 A subject-question asks for the identity of the subject.
There is no inversion and the question has the same word order as a statement:

	subject	verb	object	subject-answer
statement:	Someone	paid	the waiter.
subject-question:	Who	paid	the waiter?	John (did).

Compare a Who(m)-question which asks for the object of a statement [> 13.5B]:

	subject	verb	object	object-answer
statement:	John	paid	the waiter.
Who(m) -question:	Who(m) did John pay?			The waiter.

- 2 Answers to subject-questions often echo the auxiliary verb used in the question:
Who can play the piano? – I can./I can't.
When no auxiliary verb is present in the question, we use do, does or did in the answer:
Who wants a lift? – I do. Who won? – We did.
- 3 What, Which, Whose and How much/How many can combine with other subject-words:
What number is ...? Which boy likes ...? Whose car is ...? How many students are ...?

Write 1: Does the question-word ask for the subject or the object in each question?

13.9B Questions about alternatives (2): 'Did you take it, or didn't you?' [> LEG 13.44-45]

Study:

We can ask two questions, one affirmative and one negative, about the same thing without repeating the verb in full.

Instead of: Did you take it, or didn't you take it?

We can say: Did you take it, or didn't you?

or: Did you or didn't you take it? Did you, or didn't you?

or: *Did you take it, or not? (Not or no)*

Write: Rephrase each question in three ways without repeating the verb in full.

- 1 Do you like fish, or don't you like fish?
a Do you like fish, or don't you?
b Do you or don't you like fish?
c Do you like fish, or not?

13.9C Emphatic questions with 'ever', etc. [> LEG 13.46-47]

Study:

- 1 We ask emphatic questions with ever to express admiration, anger, concern, etc. We write ever as a separate word from question-words. Compare:
Where ever did you buy that tie? Wherever you go, take your passport. [> 1.8C]
How ever did you manage it? However, I managed to persuade him. [> 7.8B]
What ever does she see in him? Whatever she sees in him, she'll marry him. [> 1.9C]
- 2 We use ever after all question-words except Which? and Whose? and we often put heavy stress on it in spoken questions: Where ever did you pick that up?
- 3 We can ask questions with ever.
 – to get a subject or an object: What ever made you late? What ever did he say?
 – in short responses: What ever for? Why ever not?
 or we use a phrase like on earth for extra emphasis: How on earth did you know?

Write: Make these questions more emphatic to express admiration, surprise, concern, etc.

- 1 Who gave you permission to do that? Who ever gave you permission to do that?
- 2 Why didn't you ask an expert to look at it?
- 3 When did they go to Iceland?
- 4 What will she say next?
- 5 Where shall I put this wet umbrella?
- 6 How do you expect me to carry all this?
- 7 How did you get into this mess?

13.9D Context

Write: Use forms with ever, etc. and ask questions about alternatives.

THE MAN I'VE BEEN WAITING FOR!

Colonel Blimp is a short-tempered man. He pays good money to his motoring organization and he expects instant service. He broke down on a lonely road recently and was ready to explode when he had to wait for two hours before help arrived. Even before the driver got out of his car, the Colonel was muttering, '(What) ¹ What ever took you so long? (What) ² do we pay good money for? I don't break down often, but (when) ³ I do, I expect real service.' The driver leaned out of the window. ('Have you broken down? Have you run out of petrol?') ⁴ 'Can't start the engine!' the Colonel said sharply. 'Let's have a look at it,' the man said. ('Have you tried to start it? Haven't you tried to start it?') ⁵ The Colonel, now red in the face, didn't reply. 'Well, (have you? haven't you?)' ⁶ the man asked. 'Oh, I see, you've flooded the engine. Got a cloth?' 'Haven't you even brought a cloth?' the Colonel yelled. The man smiled. 'Oh, this isn't my job, you know. I'm just a passing motorist. I stopped because you looked as if you needed help.'

14 Conditional sentences

14.1 Type 1 conditionals

14.1A Type 1 conditionals, basic uses: 'If the weather clears, we'll go for a walk' [> LEG 14.4-6]

Study:

- 1 We can use all present tenses after if, not just the simple present, for example:
If she finishes work early, she will go home. (if + simple present + will)
If she has finished work by 4 o'clock, she will go home. (if + present perfect + will)
- 2 We can use all future tenses in the main clauses, not just the will-future:
If he doesn't hurry, the plane will have left by the time he gets to the airport.
- 3 We use Type 1 conditionals to describe what will or won't (probably) happen:
If the weather clears, we'll go for a walk. (Not If the weather will clear)

Write: Supply the correct forms of the missing verbs.

- 1 If it is (be) fine tomorrow, we will go (go) for a picnic.
- 2 If I (have) time tonight, I (finish) the novel I'm reading.
- 3 If it (rain) next weekend, we (not able to) plant the vegetables.
- 4 If he (be leaving) at 6 o'clock, I (ask) him to give me a lift.
- 5 If she (have drive) all that way since this morning, (be) tired and hungry.
- 6 If they (have/be working) all afternoon, they (probably need) a cup of tea.

- 9 If you (have/forget) to phone, they (will have/go) without you.
- 10 If we (stay) in this flat till May, we (will have/be living) here for twenty years.

14.1B 'If' + present + modal: 'If it's fine tomorrow, we may go for a swim' [> LEG 14.7]

Study:

When we use will in the main clause, we are expressing certainty or near-certainty:
If the weather clears, we'll go for a walk. (certain, or nearly certain) [> 11.4A]
If we do not feel 'certain' enough to use will, we can use another modal to say what is possible, necessary or desirable, for example:
If it's fine tomorrow, we may go for a swim. (it's possible)
If it's fine tomorrow, we must go for a swim. (it's necessary or desirable to do this)

Write: Supply the correct forms of the missing verbs, but use these modals in the main clause: can, could, may, might, should, ought to, or must. Alternatives are possible.

- 1 If you are (be) still ill tomorrow, you ought to stay at home.
- 2 If you (finish) work early, you come for a drink with us.
- 3 If she (have) too much to do, she ask someone to help her.
- 4 If he (not be coming) tonight, he come next week.
- 5 If he (have only just arrive), he not have heard the news.
- 6 If they (have be/waiting) longer than an hour, they be getting impatient.
- 7 If we (can't/go) next week, we manage to go the week after.

14.1C 'If + should' instead of 'if + present' [> LEG 14.8]

Study:

If + should, instead of if + present, makes the condition more doubtful or very polite:
If I should see him, I'll ask him to ring you. (= If I see him, I'll ask him to ring you.)

Write: Rewrite these sentences using should in the if-clause.

- 1 If you see him, please give him this message. If you should see him, ...
- 2 If she asks you, please don't tell her anything.
- 3 If he phones, please say I'm out.
- 4 If the temperature falls, turn up the heating.
- 5 If you receive a letter, let me know.
- 6 If you go out, get me a paper.

14.1D Imperative + 'and/or' + clause: 'Fail to pay and ...' [> LEG 14.9]

Study:

We can use the imperative in place of an if-clause to comment, threaten, request, etc.

- 1 We follow the imperative with and in place of an if-clause in the affirmative:

If you fail to pay, they'll cut off the electricity. →

Fail to pay and they'll cut off the electricity.

- 2 We follow the imperative with or in place of an if-clause in the negative:

If you don't stop borrowing money, you'll be in trouble. →

Stop borrowing money, or you'll be in trouble.

Write: Change these sentences to begin with an imperative.

- 1 If you ask me nicely, I'll mend it for you. Ask me nicely and I'll mend it for you.
- 2 If you crash my car, I'll never forgive you.
- 3 If you work late tonight, I'll pay you well.
- 4 If you don't hurry, you'll be late.
- 5 If you don't take a taxi, you'll miss your train.
- 6 If you don't stop shouting, I'll slap you.

14.1E Context

Write: Put in the missing verb forms.

Here's the doctor!

AN URGENT CASE

The family party was in full swing when the phone rang. Dr Craig answered it. He listened carefully for a moment, then said, 'I'll come right away.' 'Do you have to go out?' his wife asked. 'If it ¹..... an urgent case, I have to go,' Dr Craig answered. 'If I (should) ²..... late, please don't wait up for me.' Dr Craig drove into the night. If I don't hurry, he thought, I (might) ³..... too late. The thought made him drive faster. After driving for an hour, he arrived at a house. All the lights were on. If all the family is up, the doctor thought, the situation (must) ⁴..... serious. A woman opened the front door immediately. 'Thank God you've come, doctor,' she cried. 'It's my daughter.' A sleepy child of about six appeared in a nightdress. 'I told her,' her mother said, '"(go)" ⁵..... to bed, or I'll fetch the doctor'. See,' she shouted at the child. 'I've done it. Here's the doctor!'

14.2 Type 2 conditionals

14.2A Type 2 conditionals, basic uses: 'If you went by train, you would ...'

[> LEG 14.10-12]

Study:

We form Type 2 conditionals with if + past (or if + could) + would.

- 1 We can use Type 2 conditionals in place of Type 1 to describe something that is reasonably possible. The past tense form does not refer to past time:

If you go by train, you will (you'll) get there earlier. (Type 1: reasonably possible)

If you went by train, you would (you'd) get there earlier. (Type 2, 'more tentative')

- 2 We often use Type 2 conditionals to describe what is totally impossible:

If you had longer legs, you would be able to run faster. (Not If you would have)

If you could run fast, you'd be an Olympic champion.

Write: Write Type 2 conditionals to match these situations.

- 1 I don't have a spare ticket. I can't take you to the concert.

If I had a spare ticket, I could/would take you to the concert.

- 2 She drinks too much coffee. She doesn't feel calm.

- 3 He can't type. He isn't able to operate a computer.

- 4 They don't understand the problem. They won't find a solution.

- 5 He sits around too much. He isn't fit.

14.2B 'If + were/was' + 'would': 'If I were you, I would ...' [> LEG 14.13]

Study:

- 1 We can use were in place of was after if in all persons: 'the subjunctive' [> 11.13B].

Were is formal. We also prefer were when expressing doubt or imagining something:

If I was better qualified, I'd apply for the job. (If I was: less formal)

If I were better qualified, I'd apply for the job. (If I were: more formal)

How would she be managing, if she were running a large company? (progressive forms)

If I were the Queen of Sheba, you would be King Solomon. (were is preferable here)

- 2 We use If I were you and If I were in your position to give advice. (Not If I was)

We can also refer to somebody else: If I were in Jane's position, I'd look for a new job.

Write: Write Type 2 conditionals to match these situations.

- 1 She is not in your position. She isn't able to advise you.

If she were in your position, she would be able to advise you.

- 2 I am in a hurry. I won't stay to dinner.

- 3 He's not a millionaire. He won't buy you a palace.

- 4 The weather isn't sunny. We won't stay indoors.

- 5 I am fit. I will go climbing.

14.2C 'If' + past + modal: 'If he knew the facts, he might ...' [> LEG 14.14]

Study:

When we use would in the main clause, we are expressing as much certainty as possible:

If he knew the facts, he would tell us what to do. (certain or nearly certain [> 14.1B])

If we don't feel 'certain' enough to use would, we can use another modal to say what would be possible or necessary, for example:

If he knew the facts, he might tell us what to do. (it's possible)

If he knew the facts, he should tell us what to do. (it's necessary)

Write: Supply the correct forms of the missing verbs. Use could, ought to, or might in the main clause.

- 1 If she were/was (be) here now, she could give (give) us some advice.
- 2 If he (fail) in his present job, he (think) about another career.
- 3 If you (can play) a musical instrument, you (help) with the school orchestra.
- 4 If they (have) the right qualifications, they (be able to) apply for better jobs.
- 5 If she (can have) some lessons, she (improve) her performance.
- 6 If we (run) our own business, we (be) more independent.
- 7 If John (go) to his home town, he (visit) his mother.
- 8 If Susan (borrow) your book, she (return) it.
- 9 If Frank (want) advice, he (ask) his bank manager.

14.2D Context

Write: Put in Type 2 conditionals throughout.

LYING IN THE SUN

Two tramps, Eugene and Sergio, were lying in the sun.

EUGENE: What (we/doing) ¹ would we be doing if the sun (not shining) ² ?

SERGIO: Well, (we/not be) ³ lying here for a start. But that's not the important question. The important question is: what (we do) ⁴ if (we/be) ⁵ rich?

EUGENE: If (we/be) ⁶ rich, we (can/travel) ⁷ everywhere.

SERGIO: True, but we travel everywhere already.

EUGENE: Yes, but not in style. If (we/have) ⁸ money, our chauffeur, James, (can/drive) ⁹ us round in our Rolls. Imagine, if (we/be) ¹⁰ in that position! (We/return) ¹¹ to our fine mansion in the country.

SERGIO: Yes, the butler (put out) ¹² fresh clothes for us, the cook (prepare) ¹³ a fine meal for us. We ¹⁴ not just be eating carrots all the time.

EUGENE: Yes. If (we/own) ¹⁵ a house like that, (we/also have) ¹⁶ a fine swimming-pool.

SERGIO: Yes! Yes! If (we/have) ¹⁷ a fine swimming-pool, (we can/swim) ¹⁸ as much as we liked.

EUGENE: If (we/be) ¹⁹ really really rich, (we can/lie) ²⁰ in the sun!

SERGIO: But we are lying in the sun!

Lying in the sun

14.3 Type 3 conditionals

14.3A Type 3 conditionals, basic uses: 'If you had gone by train, ...'

[> LEG 14.16-19]

Study:

We form Type 3 conditionals with if + past perfect (or if + could have) + would have. We often use Type 3 conditionals to express regret, etc. about things that can now never happen. We can use simple or progressive forms of the past perfect in the if-clause:

If I'd (= I had) been taller, I'd (= I would) have joined the police force.
If I had had any sense, I wouldn't have bought a second-hand car.
If we had gone by car, we would have saved time.
If I had been trying harder, I would have succeeded.
If I could have stopped, there wouldn't have been an accident.

Write: Comment on the following situations with if (expressing regret, etc.).

- 1 John ate too much birthday cake, so he was sick.
If John hadn't eaten too much birthday cake, he wouldn't have been sick.
- 2 We came home from our holiday early because we ran out of money.
.....
- 3 The house didn't burn down because the fire brigade came immediately.
.....
- 4 The men were wearing protective clothing, so they were all quite safe.
.....
- 5 I had an accident because I wasn't watching the road.
.....
- 6 I was sweating because it was so hot.
.....
- 7 My father didn't earn much money, so life wasn't easy for us.
.....
- 8 I didn't enjoy school, so I didn't do very well.
.....

14.3B 'If I had been you/If I had been in your position' [> LEG 14.18.1]

Study:

We often use If I had been you and If I had been in your position to describe what we would have done in someone else's position:

If I had been you/If I had been in your position, I would have accepted their offer.

Write: Comment on these situations. Begin each sentence with If I had been ...

- 1 Marie paid £200 for a dress.
If I had been Marie, I wouldn't have paid £200 for a/that dress.
- 2 Franz didn't take that job he was offered.
.....
- 3 Ali didn't study at all, so he failed his exams.
.....
- 4 Sandra walked to work in the rain and got wet.
.....

14.4 Mixed conditionals; 'unless/if ... not', etc.

14.4A Mixed tenses in conditional sentences [> LEG 14.3]

Study:

We do not always have to stick rigidly to the 'three types of conditional sentences'. There are occasions when we can use any tenses in if-clauses, depending on the context:

If I am as clever as you say I am, I would have been rich by now. Type 1 + Type 3

If you knew me better, you wouldn't have said that. Type 2 + Type 3

If I had had your advantages, I'd be better off now. Type 3 + Type 2

Write: Use mixed tenses in these sentences.

- 1 If I were (be) you, I would have checked (check) my facts before I wrote that letter.
- 2 If you (be) so hungry, you (not miss) breakfast.
- 3 If he (not catch) the 5.30 train, he (not arrive) for another two hours.
- 4 He (feel) very tired today if he (play) rugby yesterday.
- 5 If the snake bite (be) poisonous, you (feel) very ill now.
- 6 If I (be) in your position, I (answer) his letter by now.

14.4B 'If not' and 'unless' [> LEG 14.20]

Study:

1 We can use if ... not and unless in place of each other when we are saying 'except if'.

Unless is 'stronger' than if not and we sometimes use it in 'threats':

If you don't change your mind I won't be able to help you. (= Except if you change ...)

Unless you change your mind, I won't be able to help you. (= Except if you change ...)

2 We cannot use unless in place of if not when if not doesn't mean 'except if':

I'll be surprised if he doesn't win. (if not doesn't mean 'except if')

She'd be better company if she didn't complain so much. (if not doesn't mean 'except if')

3 We often use unless (never if ... not) to introduce an afterthought:

I couldn't have got to the meeting – unless, of course, I had caught an earlier train.

Write 1: Tick the sentences where we could use either if not or unless.

- 1 I won't do it if you don't help me. ✓
- 2 Unless he chooses his words more carefully, he'll be in trouble. ____
- 3 She'd have more friends if she didn't criticise everyone so much. ____
- 4 I'll be surprised if they don't get married one day. ____
- 5 She couldn't have stolen the jewels unless she had had inside help. ____
- 6 She couldn't have stolen the jewels – unless of course someone had helped her. ____
- 7 I'd be very pleased with this car if it didn't break down all the time. ____

Write 2: Supply if not or unless in these sentences. Note where you could use either.

- 1 (you/tell) Unless you tell. / If you don't tell. me the whole story, I won't be able to help you.
- 2 He would be happier and healthier (he/have) so many worries.
- 3 We couldn't have caught the plane – (we/break) the speed limit getting to the airport.
- 4 (management and unions/become) more flexible, there'll be a lot more strikes.
- 5 I'll be there by 7 o'clock (I/get held up) in the traffic.
- 6 (we/have) more rain soon, the plants will all die.
- 7 (you/not warn) me, I would have fallen into the same trap as you.

14.4C Conjunctions we can sometimes use in place of 'if' [> LEG 14.21]

Study:

We can introduce conditionals with conjunctions which do not always have exactly the same meaning as if, for example: assuming (that), even if, on (the) condition (that), provided (or providing) that, so long as, suppose and supposing:

Assuming (that) It's fine tomorrow, we'll go for a swim.

Write: Rewrite these sentences using the conjunctions in brackets.

- 1 If you gave me $10,000, I still (not go) down a coal mine. (even if)
Even if you gave me $10,000, I still wouldn't go down a coal mine.
- 2 I (lend) you my book if you let me have it back by Monday. (on (the) condition (that))
.....
- 3 If you look after it, I (let) you keep my bicycle till the weekend. (providing (that))
.....
- 4 If you (not tell) anyone else, I'll tell you what happened. (so long as)
.....
- 5 If it (be) a holiday on Monday, we can drive to the seaside. (assuming (that))
.....
- 6 The children were never scolded if they (do) what they were told. (so long as)

Write: Put in the right conditionals.

THE SECRET OF A LONG LIFE

Grygori Pilikian recently celebrated his 114th birthday and reporters visited him in his mountain village in Georgia to find out the secret of a long life. 'The secret of a long life,' Grygori said, 'is happiness. If you (be) ¹..... are..... happy, you will live a long time.' 'Are you married?' a reporter asked. 'Yes,' Grygori replied. 'I married my third wife when I was 102. If you are happily married, you (live) ²..... for ever. But for my third wife, I (die) ³..... years ago.' 'What about smoking and drinking?' a reporter asked. 'Yes, they are important,' Grygori said. 'Don't smoke at all and you (feel) ⁴..... well. Drink two glasses of wine a day and you (be) ⁵..... healthy and happy.' 'If you (can/live) ⁶..... your life again, what (you/do) ⁷.....?' a reporter asked. 'I would do what I have done. If I had had more sense, I (eat) ⁸..... more yoghurt!' he chuckled. 'Supposing you (can/change) ⁹..... one thing in your life what (you/change) ¹⁰.....?' another reporter asked. 'Not much,' Grygori replied. 'So you don't have any regrets?' 'Yes, I have one regret,' Grygori replied. 'If I (know) ¹¹..... I was going to live so long, I (look after) ¹²..... myself better!'

The secret is ... happiness!

15.1C 'Quote within a quote' [> LEG 15.3ns.3,5]

Study:

- 1 If we are quoting someone else's words inside a quotation, we use a second set of quotation marks. If we have used single quotation marks on the 'outside', we use double ones on the 'inside' and vice-versa. The inside quotation has its own punctuation, distinct from the rest of the sentence:

Ann said, 'Just as I was leaving, a voice shouted, "Stop!".'

'What do you mean, "Are you all right?"?' Ann asked.

- 2 We can also use a second set of quotation marks when we mention the title of e.g. a book or a film: 'How long did it take you to read "War and Peace"?' I asked.
- 3 We don't normally use quotation marks with verbs like think and wonder.
So that was their little game, he thought. Why hasn't she written, he wondered.

Write: Add correct punctuation marks to these examples of direct speech.

- As I was leaving, he explained someone shouted Fire
- Please don't keep asking me What's the time Jim said crossly
- Have you read Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf my teacher asked
- What do you mean Have you lost your way the stranger asked me
- Where are they now he wondered

Write: In printed dialogue, each new speech begins on a new line in a new paragraph. Punctuate the following.

The Roxy was closed ...

INSPECTOR WILEY INVESTIGATES

- You think so Inspector Wiley asked mildly
- Think so? I know it Boyle answered sharply
- And no doubt the inspector continued you can prove it. Where were you on Saturday night, the night of the robbery
- I was at the Roxy with my girlfriend Boyle replied. We saw Gone with the Wind. The film lasted four hours
- But, cried the inspector the Roxy was closed all last weekend

15.2 'Say', 'tell' and 'ask'

15.2A 'Say', 'tell' and 'ask' [> LEG 15.5-9]

Study:

- 1 The commonest reporting verbs in both direct and indirect speech are: say, tell and ask.
- 2 We must always use a personal indirect object after tell (tell somebody ...):
He told me he was tired. (Not told to me*) John told his mother he was going out.
We can use to me, etc. after say if we want to, but we can't say He said me* [> 1.3B]:
'You haven't got much time,' he said (to me). or: ... he told me. Not he said me/he told
- 3 We can use me, etc. after ask if we want to: 'Are you comfortable?' he asked (me).

15.3 Indirect statements with tense changes

15.3A Common indirect speech forms [> LEG 15.12-13, 9.5]

Study:

We tend to use past tenses in indirect speech because we are reporting past events, so we use the past tense of reporting verbs (he said (that) ... he told me (that)). How we report is a matter of common sense and we can mix tenses if we want to. We can say:

Jim says he's read Tony's book and didn't understand it. (= then, when he read it)

Jim said he'd read Tony's book and doesn't understand it. (= now), etc.

But what commonly happens is that present attracts present and past attracts past, so we would probably say: Jim said he'd read Tony's book and didn't understand it.

We move the reported clauses 'one tense back'. A useful general rule is:

'present becomes past and past becomes past perfect'.

Write: Report these statements with said (except 13) moving the clauses 'one tense back'.

DIRECT SPEECH STATEMENTS

15.3B Pronoun and adverb changes in indirect speech [> LEG 15.12-13]

Study:

1 Pronouns change (or not) depending on the view of the reporter:

'I'll send you a card, Sue.' (actual words spoken by Ann)

Ann told Sue she'd send her a card. (reported by someone else)

Ann said/told me she would send me a card. (reported by Sue)

I told Sue (that) I'd send her a card. (reported by Ann)

2 Time and place changes: Adverb changes depend on context, e.g.

now → immediately/then

today → that day

tonight → that night, etc.

It is not always necessary to make these changes, especially in spoken indirect speech.

'I'll see you tonight,' he said. → He said he would see me tonight.

15.4 Indirect questions with tense changes

15.4A Indirect Yes/No questions: 'He asked me if I was ready' [> LEG 15.17-18]

Study:

- 1 We don't use quotation marks or question marks in indirect questions:
He asked me if (or whether) I was ready.
- 2 Tense changes: 'Present becomes past and past becomes past perfect', but [> 15.3A]:
'Are you ready?' → He asked (me) if/whether I was ready.
If we are reporting a question that has just been asked, we can say:
'Are you ready?' – 'What did John ask you?' – 'He asked me if/whether I'm ready.'
- 3 The inversion [> 13.1A] in the direct question changes to statement word order:
'Are you ready?' → He asked (me) if/whether I was ready.
A reported tag question [> 13.3] also changes to statement word order:
'You're ready, aren't you?' → He asked (me) if/whether I was ready.
- 4 We use if or whether after ask, want to know, wonder, (not) know, didn't say/tell me.

Write: Report these Yes/No questions moving the clauses 'one tense back'.

- 1 'Are you hungry?' She asked us if/whether we were hungry.
- 2 'Are you enjoying yourself?' He wanted to know
- 3 'Do you always go to church on Sunday?' He wondered
- 4 'Have you seen John recently?' She asked me
- 5 'Has Debbie been working here long?' He wanted to know
- 6 'Did you study hard for the exam?' She wondered
- 7 'Will Ted and Alice be at the party?' She asked us
- 8 'Will you be coming to the concert or not?' He wanted to know
- 9 'You like Italian food, don't you?' She asked me
- 10 'You don't like Italian food, do you?' She wanted to know

15.4B Indirect question-word questions: 'He asked me why I went there' [> LEG 15.19-20]

Study:

The inversion after a question-word in a direct question changes to statement word order in the reported question and, if necessary, the tense is changed at the same time:
'Why haven't you finished?' → He asked (me) why I hadn't finished.
'When did you go there?' → He asked (me) when I went (or had gone) there.

Write: Report these question-word questions moving the clauses 'one tense back'.

- 1 'What's the weather like?' She asked me what the weather was like.
- 2 'What does Frank do for a living?' I wanted to know
- 3 'Why is Maria crying?' She wondered
- 4 'What kind of holiday has Marco had?' You wanted to know
- 5 'How long have you both been living here?' They inquired
- 6 'Where did they go last week?' She wanted to know
- 7 'Who were you looking for?' He asked me
- 8 'When will lunch be ready?' You didn't tell me
- 9 'Which countries will John be visiting?' You didn't say
- 10 'How can I solve the problem?' I wanted to know

15.4C Indirect subject-questions [> LEG 15.21-22]

Study:

A direct subject-question has the same word order as a statement [>13.8A]:

John paid the waiter. → Who paid the waiter? (Not Who did pay the waiter?)

We keep the same word order when we report a subject-question, though, if necessary, we change the tense:

'John paid the waiter.' → He asked (me) who (had) paid the waiter.

Write: Report these subject-questions moving the clauses 'one tense back' only where necessary.

- 1 'Who's next please?' She wanted to know who was next.
- 2 'What makes a noise like that?' He wondered
- 3 'Which of you is waiting to see me next?' The doctor asked
- 4 'Whose composition haven't we heard yet?' The teacher asked us to tell her
- 5 'Who left this bag here?' Tell me
- 6 'What caused the accident?' Can you explain
- 7 'Which newspaper carried the article?' I'd like to know
- 8 'Whose painting will win the competition?' I haven't any idea
- 9 'Which firms have won prizes for exports?' This article doesn't say
- 10 'Which number can be divided by three?' The teacher asked

15.5 Uses of the to-infinitive in indirect speech

15.5A Reporting the imperative: 'He reminded me to post the letter' [> LEG 15.24]

Study:

- 1 We report the imperative with suitable verbs + to-infinitive. The reporting verb matches the function of the imperative (asking, telling, advising, etc. [> 9.10A, 16.3C]), e.g.
'Remember to post the letter,' he asked me. becomes: He reminded me to post the letter.
- 2 When we report a negative imperative, we put not or never before the to-infinitive:
'Don't wait,' he said. → He asked me not to wait. (Not to not or to don't)
'Never do that again,' he said. → He told us never to do that again. (Not to never)

Write: Report the following using the simple past of the verbs in brackets.

- 1 'Wait for me,' I said to him. (tell)
I told him to wait for me.
- 2 'Go on holiday when the weather gets warmer,' she told him. (advise)

- This is how we report offers and suggestions with shall or should [> 11.6E,F]:
- direct offer or suggestion: 'Shall I phone her?' 'Should I phone her?'
 - reported with if or whether: He wanted to know if/whether he should phone her.
 - reported with whether to: He wanted to know whether to phone her. (Not if to)

Write: Report each question in two ways.

- 2 'Should I leave a message for her?' He asked
- 3 'Shall I heat the food for you?' She asked him
- 4 'Should I phone him now?' He wanted to know
- 5 'Shall I invite them to dinner?' She wanted to know

15.5C Requests for advice with question-words: 'He wanted to know how ...'

[> LEG 15.24.2, 16.24]

Study:

This is how we report requests for advice with question-words:

- direct request for advice: How shall I repair it? How should I repair it?
 - reported with question-word + should: He wanted to know how he should repair it.
 - reported with question-word + to-infinitive: He wanted to know how to repair it.
- We can use a to-infinitive after all question-words (how to, when to, etc.) except why:
He wanted to know why he should wait. (Not "He wanted to know why to wait.")

Write: Report each request in two ways, where possible.

A GIFT FROM CHICAGO

It had been a particularly bad winter in Chicago. Nearly forty inches of snow had fallen in a fortnight. Railway workers at Chicago station didn't know (what/do) ¹ what to do with it. The foreman (advise them/shovel) ² it into huge mountains to keep the platforms clear. He (tell/not leave) ³ any snow on the platforms because it was dangerous for passengers. But it was an impossible task! Suddenly, one of the workers had a bright idea. 'I know (how/get rid) ⁴ of it,' he said. 'Let's load it onto this freight train. We can send it south to Mississippi and New Orleans. It'll just melt away.' The next day five tons of snow arrived in Memphis, Tennessee. 'It's a welcome gift,' a railway worker said. 'We know (what/do) ⁵ with it here. We'll send what we can to the children's playground. Some of us have never seen snow before!'

'It's a welcome gift.'

15.6 When we use indirect speech

15.6A Interpreting direct speech [> LEG 15.13n.2, 15.25, App 45]

Study:

- 1 Indirect speech commonly occurs in continuous paragraphs of reported language, not in unrelated sentences. To hold it together, we use phrases like: she went on to say, he continued, he added that. We also vary the reporting verbs: he observed, she noted, they remarked, etc. Yes/No answers or adverbs like Well are common in direct speech, but they disappear when we report them.
- 2 We don't apply 'rules' mechanically when we are reporting; we have to interpret what we hear or read, so we often use reporting verbs like exclaim, insist, suggest, etc.:
'You really must let me pay the bill,' Andrew said. can be 'interpreted' as:
Andrew insisted on paying the bill.

Write: Interpret these examples of direct speech, then re-express them as indirect speech.

- 1 'Why don't we go sailing?' Diana said.
Diana suggested (that) we (should) go sailing.
- 2 'You've just won a lottery!' Tom said.
'Really?' Jennifer exclaimed.

'Yes, I agree,' Gillian answered.
- 4 'I don't think you should take up wind-surfing at your age,' John said.
'I feel it's a sport that will suit all ages,' Jenny replied.
'But it requires great physical strength,' John said.
'And who told you I was short of that?' Jenny said.

'But I want to,' Billy insisted.
'Well, you can't.'

SECOND-HAND GOODS

It's a sad fact that people steal from hotels. Recently I interviewed Mr David Wills, the manager of a large hotel, and he ¹ told me that all kinds of things, large and small, ² constantly stolen. 16 The infinitive and the '-ing' form

16.1 The bare infinitive and the to-infinitive

16.1A Forms of the infinitive [> LEG 16.1-3]

Study:

1 We often use the base form of a verb (go) as an infinitive. We call this the bare infinitive because we use it without to. We must distinguish it from the to*-infinitive, where we always use to in front of the base form of the verb (to go). The most common use of the bare infinitive is after modal verbs He may/can (etc.) go [> 11.1A-B].

2 Forms of the infinitive:

	active	passive
present infinitive	(not) (to) ask	(not) (to) be asked present progressive infinitive	(not) (to) be asking	– perfect or past infinitive	(not) (to) have asked	(not) (to) have been asked perfect/past progressive infinitive	(not) (to) have been asking	–

Write: Using the verbs in brackets, supply the appropriate forms of the infinitive:

be doing, be done, do, have been doing, have been done, or have done.

16.1B 'Let', 'make', 'would rather/sooner' and 'had better' [> LEG 16.4-5]

Study:

1 We use the imperative form Let's (= Let us) + bare infinitive for making suggestions:

Let's take a taxi! Let's take a taxi, shall we? Do let's take a taxi. [> 11.6F]

The negative is: Let's not (take a taxi). Or: Don't let's (take a taxi).

2 Let as a full verb (= 'allow') is always followed by a noun or pronoun + bare infinitive:

I won't let you/him, etc. go. Don't let the children annoy you. They won't let us speak.

3 Make (= compel) is followed by a bare infinitive in the active: She made them work hard.

It is followed by a to-infinitive in the passive: They were made to work hard.

4 We use the bare infinitive after would rather (not), would sooner (not), had better (not):

I'd rather be told the truth. You'd better not go near the edge. [> 11.8A]

Write: Supply suitable infinitive forms for the verbs given in brackets.

16.1C The infinitive with or without 'to' after 'help' and 'know' [> LEG 16.7]

Study:

- 1 We may use a bare infinitive or a to-infinitive after a few verbs like help and know.

The use of a to-infinitive is more formal:

Mother helped me (to) do my homework.

We do not usually omit to after not.

How can I help my children not to worry about their exams?

- 2 We sometimes use help without a noun or pronoun object:

Everyone in the village helped (to) build the new Youth Centre.

- 3 We have a noun or pronoun object after know.

I've never known her (to) be late before. I've never known her not (to) be late.

We use to in the passive: He was known to have/to have had a quick temper as a boy.

Have the next patient come in, please. [compare > 12.3B]
